SERIES HISTORY

19TH MEETING
VU LEADS 18-0

Series Notes:

Lipscomb will meet Vanderbilt for the 19th time in program history and the ninth since the Bisons made the move to NCAA Division I.

This is the third time in program history the two teams met in November, with this matchup being the earliest the two teams have faced off. Neither team has opened the season against their respective opponent.

SERIES HISTORY: VANDERBILT

Monday's matchup will be the 19th in program history between Lipscomb and Vanderbilt, but it is the ninth meeting since Lipscomb joined the NCAA Division I ranks.

Vandy holds the 18-0 advantage, and despite the Commodores taking the 72-50 win in their last meeting, the Bisons will look for a repeat of Dec. 18, 2022, when they went to overtime. The only difference between that matchup and Monday's show-down is that Vandy did hold on the defeat Lipscomb, 72-71.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Lipscomb will look to make it two in a row when it comes to season openers. The Bisons took down Evansville last Nov. 7, also on the road, by a 77-58 score.

RECEIVING VOTES TO START THE YEAR!

Colleg Insider.com has Lipscomb receiving two votes in the preseason Mid-Major top 25 poll.

The Bisons are predicted to finish third in the ASUN this season.

EXHIBITION WIN OVER TENNESSEE TECH

It was a great start in the preseason for the Bisons, as they rallied from five points down with three minutes in the fourth quarter to defeat Tennessee Tech, 74-72, in Cookeville on Oct. 29.

Lippy overcame a slow start with an 19-11 deficit in the opening quarter to win the contest.

Bella Vinson led the Bisons with 21 points on 7-of-15 shooting, including four from downtown. Ainhoa Cea also went 7-of-15 from the floor for 16 points and added six dimes and four thefts.

MCGOWAN, VINSON TAPPED TO ASUN PRESEASON TEAM

Two Bisons, Claira McGowan and Bella Vinson, were selected to the Preseason All-ASUN Team.

McGowan, a senior from Murfreesboro, Tennessee, is coming off a Second Team All-ASUN selection in 2023-24 after leading the team in scoring with 12.8 points per game, which was 10th-most in the league.

Averaging 32.1 minutes per game, she recorded a 39.3% clip from the field and knocked down 52 3-pointers. She also drained 81% of her attempts from the charity stripe.

On ball control, she averaged 4.8 rebounds per game, totaled 64 assists and 23 steals.

Vinson, a senior from Manchester, Tennessee, started in all 22 games she played last season before an injury prematurely ended her 2023-24 season. She shot nearly 40% from the field and averaged 11 points per game.

Averaging 4.3 rebounds per game, she also assisted on 38 shots and added 24 steals.

BISONS PICKED THIRD IN PRESEASON ASUN POLLS

Lipscomb enters the 2024-25 season predicted to finish third in the ASUN, scoring 110 points in the coaches poll and 429 with the media.

Lipscomb finished with a 17-13 overall record and 10-6 in the ASUN for a fourth place finish last season. With 13 ASUN wins in 2023 and 10 in 2024, the Bisons posted back-to-back double-digit wins in league play for the first time since their first two seasons in the ASUN in 2004 and 2005.

Posting winning conference seasons in three of her first five seasons, head coach Lauren Sumski is 40-40 in conference games.

STEP UP TO BOX OUT

Lipscomb finished the 2024 season as the top team in the ASUN and 55th in Division I in rebounds per game with 39.6. Additionally, the 28.4 on the defensive glass was also tops in the ASUN and 32nd in the nation.

However, with the loss of four players from last season's roster, the Bisons will look to recover 38% of the team's rebounds from a season ago. Most of the work came from Aleah Sorrentino (187) and Blythe Pearson (167). Claira McGowan is the lead returning player with 144 boards, averaging 4.8 per game.

The silver lining for the Bisons is the return of graduate student Jalyn Holcomb. Missing the 2023-24 season due to an injury, she was the third-best rebounder in 2022-23 with a 5.2 average.

ONE LAST RIDE

Jalyn Holcomb returns for her "sixth season" in 2024-25. After the NCAA granted an extra season of eligibility in 2020-21 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, she was planning on using her fifth year in 2023-24, but an injury sidelined her for the entire season.

She enters her graduate season with 104 games played, one of 18 Lipscomb players in its Division I era to play 100+ games in a Bisons uniform. She sits third all-time in scoring with 1,178 points, eyeing Jenna Bartsokas's record of 1,411 from 2007-11.

She's also within striking distance of the field goals made record. Sitting at 409, the school record is currently held by Ashley Southern, totaling 522 from 2013-16.

From downtown, she's made 166 shots, and she's also looking to become the third player to hit 200 3-pointers in a career, joining teammate Blythe Pearson (201) and Anna Bowers's record of 207 from 2008-12.

Her 392 points in 2023 was good for 10th-best all-time and her 140 field goals made was 11th.

KEEPING AN EYE OUT FOR MOLLY AND AINHOA

Juniors Molly Heard and Ainhoa Cea are primed for breakout campaigns in 2025.

Heard played in 29 games with 28 starts last season with 27.6 minutes per game. She averaged 10.4 points per game with a 41.5 field goal percentage.

Recording 16 double-digit scoring performances last season, she set a new career-high with 21 points against Eastern Kentucky on March 2.

Cea started in all 28 games she played for the Bisons in 2024, and she led the team last year with 91 assists, averaging 3.3 per game and she carried an assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.15.

WE ARE THE "BYE-SONS"

We are the "BYE-SONS" at Lipscomb. Don't confuse us with North Dakota State as they are pronounced the "BYE-ZIN." Act like you are from the South. The most commonly accepted plural of "bison" is bi-son, but at Lipscomb, we are the BISONS with an S. The unabridged Oxford English dictionary includes Bisons as a proper usage.

HEAD COACH: Lauren Sumski

LAUREN SUMSKI

6th SEASON AS HEAD COACH AT LIPSCOMB
8th SEASON AS COLLEGIATE HEAD COACH

COACHING CAREER

- Lipscomb - Head Coach (2020-present)
- Rhodes - Head Coach (2018-19)
- Union (Tenn.) - Assistant Coach (2015-17)

EDUCATION

- Rhodes College - Memphis, Tennessee
Bachelor of Science in Biology (2014)
- Union University - Jackson, Tennessee
Master of Arts in Education, Sports Administration Emphasis (2016)

Lauren Sumski joined the Lipscomb Bisons in the spring of 2019 as the first-ever female to lead the program in the Division I era and enters her sixth season as Lipscomb's women's basketball head coach.

Last season, her squad ended with a 17-13 overall record and a 10-6 mark in ASUN play. The season was the second straight winning season for the program for the first time in the Lipscomb women's basketball's D-1 history. The Bisons accomplished this achievement despite some critical injuries before the start and toward the end of their season.

Two players earned all-conference team selections, led by Claira McGowan, who was deemed a second-team All-ASUN performer, and Aleah Sorrentino, who was selected to the third-team list. Sumski also earned her 100th win as a head coach against Central Arkansas late in the season.

In the 2022-23 season, Sumski led the Bisons to a historic season in which they tied the program record for wins (20), doubling their total from the previous season. They also won the most regular-season games in program history (19) and compiled the most ASUN wins (13) since the 2003-04 season.

Sumski has the program going in the right direction and has continued to build Lipscomb women's basketball into a contender in the ASUN. Lipscomb earned the third seed in the 2022-23 ASUN Championships, their highest regular season finish since 2003-04, and reached the tournament's semifinal round.

Three players took home ASUN postseason awards, led by Bella Vinson, who was deemed a first-team All-ASUN performer and just the fourth player to make the cut in program history, followed by Jalyn Holcomb, who was placed on the third-team, and Molly Heard, who made the All-Freshman team.

In the 2021-22 season, the Bisons tallied a 7-8 mark at home and an overall record of 10-20. Under her direction, the Bisons earned a Newcomer of the Week recognition, an All-Freshman Team recognition, and an All-Academic Team recognition.

In her first season at the helm of the program, Sumski improved the Bisons record by three wins, doubled their ASUN win total, and led Jalyn Holcomb to earn the program's first-ever ASUN Freshman of the Year award.

Sumski came to Lipscomb after serving as head coach for the Rhodes College women's basketball team, where she compiled a 35-21 overall record in her first head coaching tenure.

When she was hired at the age of 27, she became one of the youngest head coaches in the country across all Divisions.

In her first season at the helm, Sumski led the Lynx to an 18-9 overall record, a 13-game turnaround from the previous season's 5-21 mark. It was the third-largest improvement among all Division III teams in 2016-17.

In her second season, she led Rhodes to a 17-12 record and a Southern Athletic Association Tournament Championship. The Lynx knocked off the SAA regular season champion Millsaps (71-68) in the semifinals and then took down the defending tournament champion Oglethorpe (56-41) in the title game to earn Rhodes its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2015.

Sumski graduated from Rhodes in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in biology with a concentration in pre-medicine before earning her master's degree in education with a sports administration emphasis in 2016.

Rated the 28th-best high school prospect in the nation by ESPNU Hoopsgurlz 100, Sumski committed to the University of Tennessee and played one season under the legendary Pat Summit in 2010-11.

She played in 19 games for the SEC champions and was named to the All-SEC Academic team.

After dealing with injuries as a freshman in Knoxville, Sumski transferred back home and played her final three seasons with Rhodes, where she wrote the record books. In her last two years with the Lynx she helped lead the team to a combined 50-8 record, setting the school's record with 25 wins each season.

Her teams won the SAA regular season and tournament titles in both seasons and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each, where they picked up two first-round wins.

During her career, Sumski was a two-time WBCA All-American, a National Player of the Year finalist, an SAA Player of the Year, a two-time SAA Tournament MVP, and an academic honor roll member.

Sumski led the nation in points per minute and finished second in the country in scoring after averaging 25.6 points and 7.3 rebounds per game as a senior, where she led the Lynx to their second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and their first-ever DIII national ranking. In her junior campaign, she averaged 20.2 points and 8.6 rebounds.

She finished her career with 1,373 points and set the school record for points in a season (692), free throws made (180), and single season per game average.

Passing on numerous professional basketball playing opportunities, Sumski decided to pursue a career in coaching. After graduating from Rhodes, Sumski was awarded her first coaching opportunity as an assistant coach on Mark Campbell's staff at Union University in August 2014.

HEAD COACH: Lauren Sumski

The Lady Bulldogs compiled a 73-20 record during her three seasons on the staff. She helped produce 15 GSC Academic Honor Roll Players, three GSC All-Academic Players, four All-GSC players, one GSC Player of the Year, one South Regional Player of the Year, three All-Americans, one Player of the Year Finalist and two Top 10 Final Rankings.

Sumski was also a highly-decorated high school player at Lausanne Collegiate School in Memphis. She was named a national high school All-American, earned two state titles, and was a two-time Tennessee Miss Basketball. She averaged 15.7 points, 8.6 rebounds, 6.6 assists, and 5.8 steals per game for her career and posted 90 double-doubles, seven triple-doubles, and one quadruple-double.

She was featured in the 2008 Sports Illustrated 'Where Will They Be?' photo series and was named ESPN RISE Underclassman and EA Sports Player of the Year twice.

Sumski is married to her husband Chris, who served as an Assistant Coach on her staff at Rhodes and is now the Associate Head Coach at Lipscomb.
