Lady Pirates Look for Another Upset of an SEC Foe

Hampton coach Tamisha Augustin (pronounced Ah-gust-in, not Augustine) will be making a return trip to Memorial Gymnasium when Hampton takes on Vanderbilt.

As associate head coach at Florida last season, Augustin was on the bench when the Vanderbilt topped Florida 63-57 on Jan. 7, 2024. Florida got a measure of revenge on March 7, 2024 when the two teams met in the SEC Tournament. This time around, Coach Augustin was on the winning side as No. 11-ranked Florida beat Vanderbilt 62-59. Both teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Now, as head coach of the Lady Pirates, Coach Augustin and her young troops will face an undefeated Vanderbilt team that is 4-0 and averaging 84.5 points per game while yielding just 47.0.

But SEC teams have learned not to take the Lady Pirates lightly. Hampton has a 5-8 record against SEC opposition, with victories over Alabama, Auburn, Mississippi State, LSU, and Florida.

With a rebuilt roster that includes six new faces, the Lady Pirates have been competitive beating Bowie State before falling to state rival Radford. In it's last game, Hampton battled Norfolk State on even terms, an NCAA Tournament team a year ago, falling 62-53.

Capsule Summary

The Game: Hampton (1-2) at Vanderbilt (4-0)

The Game

Hampton (1-2) prepares to take on its second consecutive opponent that reached the NCAA Tournament a year ago.

On Nov. 16, the Lady Pirates faced longtime rival Norfolk State. In 2023-24, the Spartans posted a 27-6 record while winning the MEAC regular season and tournament titles. The Spartans faced Stanford in the NCAA Tournament.

The Spartans downed Hampton 62-53 but Hampton played on even terms in the final half with each team scoring 29 points.

Hampton celebrates the 50th anniversary of women's basketball in 2024-25. Coach Alberta Gatling's team finished with a 2-10 record in 1975-76 with wins over St. Paul's and Fort Monroe.

But just two seasons later, Hampton would claim the state small college AIAW championship. In 1988, Coach James Sweat led the Lady Pirates to the NCAA Division II national title. Hampton has won 17 conference titles (10 MEAC, 7 CIAA), and made 15 NCAA Tournament appearances (9 Division I, 6 Division II).

Hampton has more NCAA Division I Tournament appearances (nine) than any other HBCU university.

First-year coach Tamisha Augustin overhauled the roster with six new players all from the transfer portal. Top newcomers include guards Jasha Clinton, who averaged 11.0 ppg in 2022-23 at Temple and CeCe Thomas who averaged 5.5 ppg last year at Georgia Southern.

Hampton returns three starters from last year's team including guard Amyah Reaves (7.8 ppg, 3.2 apg), guard Le'Asia Foreman (5.1 ppg, 4.3 rpg), and center Aisha Dabo (5.0 ppg, 4.3 rpg). Also, Janae Dublin (9.0 ppg, 5.2 rpg) played a key role until an injury ended her season.

Clinton has come up big when the game is on the line. Against Bowie State on Nov. 4, Clinton tallied 18 points with 11 points in the final quarter. In the Nov. 7 game at Radford, Clinton tallied 11 of her 13 points in the final quarter.

After scoring seven points in the season-opener against Bowie State, Thomas tallied a team-high 14 points with six rebounds at Radford. She followed it up with 10 points against Norfolk State on Nov. 16.

Next Up for the Lady Pirates
Hampton returns home to host Eastern Kentucky on Monday, Nov. 25 at 7:00 p.m. It will mark the first meeting ever between the two teams.

The Lady Pirates in November

In 49 seasons, the Lady Pirates have posted a 103-121 (.460) record in the month of November. The Lady Pirates are 1-2 in Nov. 2024.

Birthday Week

There will be a lot of birthday cake and candles at the Convocation Center this week. On Nov. 15, Jasha Clinton celebrated her birthday. On Nov. 16, Tiani Abrams had to sandwich her birthday celebration between a football, women's and men's basketball games. On Nov. 18, Kiya Dorroh celebrated her birthday one day before associate head coach Dexter Holt's birthday.

Head Coach, Hampton, 2024-present

The Hampton women's basketball program launched a new era by hiring Hampton native and Florida associate head coach Tamisha Augustin as head coach on March 27, 2024.

With a rich background in basketball, coaching, and player development, she brings a wealth of experience and an unwavering commitment to nurturing talent on and off the court.

Augustin, the 10th head women's basketball coach in Hampton history, brings a distinguished resume to the position. Augustin's basketball journey began at Bethel High. She then excelled at Alabama A&M, where she was a two-time All-SWAC performer and served as a four-year team captain. After her playing days, she ventured into coaching, accumulating experience at various levels of basketball.

Augustin's coaching career spans nearly two decades and includes roles at multiple universities and the NBA G League. She has served as an assistant coach and a recruiting coordinator at prestigious programs such as Arizona, Mississippi State, Florida, Minnesota, and Virginia Commonwealth, among others.

Augustin returns to her hometown after working under Coach Kelly Finley at Florida. In her first season as an assistant coach with the Gators, Florida advanced to the WNIT quarterfinals in 2023. In 2024, she was promoted to associate head coach and helped lead the Gators to the SEC Championship quarterfinals with wins over Missouri and Vanderbilt before losing to Mississippi. The team earned an invitation to the WBIT, falling to St. John's.

Throughout her coaching tenure, Augustin has been associated with success on the court. She has been part of teams that have reached the NCAA tournament, including a memorable run with Arizona that saw the Wildcats advance to the championship game in 2021. Her coaching philosophy has yielded impressive results, with athletes under her tutelage garnering conference honors and national recognition.

During her time in the NBA G-League, Augustin was part of a coaching staff that oversaw nine call-ups, demonstrating her ability to develop players and prepare them for the next level.

At Florida, Augustin played a pivotal role in recruiting top-tier talent, aiding in the signing of three McDonald's All-Americans and two Jordan Brand Classic participants. Her ability to attract standout players underscored her influence within the basketball community and contributed to the program's success.

On the education front, Augustin earned a bachelor's degree in biology in 2005 and a master's in microbiology in 2007. She also earned a master's degree in education from Regent in 2010.
