- His 315w career wins at the D-I level rank T-22nd among active coaches and T-37th all-time.
- The Tigers have the most goals in the country through three games, tied with Indiana State with 16.
- Memphis shipped seven goals past Kennesaw State on Aug. 21, the most goals they've scored since Aug. 26, 2021, when they scored eight against Arkansas-Pine Bluff.
- The Tigers tout 103 wins dating back to the 2018 season, the seventh-most by any Division I team over the past seven seasons.
- On the back of an undefeated conference regular season in 2024, Memphis won the regular season championship for the second consecutive year and sixth time in program history.
- The title marked their 15th overall; Memphis is one of nine schools to have 15 conference titles since 2007.
- The Tigers finished last season ranked 11th in winning percentage (.789), 16th in goals-against average (0.68) and 33rd in goal differential (+24).

THE MONAGHAN FILE

Among the most successful coaches in the history of Memphis Athletics, Brooks Monaghan (pronounced Mon-uh-gin) enters his 26th season as head coach and 31st season with the program. Since taking over in 2000 as the second head coach in program history, Monaghan has guided the Tigers to 15 conference championships, nine All-American honorees, 127 All-Conference selections and 12 NCAA Tournament berths including two consecutive trips to the Sweet Sixteen in 2022 and 2023.

After his first seven seasons saw a record of 62-55-8, the 2007 team went 17-4-1 to earn a share of their first-ever C-USA regular season championship. Since 2007, Memphis has a record of 250-96-31 heading into 2025. From 2007-11, the team won nine conference titles -- three regular season titles and five consecutive C-USA Tournament victories.

The 2011 squad -- which went 22-1-1 and reached as high as No. 3 in TopDrawerSoccer's Top 25 teams -- also collected the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament victory, a 7-0 result over UT Martin. Since 2021, the Tigers have won five NCAA Tournament games en route to two Sweet Sixteens, including top-10 victories over No. 10 Saint Louis (2022) and No. 9 Notre Dame (2023).

Monaghan and staff have won yearly coaching honors and have developed student-athletes into successful players and women at Memphis and beyond. Vendula Strnadov, who was a major part of the 2007-10 teams, was a NSCAA All-American in 2010 and went on to make six appearances for the Czech Republic national team. Christabel Oduro was named an All-American in 2011 and made five caps for the Canada national team in addition to playing professionally in the U.S., Canada, Germany, Israel, Sweden, Malta and Turkey. In January 2024, Mya Jones became the first Memphis Tiger to be drafted to the NWSL when she was selected in the third round by the San Diego Wave. When the Northern Super League -- the first top-flight Canadian women's soccer competition -- began its inaugural season in April 2025, the Tigers had the most alumni (7) on opening-day rosters of any university in the world, spanning all the way back to 2010 and as recently as 2024.

Prior to taking the reigns, Monaghan was the goalkeeper coach from the program's inception in 1995 to 2000. His soccer accomplishments as a Tiger go even further back, as he still holds school records for season shutouts (11) and career shutouts (24) during his collegiate career from 1992-1995. He also earned a spot on the U20 United States National Team and played for the New Orleans Gamblers and the Memphis Express.
