SCOUTING VANDERBILT

The Commodores are undefeated this season with a 3-0 record. They won at South Florida on Thursday night behind a 17-point effort from Khamil Pierre. The sophomore forward shot 50 percent from the field and led the team with 10 rebounds. Pierre was one of three Dores in double figures. Mikayla Blakes had 16 and Madison Green hit five 3-pointers to net 15. Head Coach Shea Ralph enters her fourth season at Vandy in 2024-25. A former UConn assistant, Ralph led the Dores to the NCAA Tournament last season. It marked their first appearance in the tournament field in 10 years. The Bulldogs will need to be ready to face a physical and relentless Vanderbilt defense on Sunday. All three teams that have faced the Commodores this season have turned the ball over 20+ times. Points in general have been hard to come by. Lipscomb scored 50 in the season opener, South Florida managed 49, and Austin Peay was limited to just 37.

ALL-TIME SERIES

Sunday will be the fourth meeting between Vanderbilt and Butler. The Commodores recently took a 2-1 lead in the all-time series by recording a 51-39 win at Hinkle Fieldhouse last year. The first-ever meeting came in game two of the Vanderbilt O'Charley's Classic in 1990. The Bulldogs won that contest 91-88.

LAST MEETING VS. VANDERBILT

Vandy visited Hinkle last year and walked away with a 51-39 win. The difference in the outcome was the scoring in the second quarter. The Commodores won that frame 14-4 to take a nine-point lead into the half. Butler did outscore Vandy in the third, but could not complete the comeback. Caroline Strande led Butler in the setback with 12 points. The Commodores had two in double figures including Madison Greene with 10.

TRENDING UP

It's a small sample size, but there are some trends forming for the Bulldogs that are helping the team win games early in the season. Butler has shot more free throws than their opponent in each game this year and have also outrebounded their foes. Their depth is a clear advantage as BU has had more bench points than their opponent in three-straight games.

SPREAD THE LOVE

Butler has used the same starting lineup in each game, but a different Bulldog has led the team in scoring over the first three contests. Kilyn McGuff had 17 in the opener and Lily Carmody paced the Bulldogs with a season-high 20 points in the overtime thriller at Milwaukee. Strande sealed the IU win with free throws to push her game-high total to 14.

BATTLE TESTED

Butler trailed Indiana by two at halftime and were down six in the opening minutes of the third quarter. The Bulldogs fought back and took a 39-37 lead over the Hoosiers with two minutes to play in the third and never gave the lead back to earn their third win.

MOVE THE BALL

Butler had 14 assists on 20 made field goals against Indiana, the same total they recorded on 27 made field goals at Milwaukee last weekend. Their season-high total of 17 was recorded in the opener vs. Chicago State.

PLUS/MINUS

Lily Carmody and Karsyn Norman made huge impacts in the win over Indiana. The Bulldogs were +19 with Carmody on the court and +14 with Norman at point guard.

AUSTIN PARKINSON REACHES 250 CAREER WINS

Austin Parkinson guided Butler to 26 wins over his first two seasons at the helm. The Bulldog opening round WNIT victory last year moved Parkinson's career win total to 250.

SIGNATURE BIG EAST WINS

The Bulldogs defeated St. John's, Villanova and DePaul in February last year over the span of 19 days. It was the first time in program history for BU to defeat all three of those opponents in the same season.

BULLDOGS ON THE BIG STAGE

The BIG EAST matchup between Butler and St. John's set for Feb. 16 will be played at Madison Square Garden. The 2024-25 Bulldogs will be the first-ever Butler women's basketball team to play inside "The World's Most Famous Arena". Bulldog fans can also count on seeing their team play on FS1 this year. Butler will face Marquette in Milwaukee on Jan. 4 at 4 p.m. Each BU contest against UConn will air on SNY.

GULF COAST SHOWCASE

The Bulldogs will participate in the Gulf Coast Showcase this year. The tournament field features Butler, Boise State, High Point, Illinois State, New Mexico State, Santa Clara, Texas and West Virginia. Seven of the eight teams competing advanced to the postseason last year. Six of the eight teams in the field posted 20 or more wins last season.

CHEERS TO 50

The Butler women's basketball program is celebrating 50 years of Bulldog basketball in 2024-25. Over the previous 49 years, BU has recorded 689 wins under the direction of nine head coaches. The program record for most wins in a single-season was set in 1980-81 when the Bulldogs went 26-2 under the leadership of Linda Mason. Butler's only NCAA Tournament appearance came in 1995-96 when BU posted a 21-9 overall record.

WELCOME BACK

The Bulldogs return 80% of their scoring from last year's team. Seven of Butler's top eight leading scorers from 2023-24 are back with the program.

UP NEXT

The Bulldogs have two home games on the schedule next week. Butler will host Indiana State on Wednesday and UMass Lowell on Sunday. The weeknight tip is set for 7 p.m. while the weekend matchup gets underway at 2 p.m.

Austin Parkinson

Austin Parkinson was selected to lead the Butler women's basketball program on April 8, 2022. The Bulldogs set a single-season attendance record in 2023-24, averaging 1,141 fans per game. 20,541 total fans gathered at Hinkle Fieldhouse over 18 games to see BU in action. Butler went 15-17 overall with a 6-12 record in the BIG EAST standings. They were 9-9 at home and were able to host two WNIT games after receiving an at-large bid to the postseason tournament. Butler defeated Bowling Green in Round 1 of the WNIT. The victory went down as Parkinson's 250th career win as a head coach.

Postseason accolades went to Caroline Strande and Riley Makalusky. Strande was an All-BIG EAST Second Team selection, becoming just the third player in program history to be selected to the second team. Makalusky was voted onto the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team.

The Bulldogs finished the 2023-24 campaign ranked fifth in the nation in team 3-point field goal percentage. BU shot 38.3% from behind the arc and had four of the top ten 3-point shooters in the BIG EAST Conference. Highlights from the regular season included a road win at Wisconsin, four-straight victories in the month of February and a victory at Wintrust Arena. Parkinson helped Butler orchestrate a win at DePaul for just the second time in program history.

Parkinson guided the Bulldogs to an 11-19 record in his first year as head coach at Butler. The team won 10 more games than the previous season and put together a four-game winning streak in February. That stretch of action helped the Bulldogs secure the No. 8 seed in the BIG EAST Conference tournament. The Bulldogs also had a player make the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team at the conclusion of the regular season.

Prior to Butler, Parkinson was the all-time winningest coach in IUPUI women's basketball history. In his 12 seasons leading the Jaguars program, Parkinson posted a record of 224-141. Parkinson's Jaguars earned the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance by winning the 2022 Horizon League Tournament. IUPUI had a record of 24-5, including a win over nationally-ranked Iowa. It was Parkinson's eighth 20-win campaign. IUPUI also won the 2020 Horizon League Tournament and earned a berth in the 2020 NCAA Tournament, which was ultimately canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

During the 2021-22 season, Parkinson saw graduate student Macee Williams earn AP All-American Honorable Mention honors and win Horizon League Player of the Year for the fourth consecutive year. Williams was then selected by the Phoenix Mercury in the third round (32nd overall) of the 2022 WNBA Draft, becoming the first Jaguar to hear her name called in the WNBA Draft in IUPUI history. She was also one of five student-athletes nationally to be named to the 2021-22 Senior CLASS Award First Team.

Parkinson inherited a three-win team when he took over as the head coach days prior to the start of the 2010-11 campaign. In his third season, Parkinson's Jaguars posted a 20-win season. Six times he led IUPUI to the WNIT in addition to the two NCAA Tournament berths. Parkinson has been selected by his peers as the conference Coach of the Year three times – once in the Summit League and twice in the Horizon League.

Parkinson was a four-year letterwinner at Purdue from 2000-04 and closed his career tied for tenth on the Boilermakers' all-time assist list. Additionally, he led the Big Ten in assist-to-turnover ratio in each of his final three seasons. He received both his B.S. ('04) and Masters ('06) from Purdue in Organizational Leadership and Supervision.

Parkinson comes from impressive basketball pedigree as his father, Bruce, is Purdue's all-time assist leader and a member of the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame. His grandfather, Jack, played at Kentucky and is a member of both the Indiana and Kentucky Basketball Halls of Fame.

Parkinson and his wife Whitney are the proud parents of Wren and Pearce.

Signing Swanson

"McKenzie has a very high motor which is something I love," Parkinson explained. "She rebounds outside of her area and has expanded her range on the perimeter. She has a lot of tools in the post that will only get better at the college level."

Why Swanson Chose Butler: I chose Butler for its culture, excellence in academics, and the basketball program. From the first day I stepped on campus, Butler has felt like home. I believe that the friendships and connections that I will make here will last a lifetime and contribute to my personal and professional growth.
