- Vanderbilt returns to Nashville after back-to-back games on the road to being the SEC portion of the 2023 schedule, hosting Kentucky at FirstBank Stadium on Saturday at 11 a.m. CT on SEC Network.
- The Commodores and Wildcats will be meeting for the 96th time since 1896. Vanderbilt defeated Kentucky 24-21 in Lexington last season to snap a six-game skid in the series. Will Sheppard caught the game-winning touchdown with 32 seconds left. The win ended Vandy's 26-game losing streak in conference contests.
- The Commodores fell 40-37 to UNLV on a last-minute field goal Saturday at Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas. Vanderbilt trailed 30-17 in the fourth quarter and rallied to tie it at 30 before both teams traded touchdowns in the final 2:23. The Rebels kicked the game-winner with five seconds remaining.
- Sophomore slinger AJ Swann has thrown for 11 touchdowns and 1,062 yards this season to lead the SEC and rank fourth among FBS quarterbacks in both categories. After making his 10th collegiate start at UNLV last Saturday, Swann has now thrown for three or more touchdowns four times. Swann is averaging 13.97 yards per completion, third-most in the SEC.
- Will Sheppard moved into sixth in program history with his 18th and 19th career touchdown receptions Sept. 9 at Wake Forest. His six touchdowns this season is tied for most in FBS. His 36 points this season lead the Power 5.
- Freshman wide receiver London Humphreys, who was named the SEC Freshman of the Week after the Wake Forest game, had his second-straight 100-yard performance at UNLV, as he caught three passes for 102 yards and a TD. Humphreys is first in the SEC and second nationally among freshmen in total receiving yards this season.
- Will Sheppard caught multiple touchdowns in Vanderbilt's first three games of the season. He is the first Vanderbilt player since at least 1996 to record three consecutive games with two or more touchdown receptions. He is the fifth player in the SEC to record three straight games with multiple touchdown receptions in the same season since 2019, joining Jalin Hyatt (Tennessee), DeVonta Smith (Alabama), Terrace Marshall Jr. (LSU) and Ja'Marr Chase (LSU). Across all of FBS, Sheppard is the ninth player to record three straight games with multiple touchdown receptions in the same season.
- Vanderbilt's offense surpassed the 420-yard mark for the third consecutive game Saturday at UNLV, finishing with 427 yards. Its the first time since at least 1996 that Vanderbilt has surpassed 420 yards in three consecutive games.

By The Numbers
3	Head coach Clark Lea is in his third season at his alma mater. The Commodores doubled their win total in Lea's second season in 2022 and won consecutive SEC games for the first time since 2018, defeating Kentucky and Florida, respectively.
19	Will Sheppard has six touchdowns this season, hauling in a pair of scores in each of Vandy's first three contests. The senior has 19 career receiving touchdowns, which is sixth all-time at Vanderbilt.
97	Jayden McGowan's 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Hawai'i was the school's first since 2014 (Darrius Sims vs. South Carolina 9.20) and was tied for the fourth-longest kick return for a touchdown in program history. He is one of nine FBS players to return a kickoff for a score this season.
29.6	Freshman wide receiver London Humphreys ranks third nationally and leads the SEC with 29.6 yards per reception. Humphreys caught three passes for 102 yards and a touchdown Saturday at UNLV, his second consecutive 100-yard game. Humphreys caught his longest reception so far in his career on a 56-yard pass from AJ Swann.
5	Vanderbilt's defense has five interceptions this season. That mark is good for second in the SEC and 11th in the FBS. Freshman Martel Hight recorded Vanderbilt's first-ever pick-six by a freshman in Saturday's contest at UNLV. De'Rickey Wright leads the squad with two interceptions.
10k	Matthew Hayball leads all active punters across all divisions of NCAA football (FBS, FCS, Division II and Division III) with 10,891 career punting yards. He is one of two punters in all four divisions to have eclipsed 10,000 career yards.

Quote of the Week

“Our season is about fighting for postseason play and that’s all still on the table for us. What we have to do is take the lessons, apply them forward and keep evolving the team forward. In the meantime, we’re stuck with tough circumstances and we need to set our jaws and battle out of it.”

- Head Coach Clark Lea

• Vanderbilt's special teams rank 25th in the nation per ESPN's FPI. The unit has produced an efficiency grade of 68.0. In the opener against Hawai'i, Vandy had a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, a 27-yard punt return, averaged 53.7 yards on three punts with a long of 71 yards, notched two touchbacks on kickoffs and made all three PATs. Against Alabama A&M, Vandy blocked two punts, including one for a safety, produced a long punt return of 39 yards, a long kickoff return of 29 yards, made all six point-after attempts and made its lone field goal attempt of the year from 23 yards. Graduate kicker Jacob Borcila is now 4-for-5 on the season on field goal attempts after making three at UNLV, including a season-long 44-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to tie the game.

• The special teams performance over the first three games shows continued progress under associate head coach and special teams coordinator Justin Lustig. The Dores ranked 117th in special teams (ESPN FPI) prior to Lustig's arrival and were 127th during his first season. In 2022, Vandy jumped to 44th in the nation (55.4). It was the fourth-largest jump in FBS, trailing only Mississippi State, West Virginia and UTEP, and Vanderbilt was one of just five teams in the nation to improve its special teams efficiency by at least 25 points.

• After committing eight penalties in the season-opener, Vanderbilt was flagged just 10 times over the next three games. The Commodores drew the fewest flags in the SEC a season ago and third-fewest in the league in 2021.

• De'Rickey Wright was named Defensive Player of the Week by the Reese's Senior Bowl after his two-interception performance in Week 0. Wright has two multi-INT games to his name after picking off two passes against Ole Miss last season.

• Those visiting Nashville this season will take notice of the ongoing Vandy United projects that include enhancements in the north and south end zones at FirstBank Stadium. An integral part of Vanderbilt's recently launched $3.2 billion Dare to Grow campaign, the largest in the university's 150-year history, Vandy United's next phase looks to build on its foundation with more facilities and operational enhancements.

• Vanderbilt developed an identity over the course of the 2022 season that saw the Commodores play disciplined, maximize possessions and protect the quarterback (see Page 9).

• In his third season at the helm of his alma mater, Vanderbilt football coach Clark Lea signed a contract extension to remain in his native Nashville. Athletics director Candice Storey Lee announced the extension in July.

• Vanderbilt ranked 21st in FBS and fourth in the SEC in time of possession last season, averaging 32:03 per game. The Commodores have averaged over 30 minutes of possession per game in both seasons under Lea. The Dores are averaging more than 28 minutes of possession per game in 2023.

• The Dores notched four defensive touchdowns in 2022. That figure led the SEC and ranked fourth nationally. The four scores came after Vanderbilt did not score a defensive touchdown in 2021. Martel Hight returned an interception 37 yards for a touchdown at UNLV for Vandy's first defensive score on the season.

• Over his first two seasons at his alma mater, Lea has snapped multiple inherited streaks that included the first win since 2019, first road win since 2018, first SEC win since 2019, first Power 5 win since 2019, first SEC road win since 2018, first win against Florida since 2013 and first home win versus the Gators since 1988.

• With the five victories last season, Lea posted the second-highest win total by a second-year Vanderbilt head coach since 1975. Only James Franklin won more games in his second season among the 10 Vanderbilt coaches in that time period.

• Sophomore quarterback AJ Swann looks to build off an impressive debut campaign in 2022. As a freshman, Swann threw 159 pass attempts before throwing his first interception. It marked the longest stretch to open a career by a Vandy quarterback since at least 1996 and the longest by an SEC quarterback to start their career since 2002. On the season, Swann threw the fewest interceptions of any true freshman FBS quarterback with at least 200 drop backs.

• Senior Will Sheppard has been named to the watch list for the Biletnikoff Award. Sheppard is one of 50 players on the Biletnikoff list and one of seven from the SEC. The senior has also been named to the Maxwell Award Watch List, given to the nation's top player each year, the Shrine Bowl 1000, and is preseason All-SEC selection by Phil Steele and the league's coaches.

• After putting together an impressive freshman season in 2022, sophomore Jayden McGowan has been named to the watch list for the Paul Hornung Award, given annually to the most versatile player in college football. He played in all 12 games last season and caught 44 passes for 453 yards and three touchdowns while returning 16 kickoffs for 384 yards. So far in 2023, McGowan ranks third in the SEC and 15th in FBS in all-purpose yards per game at 138.25.

• Graduate student Matthew Hayball has been named to the Ray Guy Award Watch List, the award given annually to the nation's best punter. Hayball punted 59 times in his first season at Vanderbilt last year, averaging 45.36 yards. The Australian ranked second in the SEC and 11th in FBS in punting average. The mark ranks fourth in Vanderbilt history. Hayball is averaging 53.1 yards per punt so far in 2023 on 10 punts with a long of 71.

• Senior linebacker Ethan Barr has been named to the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List. The award is presented annually to college football's most impactful community leader. Barr will be a captain for the Commodores for the second-straight year in 2023. He has started the last 30 games for Vanderbilt and enters the Kentucky game with 184 career tackles. The Flower Mound, Texas, native has been a leader in Vanderbilt's team community service efforts, including with the Boys & Girls Club, Metro Nashville Schools and Turner's Heroes.

• Senior Wesley Schelling has been named to the Patrick Mannelly Award Watch List, presented annually to the long snapper of the year in college football. Schelling, a Nashville native, is one of 25 long snappers on the watch list and one of six from the SEC. It marks the second consecutive year Schelling has made the Mannelly Award preseason watch list.

Vandy United

• Vanderbilt University announced in May that the ongoing Vandy United campaign achieved its initial $300 million fundraising goal. This first phase represents the largest campaign in the history of Vanderbilt athletics and ushers in a new era of historic investment in student-athletes and the athletics experience.

• An integral part of Vanderbilt's recently launched $3.2 billion Dare to Grow campaign, the largest in the university's 150-year history, Vandy United's next phase looks to build on its foundation with more facilities and operational enhancements.

- The Commodores faced an early seven-point deficit in the season opener at Hawai'i, while battling back from a 14-point deficit in the second half at Northern Illinois.
- Vandy scored 49 unanswered points against the Rainbow Warriors, and 24 unanswered against the Huskies.
- Vandy trailed by four points with 5:03 remaining at Kentucky before scoring a touchdown on its final drive to take a three-point lead with 32 seconds left.
- The comeback against the Wildcats marked Vanderbilt's first fourth-quarter comeback in a road SEC game since the Commodores' earned a 17-16 comeback win at Georgia on Oct. 15, 2016.
- Vandy also trailed in both wins this season, albeit early in the contest. Hawai'i took a 7-6 first quarter lead and Alabama A&M kicked a field goal on the game's opening drive.

Dores Coaching Dores

• Joining Lea as former Commodores on the staff are Jovan Haye and Earl Bennett. Haye leads the defensive line unit while Bennett serves as Vandy's director of player development. Bennett was a three-year letterwinner at wide receiver for the Commodores before going on to a six-year NFL career with the Chicago Bears.

Alum	Seasons • Position
Clark Lea	2002-04 • Fullback
Jovan Haye	2002-04 • Defensive Line
Earl Bennett	2005-07 • Wide Receiver

Two Leading at Their Alma Maters

• With Lea and director of athletics Candice Storey Lee, Vanderbilt is one of three Power 5 programs to have both its head football coach and athletic director as undergraduate alumni of the school.

• The Commodores join Michigan (Warde Manuel, Jim Harbaugh) and Oklahoma State (Chad Weiberg, Mike Gundy).

Offensive Success

• The Vanderbilt offense made major strides last season. The Commodores totaled 295 points, averaging 24.6 points per game. This was an improvement of 8.8 points per game over 2021.

• It took just nine games for Vandy to surpass the previous season's 12-game scoring total.

• The Commodores scored 30 or more points four times last season, after only doing so once in 2021.

• With its point totals against Hawai'i and Elon, Vandy scored 42 or more points in back-to-back games for the first time since 2005 when the Dores scored 42 at Florida on Nov. 5, and followed up with 43 points against Kentucky on Nov. 12.

• In its seven games against teams outside the AP Top 25 last season, Vandy averaged 33.0 points per game.

• Through the first four contests this season, the Vandy offense has surpassed the 400-yard mark three times.
