Last Time Out

In their first ever matchup with Tennessee Tech on Thursday evening, Saint Mary's broke out with a four goal performance to secure their first win of the season. The Gaels were led by junior forward Tessa Salvestrin who recorded her first career hat trick with the opening goal in the first half and two more in the second. Salvestrin had seven shots in the team's draw last week against San Jose State and it was safe to say she was itching to get back on the field in an effort to record her first goal of the season after coming so close against the Spartans. All three goals for the Gaels were high quality with excellent deliveries and superb finishing. Fellow forward Briana Salvetti assisted on the first two goals to showcase the team's dynamic one-two punch. The Gaels outshot the Golden Eagles 13-3 in the first half and 10-1 in the second half as they dominated the game from the first whistle. Salvestrin secured her hat trick in the 69th minute after a great individual run from Sydney Middaugh into the right half of the penalty box. Middaugh would beat her defender one-v-one and play a beautiful driven ball to the back post that would find Salvestrin's feet for the one-time finish. Saint Mary's would put the finishing touches on the match with a penalty kick goal from freshman Taylor Kessler in the 82nd minute for her first career collegiate goal. Once again, Middaugh would get into the box on the dribble and get taken down to earn the penalty. Kate Plachy would not have to make a save for the Gaels and pickup her second shutout of the season. Alessandra Towle and Amari Hicks were the only other two players to play all 90 minutes outside of Plachy, giving some nice stability to the Gaels backline. They will head into Sunday's matchup against Vanderbilt in good form ready to knockoff the Commodores.

Romagnolo was hired in January of 2020 to take over the women's soccer program, becoming the seventh head coach in program history.

After an 8th place WCC finish in 2022, Romagnolo got the Gaels back in the top half of the conference with another 10-win season in 2023 to finish 5th in the WCC standings. She recorded key non-conference wins against Idaho State, Sacramento State, San Jose State and 15th ranked Washington State where they went into Pullman to shutout the Cougars 1-0. After dropping their first three league games, the Gaels went unbeaten in their final five which included four wins to jump into 5th place. Romagnolo helped produce four all-conference selections including First Team recipient Makena Carr.

She led the Gaels to a 10-4-4 record in 2021, her first full fall season at Saint Mary's. The win total was SMC's best since 2011 and it was their best winning percentage since 2001. The team received votes in the United Soccer Coaches top 25 for the first time since 2004, registered the fourth-most shutouts in a season in program history, and had a player score eight or more goals in junior Suzuna Shibukawa for the first time since 2014.

Following the 2021 season, the Gaels had numerous postseason honors, including for the first time in school history, a freshman of the year. Saint Mary's also had a first team all-conference selection in Shibukawa and two honorable mention members in Maya Alcantara and AnnaMaria DiGeronimo.

Alcantara and Shibukawa were also named to the United Soccer Coaches 2021 NCAA Division I Women's All-Western Region Second Team and DiGeronimo was named to the All-Western Region Third Team. The program also had five players earn WCC All-Academic Honorable Mention in Alcantara, Emma Barthel, Emily Jensen, Isabella Santavicca, and Laura Trapero Sanz.

In her first season as head coach of the Gaels, Romagnolo led the team to a 4-3-2 conference record and 4-4-3 overall record. Saint Mary's had an incredible turnaround from the season prior as they posted their first winning WCC record in 16 years and best overall record since 2011. Under Romagnolo's tutelage, freshman Taylor Poland was named WCC Goalkeeper of the Year and became the team's first All-WCC First Team honoree since 2017. Alcantara was also selected to the Second Team, marking the program's most representatives on either team since 2010.

Romagnolo brings 16 years of collegiate coaching experience with her to Moraga, including head coaching duties at Notre Dame and Dartmouth. Romagnolo is also familiar with West Coast soccer as she's spent time at both Stanford and San Diego as an assistant.

The University of Washington alum most recently served as head coach for the Fighting Irish from 2014-18 with high levels of success each season. Notre Dame made the NCAA Tournament in all four years of her tenure, including two trips to the Round of 16, and claimed their first-ever ACC Regular Season Championship in 2016 under Romagnolo's tutelage. All told, Romagnolo posted a 51-21-13 record at UND and had a myriad of student-athletes receive honors ranging from Academic All-Americans to National Team and NWSL Draft selections.

Prior to working in South Bend, Romagnolo spent three seasons leading the women's team at Dartmouth. In just her second year with the Big Green, the program posted their second-highest winning percentage ever with a 13-4-0 showing and improved by nine wins from the year prior. Dartmouth produced 16 all-conference players, three all-region selections, and an Ivy League Rookie of the Year in 2012. Off the field, the Big Green had a 100 percent graduation rate, 3.4 team GPA, and had an academic All-American under Romagnolo.

As an assistant at Stanford, Romagnolo helped the Cardinal reach the Final Four in all three of her seasons, including two National Championship appearances. At San Diego, the Toreros reached the NCAA Tournament in three of her five seasons, and were consistently in the top-50 in the RPI.

As a player, Romagnolo was a standout at Washington as she was named all-conference all four years, an All-American and Scholar Athlete All-American, as well as helped her team win the Pac-10 Championship in 2000. She graduated in 2001 with a degree in business and played in the professional WUSA league for the San Jose CyberRays until 2003.

Theresa resides in Orinda with her Husband Alex and daughters Sierra and Giovanna.

About the Commodores

The Commodores return 18 players, including their top seven scorers in Rachel Deresky (seven), Ella Eggleston (five), Courtney Jones (four), Addie Porter (three), Abi Brighton (two), Mia Castillo (two) and Hannah McLaughlin (two). Vandy also returns both keepers in Kate Devine and Sara Wojdelko who combined for nine clean sheets, the most since Vandy's keepers registered 11 shutouts during the 2019 season. Vanderbilt landed seven players on the SEC Preseason Watchlist, announced by the conference this morning. Fifth-years Abi Brighton and Leskauskas, seniors Rachel Deresky and Addie Porter, junior Hannah McLaughlin and sophomores Ella Eggleston and Courtney Jones represent the Dores. The Commodores were also picked to finish ninth in the coaches' poll. In week one of the season, Vanderbilt battled 21st ranked Georgetown to a scoreless draw. Then on Thursday, the Commodores also broke out on the scoresheet and put up five goals over Belmont in their home opener. They would get the scoring started in just the 13th minute and then get some help with an own goal give them a 2-0 lead at the break. Three second half goals would put the game to bed as four different players recorded goals in the team's first victory of the season. Historically, Vanderbilt has a 2-1 overall record against Saint Mary's but the Gaels had the last laugh back in 2007 with an exciting 3-2 overtime victory.
