SHEA RALPH

Shea Ralph was named the sixth head coach in Vanderbilt women's basketball history on April 13, 2021. The 2023-24 season marks her third leading the Commodores.

A seven-time national champion as a student-athlete or coach, Ralph arrived at Vanderbilt after spending the previous 13 seasons as an assistant coach alongside Geno Auriemma at the University of Connecticut. While serving as a coach at her alma mater, Ralph helped guide the Huskies to 12 Final Four appearances and six national championships, including a record four consecutive titles from 2013-16.

Vanderbilt was hit hard with a plethora of preseason injuries to begin the 2022-23 campaign. Coach Ralph was able to rally the Commodores and record a second-straight double-digit win season, marking the first time in six years that Vandy has posted back-to-back double-digit win campaigns.

During the 2022-23 campaign, Ralph guided Vanderbilt to a winning record inside Memorial Gymnasium for the 38th time in the last 40 seasons. The Commodores won nine games at Memorial Gym, which included victories over Texas A&M, Arkansas, and Kentucky.

In her inaugural season, Ralph led Vanderbilt to its first postseason appearance since 2014. The Commodores reached the third round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament, their longest postseason run since 2013. Vanderbilt also recorded its first SEC Tournament victory in six years when it defeated Texas A&M 85-69 on March 2, 2022.

In all, Ralph accrued the third-most wins of any women's basketball coach in a debut season. That included a 63-59 victory against No. 15 Florida in Memorial Gymnasium on Feb. 24, 2022, the program's first win against a ranked opponent since 2020.

Ralph and her husband, Tom Garrick, have one daughter, Maysen.

OCTAVIA BLUE

Octavia Blue enters her third season at the helm of the Kennesaw State women's basketball program. Last season, she led the Owls to a 15-16 record including a win over Jacksonville State in the Atlantic Sun tournament first round. Against conference foes, KSU went 10-8 and 9-4 inside the KSU Convocation Center. Her 24 wins in the first two seasons marked the second-most by a KSU women's basketball coach in their first two seasons at the helm in Owls' DI history.

KSU finished 9-19, including a 7-8 record at home in Blue's first season. The Owls set a program record by eclipsing the 100-point mark for the first time in a 100-31 victory over Thomas University in the season opener. Under Blue's guidance, Amani Johnson was named to the ASUN All-Conference Second Team, the ASUN All-Academic Team and was one of 12 student-athletes to receive the ASUN Winner for Life award.

KEVIN
McMILLAN

The eighth head coach in UT Martin women's basketball history, Kevin McMillan is in his 15th year at the helm of the Skyhawk program as the school's all-time wins leader with 265 career victories.

Overall, the Skyhawks have won 10 Ohio Valley Conference titles during his 14 seasons at UT Martin - including six regular season titles and four tournament crowns. The Skyhawks reached the postseason in six consecutive seasons and nine seasons overall while reaching the NCAA Tournament in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 along with earning a bid to the Women's NIT in 2015, 2016, 2018, 2020 (canceled) and 2021. Additionally, the program has recorded eight 20-win seasons in the past 12 years with the Skyhawks posting a 265-177 record under McMillan, including a 178-63 mark in conference play. His 265 victories rank as the third-highest win total in OVC history, as he accounts for four OVC Coach of the Year awards.

CARLY THIBAUT-DUDONIS

Carly Thibault-DuDonis begins her second season as the Head Coach of the Fairfield University Women's Basketball program. A veteran of two Final Fours and one of the nation's top recruiters, Thibault-DuDonis most recently served as the Associate Head Coach and Recruiting Coordinator at the University of Minnesota. She became the third Division I head coach in program history.

In her first season with the Stags, she led the team to a top-5 finish in the conference, receiving a bye into the MAAC Championship Quarterfinals with an 11-9 conference mark.

She implemented her system of defense tenacity as the Stags ranked third in the MAAC and in the top-60 in the nation with 18.1 turnovers forced per game. That toughness also helped the Stags get to the free throw line as they attempted 467 free throws, their most since the 2016-17 season.

COLLINS

Following six seasons on the WKU coaching staff, Greg Collins was named the 11th head coach in Lady Topper Basketball history on March 27, 2018, and is entering his sixth season as the head coach in 2023-24. In five seasons on The Hill, Collins has amassed 86 wins and has a 71.6 percent winning percentage in Diddle Arena. Collins has also coached players to six All-Conference USA honors, five being first teamers, and 16 overall conference post-season awards, including two Freshmen of the Year, five All-Freshmen Team and three All-Defensive Team honors. Players have also earned weekly award 22 times under Collins as head coach.

In his 11 seasons on The Hill, as assistant coach, associate head coach and now head coach, 3-point shooting has been a focus for Collins. In WKU's record book, the top five seasons in total 3-point field goals made have come during Collins' time (2022-23, 2016-17, 2021-22, 2018-19 and 2014-15). Collins also developed one of WKU's all-time greats in 3-point shooting, Dee Givens. Givens finished her Lady Topper career with the third most threes made (224) by a WKU player.

FREDA FREEMAN-JACKSON

Freda Freeman-Jackson enters her 26th season as the head coach of the Alabama State University women's basketball program, when the 2023-24 season begins.

Freeman-Jackson enters the season with a 364-371 record that includes three SWAC Tournament, three SWAC Regular season titles, three trips to the NCAA Tournament and one WNIT berth.

Jackson joined an illustrious group when she was selected, and later inducted, into the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) Hall of Fame during the 2019 academic year. At the time of her induction, she was alongside her husband Lewis as the only two active members coaching in the conference. Jackson became the 19th inductee into the SWAC Hall of Fame from Alabama State.

She has led Alabama State to three conference championships, and three berths in the NCAA Tournament during her career.

BILL FENNELLY

The dean of Big 12 women's basketball coaches, Bill Fennelly inherited an Iowa State program that had never reached the NCAA Tournament and has since transformed it into one of the nation's elite and an NCAA Tournament regular. He enjoys instant credibility with student-athletes, administrators and fans, having established a solid foundation for his program based on academics, athletics and character. That foundation has grown into a model of success that has been matched by very few women's basketball programs nationally.

Entering his 29th season in 2023-24 at Iowa State and 36th as a Division I head coach, Fennelly is one of the game's most respected coaches and the numbers bear witness to the on-court success he has achieved throughout his distinguished career. He has accumulated over 750 career victories (756-354) and averaged over 21 wins per season in his 28 years at Iowa State (590-301).

TANYA WARREN

Tanya Warren enters her 17th season as the head coach of the UNI Panther women's basketball team. Warren is a three-time Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and guided the Panthers to league regular season titles in 2011 and 2016. She was the first black female head coach in UNI history and the first black female head coach in Missouri Valley Conference basketball history. Warren is 306-211 ranking her first in team history and third in the MVC. Warren, the dean of MVC women's basketball coaches, enters this season third in all-time MVC league victories with 193.

Under her direction, the Panthers have appeared in postseason play in 13 of the last 14 full seasons (excluding 2019-20 because of COVID restrictions) including back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths in 2010 and 2011.

WES MOORE

One of the top head coaches in NCAA women's basketball, Wes Moore has completed 10 seasons as NC State's head coach. The 10 seasons of the Moore era have been among the best in 49 years of women's basketball at NC State.

Since taking over the Wolfpack on April 5, 2013, Moore has posted a 242-81 (.749) record and led NC State to seven NCAA Tournament appearances and postseason invitations each year. He has guided the Pack to a 115-49 (.701) clip in the ACC, a league that consistently ranks among the top conferences in NCAA Division I women's basketball. Seven of Moore's 10 seasons have concluded in top-four finishes in the 15-member league. All 10 of his seasons in Raleigh have been winning seasons, and nine have included 20+ victories. He guided his team to four-straight NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 berths (2018, 19, 21, 22), highlighted by the program's second-ever Elite Eight appearance in 2022.

Moore also led NC State to three-straight ACC Tournament titles for the first time in program history. The team's win in 2020 was its first conference tournament championship since 1991, and the team repeated in 2021 and 2022.
