SEC Championships

Meet	Vanderbilt at SEC Championships
Dates	Tuesday-Saturday, Feb. 20-24, 2024
Site	Auburn, Ala. • James E. Martin Aquatic Center
Social	Twitter • @VandySwimming   Instagram • @VandySwimming
Broadcast	SEC Network+ Elizabeth Beisel, Rowdy Gaines, Patrick Kinas and Cynthia Potter

• Vanderbilt will be making its 27th all-time appearance at the SEC Championships, including its 19th under the direction of head coach Jeremy Organ since reinstating the program prior to the start of the 2006-07 season.

• This will be the Commodores' second multi-day competition of the season, with Vandy having ended the fall season taking part in the three-day Gamecock Invitational hosted by South Carolina Nov. 15-17.

• The Dores enter the postseason coming off three straight victories after sweeping a tri-meet against Little Rock and North Texas the final weekend of January and then defeating Tulane on Senior Day.

• More than half of Vanderbilt's roster for the competition will be comprised of underclassmen with 13 freshmen and sophomores among the 22 individuals swimming this week.

• Mercedes Traba leads Vandy in four different individual events entering the postseason, including the 500 and 1,650 free as well as the 400 IM. Only Ellie Taliaferro (100 free, 200 free, 200 IM) and Faith Knelson (100 and 200 breast) join the junior having recorded the team's top marks in multiple events in 2023-24.

• Both Knelson and Kailia Utley have won a team-high five individual races during the course of the season, highlighted by the former claiming the A Final in the 100 breast at the Gamecock Invitational in November. Three of Knelson's five victories have come in that event, while Utley touched the wall first in multiple events—earning first-place finishes in the 100 and 200 fly—in dual meets on consecutive weekends against Iowa (Oct. 28) and Illinois (Nov. 4) in the fall.

• Those two are also the only Dores who have advanced to finals at the SEC Championships over the last two seasons. Utley made the C Final in the 200 fly in her debut at the event in 2022 before qualifying for the Bonus Final in the same event a year ago, with Knelson competing in the Bonus Final in both the 100 and 200 breast last season in College Station, Texas.

• Three newcomers to the program—Sophia Kosturos, Abby Francis and Emily Carpenter—will bring postseason experience to the meet for the Dores. Kosturos qualified for finals at the Pac-12 Championships each of her four seasons at UCLA, highlighted by scoring 48 points at the competition when she was a junior in 2022. In four seasons at Davidson, Francis made finals every year at the Atlantic 10 Championships including recording 48 points to finish among the top 10 individuals in scoring as a sophomore during the 2021 campaign. Last winter, Carpenter ended her freshman season at Texas by advancing to the Bonus Final in the 100 free and 200 back at the Big 12 Championships.

• When Taliaferro claimed the 100 free and 200 IM in the Commodores' victory over Tulane to close out the regular season, it marked the first time the sophomore won multiple races on the same day at the collegiate level.

• The duo of Taliaferro and Megan Cieczczak enter the SEC Championships ranked among the top 10 all-time at Vanderbilt in four events each. Not only are the two ranked first and third, respectively, in the 100 free at Vanderbilt, they are both members of the Commodores' top 200 and 400 free relays with Cieczczak handling the final leg in the 200 medley relay—she's also fifth in the 50 free on Vandy's all-time performer list—and Taliaferro serving as anchor of the 400 medley relay.

• While all six freshman on the roster will be competing this week for the Dores, just one has the team's top time in an event in 2023-24. Grace Ciaramitaro's sub-2 minute mark in the 200 back at Illinois in November stands second on the school's all-time performer list.
