OPENING TIP

- Concluding the team's two-game Southeastern Conference road swing to open the season, USC Upstate meets Vanderbilt for the first time in the program's Division I era (2007-pres.). Friday's game marks the 17th meeting with an SEC opponent in the Spartans' D1 era as Upstate holds a 1-15 record against SEC foes.
- Friday's game also marks the first game against a first-time opponent during the 2023-24 season. Over the last two seasons, Upstate has faced nine first-time opponents, owning a 3-6 record against such foes. The program's last win against a first-time opponent came on Nov. 30, 2022, versus Columbia International with the last win against a Division I first-time opponent coming on March 15, 2022, against Appalachian State in the first round of The Basketball Classic.
- Swiping 11 steals against South Carolina Monday, the Spartans collected double-digit steals for the first time since last season's finale versus Gardner-Webb (12 steals) on Feb. 25, 2023, the last of six games where Upstate pilfered 10 or more steals. The team's 11 steals against the Gamecocks mark the most against a Power-Five opponent since posting 10 steals versus Georgia Tech on Jan. 2, 2019.
- Hitting four three-pointers Monday night, Upstate extended its streak of games with at least one made three to 873 games, a streak that dates back to the 1994-95 season. The streak includes each of the program's 506 games at the Division I level (2007-pres.) with the lone known streak longer than the Spartans' to open a program's Division I membership held by North Florida (2005-pres.).
- In the Spartans' season opener, five of the program's six newcomers made their Upstate debut as graduate student guard Miguel Ayesa, junior forward Patrick Iriel, sophomore forward Jorge Ochoa, freshman guard Eduardo Placer, and freshman guard CJ Rich each saw their first action in a Spartan uniform.
- For the second time since joining the Big South ahead of the 2018-19 season, USC Upstate enters a new season with multiple players named Preseason All-Big South as redshirt junior guard Trae Broadnax and sophomore guard Justin Bailey garnered second team honors. The 2023-24 season joins the 2020-21 season (Tommy Bruner [2nd] and Everett Hammond [2nd]) as the only seasons for the Spartans in the Big South to feature multiple Preseason All-Big South players.
- Bailey's selection to the Preseason All-Big South Second Team by the conference's head coaches and media panel adds to his selection as a Postseason Big South All-Freshman team selection from a season ago. The preseason honor also marks his second Preseason All-Big South selection of the year as Lindy's Sports also named Bailey to its Preseason All-Big South Second Team.

- ◇ Adding to his Preseason All-Big South Second Team selection, Broadnax also claimed preseason accolades from a national publication, being named The Almanac's Big South Breakout Player. The honor marks the second straight season—each of the season's The Almanac has been produced—that the Spartans earned a preseason honor from the publication.
- ◇ Returning two of the team's three Postseason All-Big South honorees from last season, the 2022-23 marks the first for the program in the Big South (since 2018-19) to see the Spartans return multiple all-conference players from the season before. Bailey and sophomore forward Jordyn Surratt each return after claiming Big South All-Freshman team honors a year ago.
- ◇ Earning the No. 4 seed in the Big South Men's Basketball Championship for the second straight season, Upstate captured double-digit conference victories in consecutive seasons for the first time in the Division I era (2007-pres.). The Spartans' 10 wins in both 2021-22 and 2022-23 give Upstate two consecutive double-digit conference win seasons for the first time since 2004-05 and 2005-06.
- ◇ The 2022-23 season culminated in a berth to the national postseason for the second straight season, the second time the Spartans have accomplished that feat in the Division I era (2007-pres.). Last season, Upstate earned a spot in the College Basketball Invitational—the tertiary national postseason tournament—for the first time after making five trips to the CollegeInsider.com/The Basketball Classic.
- ◇ Last season, the Spartans finished the 2022-23 season as one of the top defensive teams in the Big South, ranking top three in the league in four major statistical categories. Upstate led the conference last season in steals per game (7.4), ranked second in the league in turnovers forced per game (14.38), and third in blocks per game (4.6) and field goal percentage defense (43.3).
- ◇ Entering the 2023-24 season, Upstate returns 61.0 percent of the team's minutes from last season and 54.6 percent of the team's scoring. Overall, the Spartans return eight players from a year ago who saw action and two additional players who took redshirts, leading to 10 total returns for Upstate this season with Bailey, Broadnax, and Surratt representing the team's returning starters.

HEAD COACH DAVE DICKERSON

Dave Dickerson enters his sixth season as the head men's basketball coach at USC Upstate during the 2023-24 season after being introduced as the program's 10th head coach on April 5, 2018.

In 2022-23, he guided the Spartans to another of the program's most successful seasons with his program earning a second consecutive No. 4 seed in the Big South Men's Basketball Championship and advancing to the semifinal round of the tournament for the second straight season. The season also culminated with a second consecutive national postseason appearance, earning a bid to the College Basketball Invitational--the highest level of postseason basketball for the program in the Division I era (2007-pres.).

He guided the Spartans to one of the program's most successful seasons in 2021-22 as the team earned the No. 4 seed in the Big South Men's Basketball Championship and set a program record for conference victories as a Big South member with 10. The Spartans also reached the Big South Tournament semifinals for the first time as a Big South member (Upstate joined the conference ahead of the 2018-19 season) and earned a bid to The Basketball Classic presented by Erasm. At the conclusion of the season, Dickerson was also named a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year award while also leading his program to the 2021-22 Big South Team Sportsmanship award.

A native of Olar, S.C., Dickerson has over 20 years of college coaching experience with stops at Gardner-Webb, James Madison, Radford, Maryland, Tulane and Ohio State. He was hired at USC Upstate after spending one year as a scout for the NBA's Utah Jazz.

He spent seven seasons on the coaching staff for Thad Matta at Ohio State from 2010-17, serving as the associate head coach for the last six. In those seven years on the sidelines for the Buckeyes, Dickerson was a part of 181 victories, two Big 10 Regular Season titles, three Big Ten Tournament title game appearances, three Sweet 16 appearances, an Elite Eight run in 2013 and the 2012 Final Four. Ohio State participated in NCAA Tournament play in five of his seven seasons.

Dickerson spent five years as head coach at Tulane prior to being hired at Ohio State. He compiled a 68-84 record, 31-47 in Conference USA, after inheriting a Green Wave basketball program that had registered just one winning season during the five years prior to his arrival. He guided the Green Wave to back-to-back winning seasons in 2006-07 and 2007-08, a feat that had not been achieved in the 11 previous years. To start his tenure, he led Tulane to four consecutive opening-round wins in the Conference USA Tournament.

Prior to being named head coach for the Green Wave, Dickerson served as an assistant coach at Maryland, his alma mater, under head coach Gary Williams for nine years. In 2004-05, Dickerson was elevated to associate head coach. He helped the Terrapins to nine consecutive postseason appearances, including five Sweet 16s, two Final Fours and the program's first-ever National Championship in 2002. Maryland also enjoyed eight 20-win seasons during his tenure. Serving as the lead recruiter for the Terrapins, Dickerson recruited and coached two NBA lottery picks -- Steve Francis (1999) and Chris Wilcox (2002) -- and four overall first round picks in Keith Booth (1997), Francis, Wilcox and Juan Dixon (2002).

After leaving James Madison, Dickerson was on the coaching staff at Radford for four seasons as an assistant coach. The recruiting classes he helped assemble were ranked among the nation's best. The 1994 season saw the Highlanders compile a 20-8 record and a school-record winning percentage of 71.4. Radford also gained national acclaim and became one of the Big South's most successful programs during his tenure. Radford defeated LSU, 73-72, on Dec. 30, 1993, to gain the biggest victory in school history.

Soon after graduating from college, Dickerson began his coaching career at Gardner-Webb for one season. He joined then joined former head coach Lefty Driesell at James Madison for a 1992 season that culminated in a bid to the NIT.

Coaching accolades for Dickerson throughout his coaching career include AFLAC Assistant Coach of the Year in 2003, the ACC's No. 1 Assistant Coach as named by Basketball News (2003-04), Athlon Sports' No. 4 Assistant Coach in the nation (2003-04) and an "Assistant Coach on the Rise" as tabbed by ESPN's Andy Katz. He was the National Association of Basketball Coaches District 8 Coach of the Year in 2007-08.

Dickerson played forward at Maryland from 1985-89 and earned four varsity letters. He was co-captain as a senior in 1989. Dickerson saw action in the 1986 and 1988 NCAA Tournaments and was a member of three teams that advanced to the ACC Tournament semifinals. The Terps won 19 games his freshman year and 18 during his junior season. Dickerson was a starter on the 1989 team that became the first No. 8 seed to defeat a No. 1 seed in the ACC Tournament when the Terps knocked off N.C. State.

He graduated from Maryland in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in government and politics.

Dickerson and his late wife, Laurette, who bravely fought breast cancer for over five years before passing away on March 2, 2022, have one son, Dave III who is a redshirt senior on the men's basketball team.
