GOLF FACILITIES

Vanderbilt Legends Club

Founded in 1992, Vanderbilt Legends Club is a 36-hole golf club located in Franklin, just 17 miles south of downtown Nashville. Vanderbilt Legends Club was designed by Bob Cupp, one of the world's foremost golf course architects, and Tom Kite, PGA Tour-Champions Tour veteran with 19 PGA TOUR victories including the 1992 U.S. Open championship. The North course is a 7,200 yard par-72 golf course and the South course plays 7,100 yards and par is 71.

On September 27, 2013, the dedication for Vanderbilt's new Golf House and Training Center at Legends Club took place.

Vanderbilt Legends Club is proud to have hosted many important championships in its history. Among the championships hosted by Vanderbilt Legends Club are the following:

- Tennessee State Open, 1993-1996
- Tennessee Challenge Cup Matches, 1993-2000
- National Club Championship for Women
- Southeastern Conference Women's Golf Championship, 1995
- U.S. Senior Open Qualifying
- The Tennessee State Open Pro-Am, 1993-1996, 1999-2000
- U.S. Girls' Junior Championship, 1997
- LPGA Electrolux USA Championship hosted by Vince Gill & Amy Grant, 2000-2001
- LPGA Aerus Electrolux USA Championship hosted by Vince Gill & Amy Grant, 2002
- LPGA Franklin American Mortgage Championship hosted by Vince Gill & Amy Grant, 2004-2006
- SGA Southern Amateur Qualifying, 2007-2008
- NCAA Women's Golf Championships, 2012
- NCAA Women's Golf Franklin Regional, 2022
- Men's and Women's Mason Rudolph Championships (held every year)

The Club also has one of the largest practice areas in the country. Its 21-acre facility serves as the home of the Vanderbilt Legends Golf Academy. Its lead instructor, Joe Hallett brings 18 years of PGA Professional instruction and education to VLC. He is a Top 100 Instructor with previous experience including Lead Instructor at the PGA Center for Learning & Performance in Port St. Lucie Florida, PGA Education faculty Lead Instructor & Presenter, and PGA Director and Chairman of the 2011 PGA Teaching Coaching Summit. He has been honored as a Top 50 Golf Instructor by Golf Range Magazine and is one of Golf Magazine's Top 100 Instructors. He is a PGA Certified Member in Instruction with his most recent success working with LPGA Tour Leader, Stacy Lewis and 2008 US Women's Open Champion, Inbee Park. In addition to offering more than 100 hitting stations on its double-ended practice range, the practice facility has an extensive short-game practice area and two indoor hitting bays for use during inclement weather.

GOLF FACILITIES

Golf House and Conner Family Training Center

Vanderbilt's Golf House is one of the finest facilities in collegiate golf. Home to both the men's and women's programs, the Golf House was dedicated in September, 2013 along with the Conner Family Training Center, an adjoining indoor facility with cutting edge teaching technology.

The multi-million dollar complex, built entirely through donations from Vanderbilt alumni and golf friends, offers a comfortable and effective base for Commodore golf with all the amenities necessary to maximize a golfer's potential. The Golf House sits conveniently on the Conner Family Short Game Facility adjacent to the driving range at the Vanderbilt Legends Club, home of Vanderbilt golf.

The first floor of the Golf House features two country-club style locker rooms with luxurious wood lockers, high-end shower facilities, leather chairs and large flat screen televisions. Across from the player's first-class home are the coaches' offices.

Upstairs in the 4,500 square foot facility is a very spacious great room that includes a stone fireplace with flat screen televisions on each side. Leather chairs and sofas, beautiful dark hardwood flooring and ceiling and a kitchenette with granite counters make this a perfect place to relax and fellowship with teammates and coaches. The room also includes the ever-popular ping pong table.

The upstairs also features an executive meeting room with large windows overlooking a bent grass putting green and two mini-verde Bermuda chipping greens. Walls in the complex are brightened by historic golf artifacts, many donated by Vanderbilt golf enthusiasts. PGA TOUR star Brandt Snedeker has contributed one of his many trophies and it rests atop a cherry bookcase.

The Vanderbilt Golf House is truly a home away from home for the student-athletes.

COACHING STAFF

For Greg Allen, who is considered one of the outstanding collegiate golf coaches in the NCAA, the 2021-22 season is his 15th at the helm of the Vanderbilt women's golf program.

Allen has made a big impact at Vanderbilt, leading the Commodores to 13 postseason appearances while advancing to seven NCAA Championships including five consecutive from 2010-14 for the first time in program history.

Following the 2018-19 campaign, Allen was recognized as Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, the first such honor in his career, after guiding the Commodores to a program-record six victories. The 2019 postseason was highlighted by winning the NCAA Auburn Regional Championship in early May, which propelled Allen's nationally-ranked Vanderbilt squad into the NCAA Championships. One of his top pupils, freshman standout Auston Kim, also swept the 2019 NCAA Auburn Regional Championships individual title.

Allen has guided the Commodores to 15 tournament titles in his tenure on West End, including four NCAA Regional crowns after the program claimed the title at the NCAA Franklin Regional held on its home course (Vanderbilt Legends Club) from May 9-11 during the 2021-22 season.

Allen's seventh Vanderbilt team in 2013-14 ranks with the 2018-19 among his most successful to date, winning four tournaments including the 2014 SEC Championship and the NCAA East Regional, the Commodores' first victories at the events since 2004. Simin Feng also won medalist honors at the SEC Championships and the Central District Invitational, while Jennifer Hahn won the NCAA East Regional individual title. Additionally, three different Vanderbilt golfers finished in the top five in 2013-14.

During his tenure at Vanderbilt, Allen's teams advanced to seven NCAA Championships (2010-14, 2019, 2022), including five consecutive from 2010-14. He has coached two first-team All-Americans in Marina Alex — a two-time SEC Player of the Year recipient — and Lauren Stratton, NCAA regional champions in Kim and Hahn, and SEC Freshman of the Year Feng.

Annually, Allen's Commodores are among the SEC's leaders in academic achievement. In 2017, he mentored the program's SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in Kate Sborov.

Allen has guided three teams to conference championships — the 2001 and 2002 Pac-10 titles at Arizona and the 2014 SEC crown at Vanderbilt.

In 2010, his first NCAA Championships team at Vanderbilt broke through to finish seventh in Wilmington, North Carolina. Also in 2010, he coached the SEC Player of the Year in Alex and had two freshmen make the All-SEC Freshman team in Anna Leigh Keith and Stratton.

In 2011, his Commodore team qualified for the NCAA Championships after winning a one-hole playoff against Florida State in the NCAA East Regional. It was Allen's second consecutive trip to the national championship as Vanderbilt's coach and eighth overall. He also guided Vanderbilt to its first back-to-back top-10 finishes at the NCAA Championships after his 2011 squad ended the event in a tie for 10th place. Two of his players, Alex and senior Megan Grehan, were named to the All-SEC second team at the end of the regular season.

In 2012, Vanderbilt advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third consecutive season and a date on their home course when the Commodores finished in second place at the NCAA Central Regional in Columbus, Ohio. The Commodores' second-place finish was the second-best at a regional in program history — only the 2004 team's win at the Central Regional was better. Vandy finished in 11th place at the national championship, and Alex and Stratton were each named NGCA First-Team All-Americans. It was the first time in the history of the program that the Commodores had two first-team All-Americans in the same season.

Allen came to Vanderbilt after a seven-year tenure as the head coach at Arizona, where he twice won the Pac-10 Conference, finished as NCAA runner-up in 2002 and coached Lorena Ochoa — the number one ranked player on the LPGA Tour before her retirement in 2010 — among nine other All-Americans.

Allen had a lengthy record of achievement at Arizona during his seven years there. In addition to his Pac-10 titles and 10 All-Americans, he coached eight NCAA All-Scholars, 13 Academic All-Pac-10 student-athletes, three NCAA Players of the Year, two National Freshman of the Year, three Pac-10 Players of the Year, two Curtis Cup selections and 21 All-Pac-10 performers. Two of his players won the Golfstat Cup Award for the nation's lowest stroke average on three different occasions. His Wildcat teams also won nine tournament championships and registered 28 individual victories.

Allen arrived at Arizona after serving as assistant men's golf coach at Texas from 1998-2000. He helped lead the 1999-2000 Longhorns to a banner year that included the NCAA Central Region championship and a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Championships, its their best result in five years. The squad ended the season ranked No. 8 in the final MasterCard Collegiate Rankings. The 1998-99 team had its best showing in six years, as it earned three tournament victories and finished in the top three in seven of its 13 competitions. Well known for his rapport with collegiate players, Allen handled many of the day-to-day operations for the Longhorns and assisted head coach John Fields with scheduling, recruiting and coaching at practices and tournaments.

Prior to that he was director of tournament operations for the American Junior Golf Association (AJGA) in Roswell, Georgia, where he was responsible for planning and executing 47 national junior golf tournaments and other AJGA events. He oversaw all AJGA tournaments and was responsible for the supervision of eight tournament directors, as well as the hiring of 24 summer interns.

He is a native of Beechmont, Kentucky and graduated from Murray State in 1993 with a degree in journalism. As a student, he worked in the sports information office, where he was a liaison for numerous sports including golf. Prior to graduation, Allen worked two summers as a communications intern for the AJGA, where he was responsible for all on-site media relations at 10 national junior golf tournaments.

Allen and the former Sarah Moore were married in August 2019. They are the parents of six children: Maggie, Mollie, Mason, Kylie, Mabry and Blake.

Emilie Meason, Associate Head Coach

The 2021-22 season is the fifth on West End for Emilie Meason. She was promoted to associate head coach after helping the Commodores advance to the 2019 NCAA Championships.

Meason, an All-America student-athlete at Georgia, joined the Commodores' as an assistant coach in July of 2017 after spending the spring of 2016 as a volunteer assistant coach at her alma mater, and has helped the Commodores return to postseason competition while advancing to the 2018, 2019 and 2022 NCAA Championships. During the 2021-22 season, she was instrumental in Vanderbilt capturing its fourth NCAA Regional title in program history on its home course (Vanderbilt Legends Club) from May 9-11.

Meason's importance to Vanderbilt's success during the 2018-19 campaign was acknowledged by her peers when she was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the Women's Golf Coaches Association.

During the 2018-19 season, Meason's assistance with the Commodores paid huge dividends. The team established a single-season program record with six tournament victories, including the NCAA Regional Championships in Auburn, Alabama, and Mason Rudolph Championship in Franklin, Tennessee.

Meason's contribution also helped Vanderbilt head coach Greg Allen earn SEC Coach-of-the-Year honors for the first time in his long tenure on West End.

Meason was instrumental in three Commodores earning All-SEC recognition in 2019, including Auston Kim, who became one of the nation's top freshmen, medalist at the NCAA Auburn Regional Championships, and a qualifier for the U.S. Women's Open.

In her first year on campus, Meason helped Allen mentor a young Commodore squad into 2018 NCAA postseason play after the team missed the tournament one year earlier.

Meason, a four-time All-SEC performer, was a mainstay in the Bulldogs' lineup from 2009-13, posting 14 top-10 and 28 top-20 finishes in 43 events played. She was a three-time medalist, securing wins at the 2010 Auburn Invitational, the Commodores' own Mason Rudolph Championship in 2012 and the 2013 Bryan National.

Meason's career-low round of 6-under-par 66 is second all-time at Georgia. She posted that score both in the first round of the 2012 Lady Puerto Rico Classic and in the third round of the 2010 Tiger/Wave Invitational. Meason also owns two of the top-15 season stroke averages in Georgia history. As a junior, she recorded the ninth-best average of 73.28, and as a senior, she posted a stroke average of 73.47, which is 14th on the Bulldogs' all-time list.

Following a brief career competing professionally, Meason regained her amateur status in 2015. She qualified for the U.S. Women's Amateur that summer and also helped Georgia win the USGA's Women's State Team Championship later in the year.

A native of Hoschton, Georgia, Meason was a standout junior who advanced to match play at both the 2008 U.S. Girls' Junior and the 2009 U.S. Women's Amateur and participated in the Canon (now Wyndham) Cup.

Emilie is married to William Meason, who played collegiate golf at Arkansas, and welcomed their son Hudson in 2021.
