Priority issuance of credentials will be given to media outlets television stations that cover EKU women's soccer on a regular basis. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space-available basis.

TEAM 20

The 2024 season marks the 20th season of EKU women's soccer. Since the program's inception in 2005, the Colonels have won over 120 games and produced 60 All-Conference players.

YEAR FOUR

The 2024 season marks EKU's fourth season as an institutional member of the Atlantic Sun Conference. The Colonels have reached the ASUN Tournament in all three years in the league, including semifinal appearances in 2021 and 2022.

CHECKS OVER STRIPES

2024 marks year two of EKU sporting Nike as its official gear sponsor on and off the pitch. The Colonels have two kits (Home white, maroon away) for players in the field and three (Pink, blue, maroon) for the goalkeeper union.

DESTINATION RICHMOND

EKU has three international student-athletes on its 2024 roster. All three players have competed in the international stage for their national youth national team or developmental squads (Nerea de Diego, Spain; Paula Herranz, Spain; Chiara Premoli, Italy).

NOT A FRESHMAN ANYMORE

EKU's Nerea de Diego enters her senior season in 2024 as one of the premier players in the ASUN Conference. She became the program's first ASUN Freshman of the Year honoree and United Soccer Coaches All-Region in 2021. The Spaniard is a two-time All-Conference selection.

WHAT'S THE HYPE ABOUT?

EKU and head soccer coach Matt Cosinuke inked a 8-member freshman class to the 2024 roster this offseason. Of the eight signees, three members (Ana Manning, Ella Grode, Peyton Smith) come to Richmond with All-America distinction to round out the most decorated signing class in program history.

CALL IT A PIPELINE!

EKU enters the 2024 season with 11 student-athletes from the Greater Cincinnati Area, which is known for producing some of the top prep soccer talent in the country. Head coach Matt Cosinuke served in various roles with the University of Cincinnati men's and women's soccer program from 2012-18.

ALEXA, PLAY WHAT'S NEXT?

EKU unveiled its full 19-game 2024 fall schedule on May 28th. The schedule features 10 games at EKU Soccer Field, seven non-conference games against programs within a one state radius from Kentucky, a power-5 road match at Vanderbilt, rivalry games against Morehead State and Austin Peay, and 11 games against ASUN opponents.

SEASON STORYLINES

WELCOME TO THE ASUN

On July 1, 2024, the Atlantic Sun Conference announced the addition of West Georgia as its 12th and newest member in the league. UWG will replace Kennesaw State who departed the ASUN for the Conference USA over the Summer. Last season, UWG went 6-7-4 overall competing in NCAA D2.

PRESEASON HONORS

EKU was picked to finish 5th in the 2024 ASUN Conference Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Colonels did not get any pre-season selections to the All-Conference Team or any superlative awards.

FIRST, BUT NOT LAST

Freshman forward Ana Manning recorded the first goal of her collegiate career and first goal of the season for EKU in a 2-1 loss against Morehead State.

GRO FOR GOAL!

Freshman forward Ella Grode recorded her first career goal and first career assist in a 2-2 tie over Eastern Illinois on September 1st at home. She scored the game-tying goal in the 88th minute.

MOVIN' ON UP

With a 3-1 win at Northern Kentucky, Head women's soccer coach Matt Cosinuke moves to 2nd in program history in wins (33). He needs 14 more to move to first.

¡VAMOS, NEREA!

Senior midfielder Nerea de Diego scored the first goal of her 2024 campaign against Youngstown State, the fourth of her career.

MURPH 2X

Junior midfielder Maddy Murphy was named the Atlantic Sun Conference Player of the Week on Sept. 9 after recording a brace in a 3-1 win at Northern Kentucky.

EKU WOMEN'S SOCCER

ATLANTIC SUN CONFERENCE

The identity of the Atlantic Sun Conference reflects our position as a premier NCAA Division I conference. Contemporary, but designed to stand the test of time, this identity embraces the future. The rising sun within the "A" represents hope and optimism for tomorrow. It also represents the brilliance of our student-athletes, who are at the heart of all we do. As sure as the sun will rise, the ASUN will be leading the way.

WE PUT STUDENTS FIRST

In everything we do, the student-athlete comes first. We lead by example in embracing a student-first culture.

- For the three consecutive years, the ASUN SAAC has held a Social Media Campaign to raise awareness for Mental Health among student-athletes across the NCAA. Held in late January, student-athletes from the conference shared their stories and struggles to help break the stigma of mental health.

WE CAN RISE

We have a history of firsts and remain committed to elevating our student-athletes and bettering our future.

- Over the past two seasons, the ASUN Conference saw quality postseason success as league teams totaled 12 wins in national postseason tournaments. Four of those wins came in NCAA Tournaments, with victories in Baseball, Women's Basketball, Women's Lacrosse and Softball. EKU's Ahmed Jaziri became the second student-athlete in ASUN Conference history to become a national champion after winning the 3,000m Steeplechase. Additionally, more than 70 percent of ASUN student-athletes earned a year-long 3.0 or higher GPA each of the past five years.

WE CAN CONNECT

We are united as a community of students, athletes, coaches, faculty, administrators, staff and fans.

- The 2022-23 academic year saw a record number of broadcasts with 1,060, an increase of 19 percent over the previous high (894). The ASUN continued its expansion of the ESPN partnership with over 43,000 average viewers and over one million average minutes watched. With the benefit of the ESPN+ platform the ASUN also expanded championship coverage to include the Men's and Women's Outdoor Track & Field Championships.

WE CAN IMPACT

Our success resides in the impact we make in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Making a difference counts.

- A total of 36 ASUN Conference programs posted perfect Graduation Success Rate (GSR) scores and four league sports finished at or above national standards in the latest report released by the NCAA - Women's Basketball, Men's Golf, Men's Tennis and Volleyball. By sport, Women's Basketball and Volleyball each had a conference-high six teams with perfect 100 percent scores. Men's and Women's Tennis each had five schools hit perfect marks.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT COSINUKE...

"Matt Cosinuke is, first and foremost, a great person. He has impeccable character, cares for others, and places great emphasis on building positive relationships. Matt is passionate, positive, and has a magnetic personality. I was fortunate enough to work alongside Matt for over three years, and witnessed his work-ethic and willingness to grind first-hand. He will provide an immediate infusion of energy into the program. I can't overstate how excited I am for Matt, as he is fully deserving of this great opportunity. I firmly believe that EKU made a great hire!"

- Nate Lie, Xavier University

"Matt Cosinuke is a tremendous hire for EKU. Matt has an incredible work ethic and isn't afraid to grind, and he is one of the hardest working coaches on the recruiting trail. He knows how important it is to bring the right people, not just good players, into the program and he will work tirelessly to get the right people on board that will establish the foundation for a winning culture, both on and off the field. Matt has a very bright future ahead of him as a head coach, and EKU will experience a great deal of success and be a contender in the OVC under his watch. Matt and his family will be a great addition for EKU."

- Stefanie Golan, University of Missouri

"EKU made a fantastic hire in Matt Cosinuke. Matt is one of the bright young coaches out there in the college game today. Matt's a player's coach, talented, ambitious and hard working with a good knowledge of the game. Matt has a passion for people and I have no doubt that he will make all those around him better for it. The lessons the student-athletes will learn from Matt, on and off the field and in and out of the classroom, will be invaluable during their post-collegiate careers. I'm excited to watch and see the heights that Matt takes EKU."

- Neil Stafford, University of Cincinnati

HC MATT COSINUKE

Matt Cosinuke was hired as the head coach of the Eastern Kentucky University soccer program on January 3, 2019.

Players have thrived on and off the field under Cosinuke's guidance. Katie Shaffer was voted first team All-OVC in both 2019 and 2020, making her the first Colonel ever to earn first all-conference honors twice. Sarah Owusu (2019 second team All-OVC), Audrey Anderson (2019 OVC All-Newcomer Team) and Michaela Iacono (2020 second team All-OVC) have also played at an all-conference level in Cosinuke's system.

Larissa Heslop (2020) and Billie Clark (2021) have been NCAA Woman of the Year Nominees the last two years.

Heslop was voted an Academic All-American in 2019.

In the spring of 2020, the Colonels posted the highest single-semester GPA in program history - 3.837.

On the field, EKU improved greatly from 2019 to 2020, especially on the attacking end. After averaging 0.67 goals-per-game in 2019, the Colonels averaged 1.4 goals-per-game in 2020.

After going 1-7-1 at home in 2019, Eastern went 3-1-0 at home in 2020, including shutout wins over rival Morehead State and Belmont and a Senior Day victory over then-unbeaten Southeast Missouri.

In Cosinuke's first season at the helm, EKU tied for the OVC lead with four shutouts during conference play. The Colonels recorded clean sheets on the road over Jacksonville State, Eastern Illinois and rival Morehead State, and at home against Belmont.

EKU also recorded an impressive 1-0 shutout win over Milwaukee during non-conference play. Milwaukee came into the game undefeated and had only lost twice in its last 50 games dating back to 2016.

On Sept. 12, 2019, in Cosinuke's seventh game as head coach, the Colonels hosted Kentucky, marking the first time ever an SEC school visited EKU Soccer Field. A record-setting 1,045 fans were in attendance for the intrastate contest.

Cosinuke came to EKU following five successful seasons as an assistant coach / recruiting coordinator at the University of Cincinnati (2014 to 2018). He helped lead the Bearcats to the 2015 American Athletic Conference (AAC) Tournament championship and a trip to the 2015 NCAA Tournament.

"I'd like to thank the administration for believing in me to lead this program," Cosinuke said upon being hired. "I'd also like to especially thank Neil Stafford for helping to shape me into the coach I am today. Richmond is a wonderful town and EKU is an exceptional university. I feel blessed to be given this opportunity, and I look forward to the challenge. My wife Alexis, my daughter, Iris, and I are ready to be part of the community and extended EKU Family. Go Big E!"

During Cosinuke's five seasons at Cincinnati, the Bearcats' RPI rose from No. 237 to No. 11.

UC recorded five consecutive losing seasons (2009 to 2013) before Cosinuke joined the staff. In Cosinuke's first four seasons in Cincinnati (2014 to 2017), the Bearcats went 46-23-14 (18-13-5 AAC).

Cincinnati notably finished the 2015 season with a record of 13-6-5 (5-3-1 AAC), giving the Bearcats their best league finish since 2002. UC then stormed through the AAC Tournament and stunned USF in a penalty-kick shootout in the title game to win its first ever conference championship and earn its first NCAA bid since 2010.

In 2017, Cosinuke helped guide Cincinnati to a record of 12-4-3 (5-2-2 AAC).

In addition to his duties as recruiting coordinator, Cosinuke worked primarily with UC's goalkeepers and defenders. During the championship season of 2015, the Bearcat defense recorded 12 shutouts, second-most in a season in the history of the American Athletic Conference. In 2017, UC notched 11 clean sheets, third most in conference history.

In 2017, UC keeper Natalie Smith led the AAC in shutouts during conference play (5) and ranked second in the league in goals-against average (0.82).

Prior to joining the women's soccer coaching staff at Cincinnati, Cosinuke was a volunteer goalkeepers coach for the UC men's soccer program from 2012 to 2013. During that time, he instructed a goalkeeper who led the Big East in shutouts and ranked 21st in the country in saves.

Cosinuke experienced great success as a volunteer goalkeepers coach for the Dartmouth College men's soccer program from 2010 to 2012. During the 2010 season, the Big Green reached the NCAA Sweet 16 before falling to No. 8 UCLA, 2-1, in double overtime. In 2011, Cosinuke helped lead Dartmouth to the Ivy League title and back to the NCAA Tournament. He mentored goalkeeper Noah Cohen to honorable mention All-Ivy League honors in 2011.

Before arriving at Dartmouth, Cosinuke spent one season as a volunteer goalkeepers coach at his alma mater, Florida Atlantic University, in 2009.

A native of Lebanon, New Hampshire, Cosinuke graduated from Kimball Union Academy in Meriden, New Hampshire before going on to play Division-I soccer at FAU.

Cosinuke holds an Advanced National Goalkeeping License from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America and several licenses from the U.S. Soccer Federation.

He graduated from FAU with a bachelor's degree in psychology. He also holds a master's degree in sport management (certificate in athletic administration) from the University of Southern New Hampshire.

Cosinuke and his wife, Alexis, have three children and reside in Lexington, Ky.
