

“I really am proud of them,” Vanderbilt head coach Scott Limbaugh said. “I think certainly the first day here didn't go the way we wanted. You get out here and the kind of experience you gain on a day like today, it's invaluable. Learning how to deal with different feelings. Somebody lost, somebody won, it comes down on your shoulders. You can't replicate that at home, so super proud of them.”

CONSOLATION MATCH RESULTS:

Women's Division: (4) UCLA def. (2) Oregon, 2-1-2

Men's Division: (4) Pepperdine def. (2) Texas, 4-1

In the women's consolation match, UCLA outlasted Pac-12 foe Oregon in a tight duel that ended 2-1-2. Oregon senior Briana Chacon gave the Ducks an early lead with a 5&4 win against senior Annabel Wilson. UCLA bounced back with a point from sophomore Caroline Canales, 1-up over Ducks senior Brittany Shin. UCLA redshirt sophomore Alessia Nobile added a second point, also in 1-up fashion, over Oregon junior Ashleigh Park, which proved to be enough to win the consolation match. UCLA Sophomore Zoe Antoinette Campos tied Oregon senior Ching-Tzu Chen and senior Bruin Emilie Paltrinieri tied Oregon junior Hsin-Yu Lu.

“You know, it was really good for us,” UCLA head coach Carrie Forsyth said. “I think again we were pretty down after the way we played and then that tough loss yesterday. It just reminds you that it's never over until it's over, hang in there. We have a long season left to play, we have much work to do, but, you know, it just gives you that little boost of adrenaline.”

Pepperdine, the 2020 East Lake Cup champion, left Atlanta as the men's consolation match winner with a 4-1 win over reigning national champion Texas.

Graduate student Luke Gifford gave the Waves an early point, with a 7&6 win against Texas sophomore Alejandro Gonzalez. Pepperdine sophomore Ian Maspat mounted a back-nine comeback to win 1-up over senior Mason Nome to add a second Pepperdine point. Junior
