Enrique Bradfield Jr.

51 • Outfielder

Hialeah, Fla. • American Heritage

Head coach Tim Corbin on Bradfield Jr.: “Enrique adjusted very well to the college game. He got the opportunity to get on the field early and he made the most of his opportunities. He became a very steady and durable presence on the field for us. There is an obvious speed element to his game that impacts the offensive and defensive sides of the ball for our team. What is most enjoyable to watch, is his ability to compete. He loves the arena of competition and has a fearless attitude toward the game. Competes academically as well...very good student.”

Greysen Carter

98 • Right-Handed Pitcher

Freshman • 6-4 • 218

Louisville, Colo. • Fairview

Head coach Tim Corbin on Carter: "Greysen is a strong, athletic young pitcher, who moves forcefully down the mound. He naturally throws a heavy ball with a good amount of movement. I like Greysen's aptitude and the potential that lies within him. He is going to have the ability to deliver power stuff to the plate."

The Carter File

- Attended Fairview High School (Louisville, Colo.)
- The top overall prospect in the state of Colorado according to Perfect Game
- Rated the 23rd-best right-handed pitcher nationally

Gavin Casas

39 • Infielder

Sophomore • 6-3 • 225

Pembroke Pines, Fla. • American Heritage

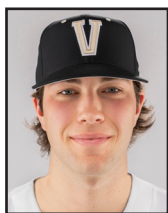

Head coach Tim Corbin on Casas: "Although Gavin didn't see a lot of time on the field last year, he was part of an Omaha team and earned a lot of reps with that group. Gav has size, strength, and power in his bat. He moves well at 1st base and has a good arm. He will be coming back from an injury that set him back during the summer, but he is moving in the right direction now. He certainly has the potential to help this program."

As a Freshman (2021)

Bryce Cunningham

97 • Right-Handed Pitcher

Freshman • 6-5 • 225

Headland, Ala. • Headland

Head coach Tim Corbin on Cunningham: "I really like Bryce's growth in the short time that he has been here. The first part of that growth has been academic... he stepped up right away and competed well in some tough classes. That alone, told me that he had a "care level" for what he was doing. Bryce has pitching skill, is a consistent mover, competes well and shows emotional control on the mound. Once he matures in the weight room, there will be a bigger spike in his performance."

The Cunningham File

- Attended Headland High School (Headland, Ala.)
- The ninth-best overall prospect in the state of Alabama according to Perfect Game
- Rated the fourth-best right-handed pitcher in Alabama

- Full name is Bryce Allen Cunningham

Davis Diaz

11 • Infielder

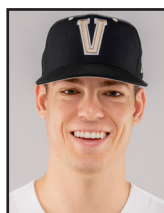

Freshman • 5-11 • 170

Pittsburg, Calif. • Acalanes

Head coach Tim Corbin on Diaz: "D's is a consistent young man...in virtually everything that he does. He shows up the same way every day...with a smile and an energy to get better. He trained at shortstop most of the fall, but he could play anywhere in the infield. He shows good maturity at the plate as well. Davis is a well-rounded baseball player."

The Diaz File

- Attended Acalanes High School (Pittsburg, Calif.)
- The No. 12 overall prospect in the state of California according to Perfect Game
- Rated the sixth-best shortstop in California

Alan Espinal

45 • Catcher

Freshman • 6-0 • 190

Viera, Fla. • Viera

Head coach Tim Corbin on Espinal: "Alan is as positive of a human being as there is. No bad days for this kid. He enjoys the team environment, and the team certainly enjoys him...he is fun to be around. Espy had a little time behind the plate last year and will certainly grow more into that position with time. He has very good catching tools...he has good hands with a strong arm. Espy also shows good strength in his barrel."

As a Freshman (2021)

- Belted a home run in his lone trip to the plate in the win over Florida International (May 18), marking the first hit of his collegiate career

The Espinal File

- Attended Viera High School (Viera, Fla.)

- Enjoys playing volleyball
- Full name is Alan Espinal Colon

Donye Evans

44 • Right-Handed Pitcher

Sophomore • 6-6 • 220

Decatur, Ga. • Redan

Head coach Tim Corbin on Evans: "Donye had a long way to go when he stepped on campus last year, but if there is any kid that has transformed himself academically, athletically, physically, and emotionally...it's him. I'm proud of the student-athlete that he is becoming. The pitching skill is starting to grow as well. Although he got limited time off the mound last year, he is trending in a good direction. Fun kid to be around."

As a Freshman (2021)

- Saw eight appearances across his freshman campaign, totaling 5.2 innings of work
- Made season debut in a win at Oklahoma State (March 13), working 1.0 inning

Devin Futrell

95 • Left-Handed Pitcher

Freshman • 6-5 • 195

Pembroke Pines, Fla. • American Heritage

Head coach Tim Corbin on Futrell: "Devin was committed to our program for quite some time. He attended our fall camp as a high school freshman, and it was evident to us that he had an advanced skill for pitching. Because of that skill, Devin will give himself a chance to compete as a freshman. I like his confidence and the way he competes...he pitches to win."

The Futrell File

- Attended American Heritage High School (Pembroke Pines, Fla.)
- The No. 24 overall prospect in the state of Florida according to Perfect Game, and the second-ranked left-handed pitcher

Brett Hansen

Sophomore • 6-4 • 205

Pleasanton, Calif. • Foothill

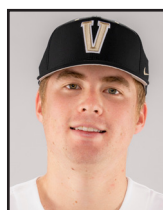

Head coach Tim Corbin on Hansen: "Brett works very hard at his craft. He has emerged as one of the most fit players on our team. He is "all-in" on everything that he does, which explains his consistency. After serving a two-year mission before his freshman year, Brett is beginning to put continuous growth opportunities together. There certainly has been improvement over these last couple of months. Very positive young man and an exceptional student."

As a Freshman (2021)

- Did not make an appearance in 2021

The Hansen File

Dominic Keegan

12 • Utility

Senior • 6-0 • 210

Methuen, Mass. • Central Catholic

Head coach Tim Corbin on Keegan: "Dominic has been a very steady and consistent presence in our program for the last four years. We are grateful that he chose to come back to Vanderbilt for his final year. He has been a part of two national championship experiences and understands team commitment. His maturity and connection with the entire group, are reasons why Dom is so respected within the program. He gives our team very good defensive versatility with his catching skills and his experience at first base. He has grown each year as an offensive player and can change the scoreboard with his power. Dom is a very grounded and humble young man."

Tate Kolwyck

6 • Infielder

Senior • 5-11 • 195

Memphis, Tenn. • Arlington

Head coach Tim Corbin on Kolwyck: "Tate is one of the most positive kids we have had in our program. His attitude towards academics, athletics, and life, are consistent and constructive. He is a very influential teammate and his mission as an individual is to serve the team. Tate is best described as a "baseball player". He has done many things on the field defensively and started to emerge into a very sound defensive second baseman last year. He has also grown into a steady offensive player who can drive the baseball to all fields. We missed Tate in our post season run last year because of an injury. His on and off field presence will continue to help this program. He is a winning young man in every way."

Christian Little

42 • Right-Handed Pitcher

Sophomore • 6-4 • 210

St. Louis, Mo. • Christian Brothers College

Head coach Tim Corbin on Little: "I have enjoyed watching Christian grow as a person and student-athlete. He transitioned into a competitive program at the mid-year mark as a 17 year old freshman and adapted on the fly. What is noticeably different is Christian's comfort level and his routine. He is one of the more skilled pitchers that we have in our program. He pitched in some very hot temperature situations last year. Those experiences will go a long way in his development and growth moving forward."

As a Freshman (2021)
