Game 13 - Regular Season (Non-Conference)

Memorial Gymnasium • Nashville, Tenn.

TV: SEC Network+

The First Is The Sweetest - Head coach Stephanie Gaitley picked up her first win as head coach of the Knights. The Knights erased a nine-point fourth quarter deficit on their way to toppling Rider 64-59.

Returning Knights - FDU returns none of their five starters from last year's squad. They do return five reserves, but none of these players recorded a start last season. Abby Conklin, senior guard, makes her return as she got playing time in 32 of last year's contests where she put up 108 points, 51 rebounds, 35 assists and 17 steals.

New Faces - FDU welcomes nine new players to their roster this year. Six of these nine are freshmen, while the remaining three are a sophomore, a senior, and a graduate student. Nickie Carter, graduate student guard, joins the Knights after a notable tenure at Division III Montclair State where she scored 1,411 points in her 4 years competing. Carter is a three-time First Team All-NJAC, a two-time Second Team All-Met honoree, and was named Rookie of the Year.

Staying Home - The Knights will play 14 games in the friendly confines of Stratis Arena this season and have completed six of those 14 already.

Statistically Speaking - The Knights look to continue their control on the glass averaging 34.4 rebounds per game in comparison to their opponents who average 33.6. FDU is also averaging nearly two three-pointers more than opponents on average this season.

Last Time Out - The Knights last saw the court on Thursday at home against UNLV as they fell to the Lady Rebels 71-59. FDU kept the game tight as they trailed UNLV by two after one quarter. The Lady Rebels began to pull away and built an 18-point lead going into the fourth. The Knights put together an impressive fourth quarter outscoring UNLV by six but ultimately fell to the Lady Rebels 71-59. The Knights shot 21-for-59 (35.6%) from the field. FDU was able to collect 34 boards as Abby Conklin accounted for ten. Teneisia Brown led the Knights with 15 points scored.

Conklin Searching For 30 - Abby Conklin currently sits at 29 made threes on the season. The Irvington product was held off the board from deep by Seton Hall but continues her search for number 30 against Vanderbilt. Conklin's next triple will mark a career-high as the guard hit 29 last season.

Teneisia Time - Brown has scored in double-digits eight times for the Knights so far this season out of the 12 games played. The senior center/forward averages 10.6 points and 6.2 rebounds per game. She has recorded two double-doubles against Mount St. Mary's (Md.) and NJIT and added 15 points and seven boards against UNLV.

Catching Conklin - Abby Conklin is playing an intricate role in the team dynamic for the Knights this year. The senior guard has scored in double digits for the Knights seven times and just recorded her season high in rebounds with ten against UNLV. Conklin averages 9.4 points per game and is shooting 29-for-74 (39.2%) from beyond the arc.

FDU does not identify as "Fairleigh Dickinson" athletically and requests all media/broadcasts utilize "FDU" in all references.

NOTES CONTINUED

Patrolling The Polling - The Knights have been selected fourth in the NEC preseason coaches poll. The news was announced Tuesday, October 24 at the NEC Basketball Social Media Day held at Prudential Center in Newark, N.J.

Traveling In The NEC - Senior guard, Teneisia Brown made her way to FDU after a two-year campaign at Merrimack where she totaled 296 points, 195 rebounds, and 30 steals. Brown was also named to the Preseason All-NEC team before the 2022-23 season.

Gaitley By The Numbers - FDU is now led by Stephanie Gaitley. Gaitley entered 2023-24 with the 12th best winning percentage among active coaches in all of Division I.

Knights Turn Pro - Two players from last year's team have gone pro... Dahomee Forgues signed with C.D. Magec Tias and is now competing in Spain, while Celia Carbonell signed with Falcon Kvinde Basketliga and is competing in Denmark.

Historic Season - FDU is coming off a stellar 2022-23 season where they totaled 24 wins, 10 of which were out-of-conference, the most in program history. They were named the 2022-23 NEC Regular Season Champions, and look to reclaim that title again this year.

Out For The Season - Ciera Cevallos

Whole New Realm - In July, FDU unveiled a new brand identity, the first full brand change for the Knights since 2004. Designed by VPCo., the new marks honor the University's past, location and the values of FDU Athletics. More available at FDUKnights.com.

Behind Enemy Lines - Vanderbilt sits with an impressive 11-1 record on the year. In their last contest, Vanderbilt came away victorious over Dayton by a score of 70-53. The Commodores average just over 72 points per game and only allow 58.

Scout's Corner - The Knights will be keyed in on the Commodores' Jordyn Cambridge and Sacha Washington. Cambridge leads Vanderbilt as she averages 15.2 points per game and is contributing an average of 8.4 rebounds per game. Washington is a threat for the Commodores as she averages 14.8 points and 8.7 rebounds per game.

Match-Up History - This game marks the first time in history the FDU Knights and Vanderbilt Commodores will face each other.

Pacing The Sidelines - Head coach Shea Ralph is in her 3rd season as coach of the Commodores.

Our Campus

Fairleigh Dickinson University's Metropolitan Campus is home to nearly 10,000 undergraduate and graduate students, attracting students from 60 countries and 38 states. Just a few miles from New York City, the Metropolitan Campus offers many of FDU's business, professional, science and health care programs, as well as the Division I Knights athletic program. The Hackensack River runs through the heart of campus, which now features a newly renovated and award-winning footbridge that spans the river and connects the Teaneck and Hackensack sides of the campus.
