NEWS AND NOTES

LAST GAME: @Temple 68, #16 Villanova 64 (Nov. 11, 2022)

> Damian Dunn made two free throws with 1.1 seconds to play to lift Temple to a 68-64 win over #16 Villanova at the Liacouras Center. It marked the Owls' first win over the Wildcats since 2012.
> Dunn led all scorers for the second straight game with 22 points while his backcourt mate Khalif Battle added 21. Jamille Reynolds added his first career double-double, scoring 14 points and grabbing a career-high 12 rebounds.
Dunn extended his consecutive made free throw streak to 29, dating back to the final regular season game against USF (3/6/22). His streak ranks fourth on the school's all-time list behind Shizz Alston, Jr. (52, 2016-17), Lynn Greer (49, 2001) and Khalif Wyatt (32, 2012-13).
> The win was the first for Temple against a ranked opponent since Jan. 15, 2020, a 65-53 victory over #16 Wichita State. It also snapped a six-game losing streak to ranked foes.
> Temple led through the first 29 minutes, and by 24-11 early with 7:09 to play in the half.
> Villanova finally took its first lead, 47-45, on three free throws by Caleb Daniels with 10:41 to play. That would be the first of 14 lead changes until Dunn's final free throws.
> Daniels (19) and Eric Dixon (18) led the Wildcats.

TRADING PLACES

> Head coaches Aaron McKie and Jerry Stackhouse have something in common.
The two NBA greats were involved in a trade (12/18/97) with Stackhouse and Eric Montross going from the Philadelphia 76ers to the Detroit Pistons and the Sixers getting Stackhouse was dealt to the Detroit Pistons for Theo Ratliff, Aaron McKie and future considerations.

RECORDS ARE MADE TO BE TIED?

> On Monday, Damian Dunn tied Lynn Greer (vs. SJU, 2/2/02) for the most free throws made without a miss in Temple Basketball history, each converting 18-of-18 from the charity stripe.
> This is nothing new for Dunn, who has a knack of getting to foul line. He has averaged 5.2 made per game on 64 attempts for his entire career.
> Dunn added four more free throws, extending his current streak to 29 straight without a miss (dating back to Mar. 6, 2022). It ranks as the fourth longest streak in Temple history behind Shizz Alston, Jr. (52, 2016-17), Lynn Greer (49, 2001) and Khalif Wyatt (32, 2012-13).
> As a redshirt freshman in 2020-21, he averaged 6.1 made and 7.9 attempts per game ranking fifth nationally in both categories.

WELCOME BACK

> Khalif Battle returned to the court nearly a year after suffering a season-ending injury against La Salle (12/1/01) in game seven of the 2021-22 season.
> He ranks second on the team in scoring (18.5 ppg) and minutes played (34.0 mpg) while topping the squad with three-pointers made (6).
> Battle came off the bench to score 16 points and grab six rebounds in the opener against Wagner and then tallied 21 points in the win over #16 Villanova.

MAKING AN IMPACT

> Jamille Reynolds has made an immediate impact with the Owls in his first season since transferring from conference member UCF.
> The 6-11, 280-pound center had a career night for Temple in the team's win over #16 Villanova, tallying his first double-double with 14 points and a career-high 12 rebounds.
> He leads the team in rebounding (7.0 rpg) and ranks third in scoring (10.5 ppg) despite averaging just 17.5 minutes per game.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

> Damian Dunn was named to the preseason American Athletic Conference First Team while backcourt mate Khalif Battle was selected to the Second Team as the conference in voting by the league's coaches, the conference announced on Oct. 12.
> As a team, Temple, which returns eight letterwinners from last year's team that posted a 17-12 record, was picked to finish fifth in the AAC preseason poll.
> Houston, which garnered nine first-place votes and 100 points, has been selected as the unanimous preseason favorite to win the 2022-23 American Athletic Conference. Memphis, which tallied one first-place vote, is picked to finish second with 87 points. Cincinnati was third with 82 points, followed closely by Tulane (74), Temple (66), UCF (51), SMU (43), Wichita State (35), South Florida (33), Tulsa (21), and East Carolina (13).

HEAD COACH
AARON MCKIE

One of the greatest players in Temple Basketball history, Aaron McKie is in his fourth season as the head coach at his alma mater.

McKie officially took over the program where he starred under Hall of Fame coach John Chaney and served as an assistant coach for five seasons under Fran Dunphy, in April of 2019. He is the 18th head coach in Temple men's basketball history, but just the fifth since Hall of Fame coach Harry Litwack took over the reins of the program in 1952. He is also the first alum to serve as the Owls' head coach since Litwack, who won 373 games and made two Final Four appearances in his 21-year tenure.

His first season at the helm was a year of transition for the new Temple mentor. After starting the season with four straight wins, which is the best start by a first-year Temple coach since Josh Cody ('42-43), the Owls fell in a close contest, 76-69, to #5 Maryland. The team ended the calendar year with a 9-3 mark, but the 2020 took its toll.

Temple posted just one win in January, but that victory, a 65-53 defeat of #16 Wichita State, extended the program streak of 13 straight seasons with a win over a ranked foe. McKie also became the first first-year Temple coach to defeat a nationally-ranked team since 1952-53 (Harry Litwack).

After regrouping, the Owls finished the 2019-20 campaign with a 14-17 record with the season coming to an end to the Covid-19 pandemic.

His second season was full of stop and starts due to the pandemic. Temple, which had a limited preseason due to health restrictions in the city of Philadelphia, was unable to open its season until Dec. 19, a home victory of NJIT, due to Covid protocol issues within the program.

These protocol issues would result in five stoppages during the season and the cancellation of all but 15 regular season games. Without able to gain a rhythm, the Owls struggled during the 2020-21 campaign, finishing with a 5-11 record, 4-10 in conference play.

Finally, with a normal preseason and a strong mix of veterans and newcomers, the Owls posted a 17-win season in 2021-22 despite losing leading scorer, Khalif Battle (21.4 ppg) in the seventh game. McKie rallied his team, and following a narrow loss to #12 Houston on Jan. 2, guided his Owls to six wins over the next seven games. That streak lifted Temple to a fourth-place finish in conference play, but the team fell in the quarterfinals of the AAC Tournament to end its season.

Prior to taking over as head coach, McKie served five seasons on Dunphy's staff at Temple, the last as associate head coach. In 2018-29, the Owls went 23-10, earned an NCAA Tournament berth and tied for third in the American Athletic Conference after being picked to finish sixth. The 20-win season was the third for Temple in McKie's five years on the staff, during which the Owls went to the NCAA Tournament twice and to the NIT Semifinals in 2015.

The Philadelphia basketball roots are deep for McKie and started in high school where he played at nearby Simon Gratz ('90). There, under the tutelage of legendary coach Bill Ellerbee, he helped lead the Bulldogs to the 1990 Philadelphia Public League Championship, their first title since 1939.

McKie then took his talents to North Broad Street to play under another legend in Chaney. Arguably one of the best players in Temple history, he had an incredible three-year playing career for the Owls (1991-94) and is tied for sixth on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,650 points. A starter for all 92 games, he averaged 17.9 points per game while leading the Owls to three NCAA Tournaments and a trip to the 1993 Elite Eight. He earned many accolades during his heralded collegiate career, including Atlantic 10 Conference and Philadelphia Big 5 Player of the Year for his performance in the 1992-93 season, when he averaged a team-best 20.6 points per game.

Selected in the first round (17th overall) of the 1994 NBA Draft by the Portland Trail Blazers, McKie played 13 seasons, including eight with the Philadelphia 76ers where he was coached by another basketball giant in Larry Brown. As a member of the Sixers in 2000-01, McKie enjoyed his best season, taking home Sixth Man of the Year honors while helping his hometown team reach the NBA Finals.

McKie has more than a decade of coaching experience. Besides serving as an assistant coach under Dunphy for the past five seasons, he was also a five-year assistant (2007-13) on the 76ers staff and helped lead the franchise to four NBA playoff appearances.

McKie resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife, Lisa, and their four children, Erin, Jaron, and twin sons Justin and Julian.
