KEY STORYLINES

BIG SOUTH PLAY LOOMS: Sunday's New Year's Eve contest with Vanderbilt marks the final nonconference match for the Highlanders this season. After that, Radford will play 16 straight Big South games before it all culminates in the Big South tournament which runs from March 6th through 10th to determine who earns the conference's automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament. The conference tournament is hosted by High Point this season, who Radford opens conference play at next Wednesday.

TOP-50 IN COUNTRY: At almost halfway through the season, sophomore Ashlyn Traylor-Walker stands within the top-50 of multiple stat categories. Traylor-Walker's 191 field goal attempts (26th), 74 free throw attempts (18th), 58 free throws made (25th) and 215 points (49th) are all also tops in the Big South conference. She is also top-100 in field goals with 74 on the season (73rd) and near top-100 in points per game at 16.5 (102nd).

RADFORD vs. VANDERBILT: Radford and Vanderbilt have met twice in the history of the two programs with the last meeting coming in the 2019-20 season. Vanderbilt has won both meetings and just one player (Vanderbilt's graduate guard Jordyn Cambridge) remains on either roster from the last meeting four seasons ago. For Radford, in the 2019-20 meeting standout Khiana Johnson shined for 18 points in the Nashville lights.

LAST TIME OUT: RADFORD 50, CHARLESTON 74 (CHARLESTON, S.C. | 12.21.23)

Radford at Col. of Charleston
12/21/23 TD Arena, Charleston, SC
Radford at College of Charleston

Game Duration: 1:41
Attendance: 333

CHARLESTON, S.C. – The Radford women’s basketball program fell in a tough game Thursday afternoon 74-50 at College of Charleston despite a strong start.

The Highlanders went punch-for-punch with the Cougars over about the first 16 minutes of play as both teams traded leads. Ashlyn Traylor-Walker caught fire early on hitting a three-pointer to open the scoring. Joi Williams and Terissa Lavoile-Brice joined in with made layups to give Radford a 7-5 lead at the 5:58 mark.

Another three-pointer and made driving layup by Ashlyn helped Radford pull ahead further but the high energy offense of the Cougars wasn’t held quiet long. Three straight three-pointers saw the Cougars pull ahead 17-14 before the first quarter closed.

Radford punched back in the second quarter bursting for an 11-1 run to reclaim an advantage. Taniya Hanner joined the scoring fun while Maci Rhoades sunk a pair of free throws to go immediately back out front 19-16. Ashlyn sunk another two shots to pull ahead by as much as 23-17 with 6:09 left in the half.

From there, though, scoring woes hit the Highlanders as College of Charleston went on a 19-4 run over the final six minutes of the half primarily scoring off turnovers to take a commanding 36-27 lead into halftime.

Radford broke through for a brief scoring run to start the second half, but the shots kept landing for College of Charleston as the deficit ballooned. Williams and Hanner combined for nine of the 11 third quarter points as Radford trailed 59-38.

Ellie Taylor would strike for seven points in the final frame, but the Cougars wouldn’t relent in their scoring attack to pull away for the eventual 74-50 final.

MIKE MCGUIRE

HEAD COACH (ELEVENTH SEASON)

▶ @coachmcguire

▶ @mamcguire77

Mike McGuire has become a household name in the New River Valley thanks to his success on the court, his involvement in the community and his reputation as a man of great character. His time at Radford has been full of joyous moments and unforgettable seasons, leading his teams to four WNIT postseason appearances in the past seven seasons as well as an NCAA Tournament berth in 2019. He is currently ranked tied for fifth in Big South Conference history in overall and conference wins.

McGuire owns the third-best winning percentage of any coach in program history with an overall record of 142-98 (.591). He has gone 102-50 (.671) in Big South play and has led the Highlanders to two Big South regular season championships and one tournament championship. Radford is on a streak of six straight seasons with a winning record in Big South play going 96-36 over that stretch. The Highlanders have truly risen to defend the Dedmon Center as they are 77-30 at home in the McGuire era.

Now entering his ninth season at the helm of the Radford women's basketball program after taking the position on April 24, 2013, he is widely recognized as one of the up-and-coming head coaches in the nation. McGuire quickly laid a solid foundation when he arrived at Radford and has successfully seen his vision come to fruition. For the past five seasons the Highlanders have been selected in the top-5 in the Big South preseason poll, including a three-year span being selected as No. 1 (2017-2019).

McGuire has been recognized three times as the Big South Coach of the Year (2015, 2018, 2019), making him the first coach in program history to achieve the feat. He collected his 100th career Big South win, the first Highlander coach to do so in program history, during the 2020-21 campaign against Charleston Southern on February 20, 2021. His hard work and dedication to the program have been on display day-in and day-out for many years, proving that no one could be more deserving of that recognition.

Under his direction there have been 22 Highlanders named All-Big South including 2018 Defensive Player of the Year – Jayda Worthy, four VaSID All-State honorees, and the 2018-19 tournament MVP Lydia Rivers. The Highlanders earned their first ever Big South Conference Sportsmanship Award following the 2018-19 season and the program has also excelled like never before in the classroom, earning an APR score of 1,000 across the last four years. Academically during McGuire's tenure Radford has had seven conference All-Academic selections with Jen Falconer named to the VaSID Academic All-State team for the 2018-19 season.

The Highlanders have made a habit out of upsetting Power Five opponents under McGuire. In his five completed seasons, Radford has topped the likes of Penn State and Wake Forest. Victories over regional rivals such as Appalachian State, VCU, UNGC, Davidson and others have also buoyed the Highlanders' resume in recent years.

Overall	11 seasons	167-147	114-74		5 Postseason Berths

The 2020-21 season presented many unique challenges for the Highlanders amidst the COVID-19 pandemic. The team battled adversity all season long to finish with a 9-9 record in Big South play. Winning four of their last five games of the season, including an overtime victory over eventual Big South runner-up Campbell, Radford was poised to finish the season strong and make some noise in the Big South tournament until the team had to pull out of the tournament due to COVID-19. The team leaned on its senior leadership by Tina Lindenfeld, Makaila Wilson, Bryonna McClean and Ariel Williams as all four finished the season with over 100 points. Newcomers Ashley Tudor and Kyanna Morgan also finished the season with triple-digit point totals, helping ignite the Highlanders' hot finish to the season.

The 2019-20 Highlanders were selected as No. 1 in the coaches preseason poll to start the 2019-20 season, with Sydney Nunley and Khiana Johnson highlighting the all-conference preseason teams. Radford got back on track after a seemingly tough nonconference slate including power-5 teams like Vanderbilt, West Virginia, Ohio State, and Alabama. During the latter contest, Johnson reached the career milestone of 1,000 points to become the fifth player to do so under the direction of McGuire in the past six seasons. The Highlanders' battled their way to a Big South Tournament deciding victory on senior day vs. Hampton, to secure the would-be two-seed. Radford finished the campaign 17-12 overall and 15-5 in conference, this is the sixth consecutive season with double-digit conference wins. The Highlanders formally received the 2020 WNIT bid, for their fifth postseason bid in the last six seasons. Conference postseason awards for Radford were paced by the senior trio of Johnson (First Team), Nunley (Second Team), and Falconer (All-Academic). The Highlanders won 12 of their final 14 games before the season was canceled due to COVID-19, the postseason would not be played.

Radford put together one of the greatest campaigns in school history in 2018-19, going 26-6 overall and 17-1 in Big South play to clinch the regular season title and the top seed in the Big South Tournament. McGuire and the Highlanders would go on to win the Big South Championship and earn a bid to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 23 years. Another impressive feat was the 2018-19 team earned a spot in the final College Insider Mid-Major Poll, coming in at No. 25.
