The University of Dayton women's basketball team heads south to Vanderbilt University for its final non-conference game of the season on Wednesday, Dec. 20 at 2 p.m. ET.

SCOUTING THE FLYERS

Dayton goes back out on the road with a 6-5 record on the year and two-game winning streak. The Flyers are 1-3 in true road games this season.

Williams-Jeter is in her second season in charge of her hometown Flyers, coming over after a year at Wittenberg. She has assistant coaching stops at Kansas, Kentucky, Penn State, and Ohio State.

The Flyers are averaging 69.3 points per game and giving up 71.0 to opponents. Dayton is shooting 42.0 percent overall, 30.2 percent from three point range and 73.6 percent from the free throw line. UD benefits from a +10.9 rebounding margin as well.

Leading the way for the Flyers is junior Ivy Wolf with 11.5 points per game while redshirt senior Destiny Bohanon is scoring 10.7 points each outing. Junior Arianna Smith averages nearly a double-double with 9.7 and 12.3 rebounds per game, which ranks second in the country.

SCOUTING VANDERBILT

Vanderbilt plays its second straight home game where the Commodores are 6-0 at Memorial Gymnasium this year. Vandy is 10-1 on the year and riding a three-game winning streak.

Head coach Shea Ralph is in her third season with the Commodores and was a college teammate of Coach Williams-Jeter at UConn.

As a team, Vanderbilt is scoring 72.6 points each contest and stifling opposing squads to just 59.4 points per game. The Commodores are shooting 41.7 percent from the field, 31.4 percent from behind the arc, and 68.4 percent from the charity stripe. Vandy is also 13th in the country in turnover margin and 16th in turnovers per game.

The Commodores are led by Sacha Washington with 15.2 points and 8.1 rebounds per game while Jordyn Cambridge is right behind her with 14.5 points and 8.3 boards each outing. Like Dayton, Vanderbilt has stuck to its core starters this season with only six players making at least one start.

FLYERS PICKED NINTH IN PRESEASON POLL

Dayton was picked to finish ninth in the 2023-24 Atlantic 10 preseason poll, two spots up from where the Flyers finished last season. UD was chosen ahead of VCU, their 2023 A-10 Tournament opponent, last year's regular season champion UMass, La Salle, and Fordham. Rhode Island was tabbed as the A-10 preseason favorite ahead of Saint Joseph's, the 2023 A-10 Tournament Champion Saint Louis, and Richmond.

PEREZ NAMED THIRD TEAM PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

Graduate student Mariah Perez was selected to the All-Atlantic 10 Preseason Third Team ahead of the upcoming campaign. The New Jersey native is coming off a career season in which she was named the team's Most Improved Player. She started all 27 games and had career highs with 11.9 points and 9.4 rebounds per game.

RETURN OF THE MEEK

On Wednesday, Nov. 8 in the season opener, Dayton traveled to Hartford, Conn. to take on the No. 2 UConn Huskies as Coach Williams-Jeter returned to face her alma mater and former coach Geno Auriemma. The Flyers fell in the season opener to the Huskies, 102-58. Coach Williams-Jeter played at UConn from 1998-2002 where she won two national championships (2000 and 2002) and earned National Freshmen of the Year honors. She set a NCAA record for career field goal percentage at 70.3, which still holds to this day. Coach Meek was just as successful off the court serving as the President of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

WILLIAMS-JETER EARNS FIRST A-10 CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT VICTORY

Dayton faced VCU in the first round of the 2023 A-10 Championship Tournament in a match-up of the No. 12 seeded Flyers battled No. 13 seeded Rams. Dayton was able to power its way to a 67-61 victory, earning Coach Williams-Jeter's first postseason victory in charge of the Flyers.

WE'VE GOT AN AUDIENCE

On Feb. 8, 2023, the Flyers played in front of 11,635 fans at UD Arena while hosting Saint Louis. The record-breaking crowd was due to the overwhelming success of UD's annual School Day game, a chance for local school-aged children to take a field trip with the Flyers. Dayton will host VCU this season for School Day on Jan. 24

QUITE THE CROWD

Along with setting the single-game attendance record in program history last season, Dayton also led the Atlantic 10 in average home attendance. The Flyers averaged 2,545 fans per game, which ranked top 60 in the nation. This season, Dayton leads in the A-10 in average attendance.

FLYERS IN REGULAR SEASON LEAGUE PLAY

Dayton has won 145 of its last 184 regular season Atlantic 10 games (.803), a streak that dates back to a 97-46 win over Rhode Island on Jan. 7, 2012, and includes a perfect 14-0 mark in conference play during the 2012-13 season.

THREE POINTS OF EXCELLENCE

Dayton has hit at least one three-point shot in 691 consecutive games dating back to Jan. 2, 2001, the longest streak in the Atlantic 10 Conference and fourth longest in the nation. The Flyers made a program-record 15 three-point field goals against Buffalo in the Connecticut World Vision Classic on Nov. 25, 2011. Dayton tied the record with 15 vs. Wright State on Nov. 28, 2012.

70'S THE MAGIC NUMBER

Since the 2009-10 season, Dayton is 198-25 (.887) when scoring 70 or more points, including 11-0 in 2021-22. During the 2010-11, 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons, the Flyers only lost one game per season when scoring at least 70 points, and dropped only two games in 2019-20 when reaching that mark.

RESETTING THE COACHING STAFF

The Dayton women's basketball program shifted things around on its coaching staff with new faces and new roles.

Daryl Hudson was named a new assistant coach in May, coming over from the University of Omaha where he spent the last three seasons on the staff. There he helped lead the Mavericks to the Summit League Championship Game twice. Returning to the staff is Trendale Perkins and Julie Bolden who took on new titles. Perkins will now serve as Assistant Coach and Video Coordinator while Bolden is now Assistant Coach and Director of Recruiting & Creativity.

WHAT COACH HAS TO SAY

Head coach Tamika Williams-Jeter gave her thoughts on the new additions to the Dayton women's basketball program.

Ivy Wolf

"Ivy is a dynamic playmaker who possesses high floor general skills. She gives us someone with a high basketball IQ who can score at a high level, and is very competitive. She could also one day be President of the United States."

Saija Cleveland

"Saija is the ambassador of Dayton women's basketball. She is highly involved in multiple organizations throughout our University, and takes growing her leadership skills very seriously. On the court, she is versatile, skilled, and is still working on coming back two years post-operation."

Riley Rismiller

"Riley is a future star, franchise caliber. She's highly skilled, productive back to the basket. She has face-up game and has the ability to really stretch the defense out with her shooting and passing. She's a high IQ kid who is really good at a lot of stuff. In her four years here, she will become great at everything. I'm really excited about who she is in the leadership space so young and who she is off the court. She's just a really high integrity kid."

Denika Lightbourne

"Denika is a raw, explosive athlete. She has the ability to be an elite defender by the time she graduates. She's also doing a great job of scoring at all three levels, especially at the rim."

Eve Fiala

"Eve has the potential to be an elite defender, rim-runner, and shot blocker. She's also a phenomenal passer and finisher at the rim."

Lauren Pallotta

"Lauren is an explosive, transition, scoring nightmare. She can score at all three levels and passes the ball as if she's on skates. She was a scholarship lacrosse player, but chose to come here and play so she's used to playing with her hands above her head and slicing through the lane. She can straight stroke it and she's a really good passer."

Richard Jeter, for allowing me to bring my sons back to the city that made me. Go Flyers!"

Williams-Jeter joins the Flyers from Wittenberg University where she has served as a head coach last season, leading the Tigers to an 18-8 record overall, a NCAC Tournament Championship, and the 2022 NCAA Division III Tournament. During the season, Wittenberg rode a 10-game winning streak to the conference championship which included a win over 10th-ranked DePauw. It was their first national tournament appearance since 2014-15.

Prior to her time at Wittenberg, Williams-Jeter had assistant coaching stints at prominent Division I programs such as Ohio State, Penn State, Kentucky, and Kansas. She helped lead those programs to eight NCAA Division I Tournaments and 11 postseason season appearances overall.

Coming out of high school at nearby Chaminade-Julienne, Williams-Jeter was the No. 1 recruit in the nation and two-time Ohio Player of the Year. The former forward was named Ohio Miss Basketball and led the Eagles to their first ever Final Four appearance. A highly sought-after recruit and arguably the best women's basketball player to ever come out of Dayton, Williams-Jeter went on to UConn as part of the No. 1 recruiting class in the nation in 1998.

Collegiately, Williams-Jeter had a Ring of Honor playing career at the University of Connecticut where she won two national championships in 2000 and 2002. She earned National Freshman of the Year honors from The Sporting News and was Big East Rookie of the Year. She went on to be named Most Outstanding Performer at the 2000 Big East Tournament en route to her first national title and received All-America Honorable Mention accolades as part of her second championship in 2002. Williams-Jeter was a Naismith Player of the Year candidate her senior season as well. Her career field goal percentage of 70.3 percent is the current NCAA Division I record.

Williams-Jeter went into coaching after playing professionally for seven seasons in the WNBA. She was selected in the 2002 WNBA Draft with the No. 6 overall pick by the Minnesota Lynx and earned WNBA All-Rookie team honors her first year. She finished with over 1,400 points and 1,100 rebounds in her career, and set a WNBA single-season field goal accuracy record in 2003 at 66.8 percent that still stands today.

Williams-Jeter earned her bachelor's degree from UConn in interpersonal communication. She and her husband Richard have two sons, R.J. and Jojo.

Williams-Jeter took Dayton program coming off a 2021-22 regular season Atlantic 10 Championship. The Flyers finished 26-6 with a win over DePaul in the NCAA Tournament. Dayton has reached the postseason for 15 consecutive seasons, including 10 of the last 13 NCAA tournaments.

Dayton women's basketball head coach Tamika Williams-Jeter is entering her second season at the helm of the Flyers in 2023-24.

In her first season in charge, Williams-Jeter focused on putting together a competitive team and experienced coaching staff while facing a challenging schedule in and out of Atlantic 10 play. The Flyers finished the season with a 7-21 record overall, but went 5-10 in A-10 play, earning the No. 12 seed in the 2023 A-10 Championship tournament. Williams-Jeter earned her first win in charge of Dayton on Dec. 29 with a home win over Cedarville and her first postseason victory for the Flyers with a first-round win over VCU in Delaware. Senior Sydney Freeman reached the 1,000-point mark in her career while redshirt-senior Mariah Perez recorded 12 double-doubles on the season.

Williams-Jeter has been successful at every level of basketball, both as a player and as a coach. From a stellar playing career at the top levels of high school, college, and professionally, to coaching stops at Division I powerhouses such as Kansas, Kentucky, Penn State, and Ohio State, and head coaching experience at Wittenberg and with the India National Team, she has been a winner everywhere she goes. Williams-Jeter has helped advance the game for women athletes and coaches, both domestically and internationally.

"Dayton represents my family, my foundation, and my heart," said Williams-Jeter. "The University of Dayton is a stellar academic institution immersed in a vibrant community where excellence is a standard. I am excited and honored to have the opportunity to lead this program full of phenomenal young women. I am grateful to President Spina, Neil Sullivan, and (Senior Associate A.D.) Angie Petrovic for giving me the opportunity to continue to guide UD women's basketball to greatness. Lastly, I want to thank my husband,
