Hitting the Road

The Owls begin the 2024 season on the road for the first time since 2021 and outside the state of Florida for the first time since 2016. FAU Baseball is 8-1 all-time in season opening games away from home including a three-game sweep of Alabama to begin the 2012 campaign.

Who Are These Guys?

Due to graduation, the transfer portal, and the draft head coach John McCormack and staff had to restock 50% of the roster for this season. Only three regular starters from 2023 remain. One of them -- John Schroeder -- played mostly right field last season but will now be the full-time No. 1 catcher. Christian Adams and Spencer Rich are also back but both missed a significant portion of last season due to injury.

Newcomers to Watch SS - Brando Leroux

After two seasons batting leadoff and starting at shortstop, Armando Albert transferred to Florida paving the way for junior transfer Brando Leroux. The Toronto native made 54 appearances for Bossier Parrish CC (Louisiana) in 2023, racking up 10 home runs, 52 RBI, and a .353 average.

1B - Mike La Rocca

The Owls lost Nolan Schanuel, the 11th overall pick in the 2023 MLB Draft and now the starting first baseman for the Los Angeles Angels, leaving a chasm on the right side of the infield. Graduate senior Mike La Rocca will step in after four years at Southern New Hampshire (DII) where he totaled 21 HRs and 103 RBI in 108 games.

DH - Emilio Gonzalez

A freshman from Island Coast HS, Gonzalez will likely see plenty of at-bats at both DH and first base early in the season. The Cape Coral, Fla. native appeared in 79 games in a three-year HS career where he hit .428 (.564 as a senior).

Facing Ranked Opponents

The Owls were mostly undeterred when facing Top 25 teams last season racking up wins over Miami (No. 22 and No. 17) and Florida Gulf Coast (No. 15 twice). In addition, FAU held leads over No. 6 Florida (led 9-7, lost 18-11) and No. 16 Miami (led 4-0, lost 10-5).

A New Conference to Rep...

2024 will be the Owls' debut season in the American Athletic Conference after nine seasons in Conference USA.

... But Several Familiar Faces

Charlotte, UTSA, Rice, and UAB also made the move from C-USA to the AAC joining Memphis, East Carolina, Wichita State, Tulane, and USF.

Year 16 for Coach Mac

2024 will be John McCormack's 16th season as head coach and 34th overall with the program. The 1990 graduate of Lynn University (in Boca Raton) recorded his 500th career victory on April 11 last season.

A Return to Regionals

Not counting the shortened 2020 campaign, it's been three full seasons since the Owls' last regional appearance in 2019 -- the program has not gone longer than three seasons without a regional appearance since qualifying in 2005 and then not again until 2010.

Start Us Off Spence

The Owls have flexibility throughout their lineup so head coach John McCormack will likely shuffle the batting order early in the season. Centerfielder Spencer Rich will get the first crack at the leadoff spot though. The senior missed eight weeks with a wrist/hand injury last season but thrived when healthy. Rich went 9-for-13 with 1 HR and 5 RBI in the C-USA Tournament, earning himself a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

Rotation Spot Competition

The rotation remains fluid with 6-8 candidates in contention for starts...

Williams Gets the First Crack

C.J. Williams will make the start for the season opener. As a junior transfer in 2023, the Deerfield Beach, Fla. native did everything asked of him. He began the year as a late-inning/closer option, transitioned to a multi-inning reliever, and finished the year as the Owls' Friday night starter. He went 5.1 in the first game of the C-USA Tournament, striking out seven and allowing three runs. Williams works at a rapid fire pace and is known to wear his emotions on his sleeve.

Show Us What You've Got Trey

Freshman Trey Beard has earned the Saturday start after an impressive preseason. The lanky lefthander has a unique but consistent delivery and features a fastball, curveball, slider, and changeup. Head coach John McCormack has described the changeup as "a Bugs Bunny-like pitch".

Murph Gets a Taste on Sunday

Tyler Murphy will make the start on Sunday, likely on a pitch count with a reliever ready to go in the second or third inning. As a freshman last season, Murphy was effective in four spot starts but mostly contributed in long relief. The native of Palm City, Fla. is built like the Hulk and maintains a mostly unflappable personality. The sophomore had an arm procedure done in the fall and is still working his way back to full health.

Bullpen Roles TBD

The Owls will have about a dozen options for arms coming out of the bullpen to start the season. With half of those arms being newcomers, no position on the roster is more unclear.

Expect senior Braden Ostrander to handle save or high leverage late-game situations.

Most of the reliever options are righthanded placing an emphasis on senior transfer Ben Gilbert. The soon-to-be 24-year old is at his fourth college stop after stints at Ole Miss, Hillsborough CC, and State College of Florida.

Missing the Drum

One reason for the added pressure on Gilbert is the absence of Sam Drumheller for the opening weekend. The senior is week-to-week, battling a lingering upper-body injury since late in the fall. Drumheller finished with a 3.51 ERA last season, at one point going nine straight appearances without allowing an earned run.

The Owls have three candidates to start in left field...

Jake Millan is a switch hitter that the staff believes is ready to make the jump to a normal starter. Carter Brady is a transfer that hit 14 HRs and racked up 61 RBI for Andrew College (NJCAA) in 2023. Brady led the Fighting Tigers to the JUCO World Series. The third candidate is freshman David Alvarez, one of three Canadians on this year's roster.

... and Who's at Third

Pat Ward and Daulton Frank are the candidates to start at third base. The pair split time at second base last year when Christian Adams was sidelined in March and April.

HEAD COACH #3 JOHN MCCORMACK

16TH SEASON / LYNN UNIVERSITY '90
512-322-2 (.612)

John McCormack completed his 14th year atop Florida Atlantic University baseball as head coach in 2022, and 32nd season with the program. He had previously served 11 years as associate head coach and seven years as an assistant coach, beginning in 1991.

The Owls have finished in a top four conference position in 11 of 13 seasons since McCormack took over in 2009 (not including the shortened 2020 season)

Coach Mac has lead FAU to four regular season conference championships (C-USA: 2016 & 2019, SBC: 2010 & 2012) and one postseason conference championship (SBC: 2013). The Owls have qualified for NCAA Regionals six times (2010, '13, '15, '16, '18, '19) in the McCormack era.

To this point, a total of 132 FAU players that McCormack has recruited or coached at FAU have continued their professional baseball careers, including Austin Gomber, who was selected in the fourth round of the 2014 MLB Draft by the St. Louis Cardinals. Additionally, 33 of the 36 draftees were not drafted out of high school, continuing McCormack's outstanding track record of developing players after they come to Boca Raton. This past June, Gabriel Rincones, Jr. was selected by the Philadelphia Phillies with 13th of the 3rd round, making him the fourth highest draft pick in FAU baseball history.

McCormack was promoted to associate head coach in 1998, working with long-time FAU coach Kevin Cooney. Together, Cooney and McCormack won 658 games, appeared in seven NCAA regional tournaments, captured a regional championship in 2002 and advanced to the super regional that season. He joined the staff in 1991 after approaching Cooney about assuming the duties of recruiter. He has focused his attention on the pool of talent in the South Florida area. His first FAU recruiting class (1993) finished the season 41-17 and made a trip to the South Regional, where they fell to the eventual national champion.

Other accomplishments under McCormack include tying a national record for consecutive games won (34), and winning the Tuscaloosa Regional by defeating the nation's No. 3-ranked team, Alabama, in 2002. McCormack was recognized with the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year Award in 2003.

Before joining FAU, McCormack played for nearby Lynn University, where he received his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1990. At Lynn, McCormack earned All-Conference honors his junior year as a catcher and his senior season as a third baseman. He was named the All-Area Team MVP during his junior season. Prior to Lynn, he attended Indian River Community College and Pope John Paul II High School in Boca Raton.

Born in New York, McCormack has lived in South Florida for more than 30 years. He and his wife, Katrina, reside in Boca Raton and have two sons, Conor and Shane.
