NEWS AND NOTES

BYE-SONS

We are the "BYE-SONS" at Lipscomb. Don't confuse us with North Dakota State where they are pronounced the "BYE-ZIN". Pretend like you are from the south!

The most commonly accepted plural of "bison" is bison, but at Lipscomb we are the BISONs with an S. The unabridged Oxford English dictionary includes Bison as a proper usage.

ASUN CONFERENCE

When referring to our conference, please use "ASUN Conference" or "ASUN".

The league reintegrated use of their "Atlantic Sun" brand name in September of 2023, but allow "ASUN" to be used interchangeably as the shortened "Atlantic Sun".

NEW FACES FOR THE BISONs

Lipscomb brings in 16 new players to join the team's roster this season with 10 players returning to Nashville.

The squad's 2024 roster additions features seven true freshmen and nine transfers from Georgia, Texas Tech, Mississippi State, North Florida, Florida, Lee, South Florida, UNLV, and UMBC.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

Lipscomb was picked to finish second in the Preseason ASUN Coaches Poll.

The Bison's earned two ASUN Preseason Awards with Lucy Ream and Bella Carapazza earning Preseason All-ASUN accolades.

PREVIOUS MATCH RECAP

#3 Lipscomb women's soccer will return to Nashville with extra luggage, bringing home their fourth ASUN Championship trophy and a ticket to the NCAA tournament.

The Bison's topped #5 EKU in a nailbiter of a match. Earlier in the ASUN regular season, Lipscomb topped the Colonels 3-0. EKU entered the ASUN tournament in the first round of play, defeating #1 FGCU in overtime along their road to the championship round.

Just 7' minutes into regulation, freshman Tatum Ahlemeyer scored Lipscomb's first goal and the only goal of the match between either team. Ahlemeyer intercepted a pass from EKU and sent the ball toward the box, sending it over the keeper's head and into the back of the goal. Ahlemeyer's goal was her second of her career, her only other goal being scored in the previous matchup in the ASUN Championship Semifinal round.

Lipscomb's defense kept EKU out of scoring positions for a majority of the match. The Colonels only recorded 6 shots with 4 on goal compared to Lipscomb's 26 shots with 9 on goal. Kaina Cesar recorded saves on all 4 of EKU's shots on goal, including a huge stop in the 24' minute to prevent the Colonels from scoring on a free kick.

The Bison's earned 4 ASUN All-Tournament Team selections, including Paige Archbold, Lucy Hurst, Hailey Johnson, and tournament MVP Kiara Pralle.

KEVIN O'BRIEN - HEAD COACH

Kevin O'Brien enters his 13th season leading the women's soccer program at Lipscomb University and the winningest head coach in program history. O'Brien has led the program to unprecedented success and has catapulted the Lady Bisons into the national spotlight.

O'Brien has led Lipscomb to six ASUN Championship game appearances, three ASUN Tournament titles, and five Regular Season ASUN titles and has guided the program to the NCAA tournament in three of the last four seasons. During his tenure at Lipscomb, O'Brien has coached 41 All-Conference performers, 14 All-Freshmen performers, 25 All-Academic honorees, and 30 players of the week.

In his first ten seasons at Lipscomb, O'Brien has been named the ASUN Coach of the Year three times (2016, 2017, and 2021) and has achieved a record of 101-62-27. In a very prestigious honor, O'Brien's staff was named the United Soccer Coaches South Region Staff of the Year in 2018.

In his most recent season, O'Brien's squad put together a strong showing across the board. The Bisons collected an 11-5-3 record, boasting ten shutouts including an 8-0 victory over Alabama State. For their efforts, Shelby Craft, Logan McFadden, Kelli Beiler, and Kale'a Perry earned spots on United Soccer Coaches All-Region Teams with Beiler earning both the ASUN Player of the Year and the ASUN Scholar-Athlete of the Year titles. Alivia Carapazza joined Beiler on the ASUN All-Academic Team as well as earning her own ASUN All-Conference honors. McFadden, Craft, and Perry also joined the duo as ASUN All-Conference selections. CJ Graham, Emily Patti, and Emanuela Schürch also claimed spots in the ASUN All-Conference awards.

Over the 2022 season, O'Brien's squad put together a strong showing across the board. The Bisons collected an 11-5-3 record, boasting ten shutouts including an 8-0 victory over Alabama State. For their efforts, Shelby Craft, Logan McFadden, Kelli Beiler, and Kale'a Perry earned spots on United Soccer Coaches All-Region Teams with Beiler earning both the ASUN Player of the Year and the ASUN Scholar-Athlete of the Year titles. Alivia Carapazza joined Beiler on the ASUN All-Academic Team as well as earning her own ASUN All-Conference honors. McFadden, Craft, and Perry also joined the duo as ASUN All-Conference selections. CJ Graham, Emily Patti, and Emanuela Schurch also claimed spots in the ASUN All-Conference awards.

In 2021, O'Brien led the Bisons to an ASUN Regular Season title with a record of 15-5-1, a dominating run to win the ASUN Tournament Championship, and another birth to the NCAA Tournament. Prior to the NCAA Tournament, the Lady Bisons beat two Power 5 teams in non-conference play (University of Miami and Mississippi State University) continuing a trend that has been consistent over the last several years. Lipscomb matched up against in-state rival No. 6 University of Tennessee, providing them with a hard-fought match in their NCAA Tournament first round loss. In 2021, Shelby Craft was named the ASUN Defensive Player of the Year, CJ Graham the ASUN Goalkeeper of the Year, Katia Hanger earned ASUN All-Conference First Team honors and O'Brien the ASUN Coach of the Year. Additionally, Cami Rogers and Molly Grant were named to the ASUN All-Conference Second team. Furthermore, five Lady Bisons were recognized on one of the three United Soccer Coaches All-Region teams and the program finished the ranked No. 6 in the South Region Poll.

In the abbreviated 2020 season (played in the spring of 2021), O'Brien led the Bisons to another regular season title with a record of 7-3-2 before being knocked out of the ASUN Tournament by the eventual champion. Shelby Craft was named the ASUN Defensive Player of the Year, along with Kelli Beiler and Cami Rogers who earned spots on the ASUN All-Conference First Team. Emily Patti and Molly Grant were named to the ASUN All-Conference Second Team, while Eevee Reeder was named to the ASUN All-Freshman Team.

In 2019, O'Brien led the Bisons to their third-straight ASUN Regular Season title with a record of 13-6-2, defeating Kennesaw State in the ASUN Championship final. The victory led to a second-consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament, where the Bisons fell to No. 23 Louisville 1-0 in a tightly contested match. Senior Olivia Doak was named to the ASUN All-Conference First Team and was also named the Scholar Athlete of the Year. Joining her on the First Team was Maycie McKay, who also earned All-Academic Honors and was named to the COSIDA Academic All-District Team. Leah Cernicky and Katia Hanger were both named to the ASUN All-Conference Second Team, while Hanger and Molly Grant were also named to the All-Freshman Team.

In 2018, O'Brien led the Lady Bisons to an historic year by winning their first ever ASUN Tournament title. After knocking off perennial power FGCU 1-0 in the semi-final match, the Lady Bisons went on to win the ASUN final 3-2 over North Alabama. Lipscomb's historic run continued in the first round of the NCAA Tournament by defeating No. 17 Mississippi State in overtime. With the win, the Lady Bisons became the first team in Lipscomb University history to win an NCAA Tournament game. The season ended with a hard-fought loss to No. 9 Duke in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

In 2016, Lipscomb nearly swept the ASUN Conference awards as O'Brien won ASUN Coach of the Year, Anna Buhigas won ASUN Goalkeeper of the Year for the third-consecutive season, Niamh Rawlins won ASUN Defensive Player of the Year, Olivia Doak won ASUN Freshman of the Year, and Natalie DuBoise was named ASUN Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Prior to Lipscomb, O'Brien was the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator of the men's soccer program at Davidson from 2009-2011. He assembled a top-notch recruiting class in 2011 that included three players ranked top-150 nationally by College Soccer News.

O'Brien was part of Davidson's staff that led the Wildcats to upset three top-25 programs in three seasons including a victory against eventual National Champions, North Carolina, in 2011. Both the 2009 and 2010 squads were ranked top-25 Nationally at one point in their respective seasons.

Prior to joining the staff at Davidson, O'Brien served as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator with another NCAA Top-25 program - the Charlotte 49ers. The 49ers were NCAA College Cup finalists in 2011, with seven of eleven starters being recruited by Coach O'Brien in his time with the program. O'Brien worked under and honed his coaching philosophy alongside four-time National Champion coach Jeremy Gunn (Head Coach, Stanford University).

At other coaching stops along the way, O'Brien served as an assistant at Creighton University, where he was on staff for two Elite Eight NCAA Tournament runs. He also spent time at Oregon State University and got his coaching start at Presbyterian College, where the team won the SAC Tournament Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

O'Brien holds a USSF "A" License and the NSCAA Advanced National Diploma. He spent several years serving in the North Carolina Olympic Development Program and coached his team to an ODP National Championship in 2006.

In his playing days, O'Brien captained the College of Charleston to two NCAA post season appearances, multiple top-20 rankings, an Elite 8 appearance and was a two-time All-Conference selection and All-South Region player. O'Brien holds the ASUN record for most games in a career (85) during his time at College of Charleston. Following his collegiate career, he played professionally (USL) for 8 years with the Charleston Battery and Charlotte Eagles.

Coach O'Brien lives in Nashville with his wife, Shannon, a former University of Arizona women's soccer player and Lipscomb Women's Golf Assistant Coach. They have a daughter, Keely, and son, Keegan.
