A rising star in the coaching profession and integral part of the first SEC volleyball program to win a national championship, Anders Nelson (pronounced ahn-ders) will usher in a new era of Vanderbilt volleyball as the reintroduced program's first head coach, the university announced.

"I coach to instill confidence in athletes and help them reach their full potential...to Shatter their Ceiling," Nelson said.

"I want our volleyball student-athletes to walk into a championship-caliber program, which is why I'm so excited to welcome Anders Nelson as our first coach," said Candice Lee, Vanderbilt vice chancellor for athletics and university affairs and athletic director. "Coach Nelson not only has valuable experience as part of SEC and NCAA championship teams but embraces and understands the unique opportunity that is Vanderbilt. He's excited to come to work every day to help young people dare to grow. As we promised with the Vandy United campaign, we want to reimagine what is possible for Vanderbilt Athletics. And by joining us now, Coach Nelson has time to immerse himself in our collaborative environment and help build every facet of this program from the ground up."

"For Vanderbilt to fulfill its mission, we must always seek out new opportunities to grow," Vanderbilt Chancellor Daniel Diermeier said. "The hiring of Anders Nelson to lead the reintroduction of our volleyball program is a further proof point of our commitment to move forward boldly. With an established record of excellence on and off the court, he is the ideal person to build a program capable of furthering Nashville and Middle Tennessee's flourishing volleyball community and preparing our student-athletes for the lifelong realization of their potential."

Nelson spent 11 seasons at Kentucky, first as an assistant coach and as associate head coach for seven seasons.

The Wildcats reached the NCAA tournament in each of his 11 seasons in Lexington and progressed to at least the second round on all but one occasion. In his seven seasons as associate head coach, Kentucky compiled a 117-11 record in official SEC matches and won at least a share of six consecutive conference titles, including a perfect 18-0 record in 2018.

In April 2021, completing a 2020 season delayed by the COVID pandemic, Kentucky defeated former national champions Washington and Texas in the Final Four to win the SEC's first volleyball national title.

Nelson's recruiting efforts led to the Wildcats signing four classes ranked in the top 10 nationally, two in the top 5 and one top-ranked recruiting class. Among those he helped recruit and reach their potential was 2021 AVCA Player of the Year and 2020-21 Honda Award winner Madison Lilley. During his time in Lexington, Nelson also guided All-American Avery Skinner, who won a silver medal with the U.S. women's volleyball team at the 2024 Paris Olympics.

Personal

Raised in St. Croix Falls, Wisconsin, Nelson was introduced to volleyball at an early age. His older sister Meredith Nelson Uram ranked among the top high school recruits in the nation and earned All-America honors as a middle at the University of Minnesota.

After beginning his own collegiate journey at Minnesota, where he played on the men's club volleyball team, Nelson played three seasons of Division I men's volleyball as a middle for Ball State University. In his final season, he was named to the AVCA All-America Second Team.

Academically, Nelson graduated summa cum laude after double majoring in accounting and finance. He was also a recipient of the prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship following his time at Ball State and earned his MBA from Kentucky in 2018.

Nelson resides with his husband, Mark, and their dog, Cali in Nashville.

Why Vanderbilt?

“I chose Vanderbilt because of the coaching staff, the city of Nashville, the high academics and the vision of the new program. I think it would be hard for someone to pass up an opportunity to build a volleyball program from the ground up with the resources and support Vanderbilt Athletics has to offer. We get to set the culture for future teams to come, and that’s what I am most excited for.”

- Mother, Rebecca, played volleyball at Georgia
- Sister, Layne, plays volleyball at Augusta
- Cousin, Greg Hall Jr., played football at Appalachian State and Auburn

Why Vanderbilt?

“I chose Vanderbilt, because as cliché as it sounds, Nashville felt like home. I knew that the coaching staff supported me throughout my recruiting process. I wanted to challenge myself athletically but also academically, and Vanderbilt has a huge reputation for their academics and that drew me to the program. Both my parents played in the SEC, and I’ve always been drawn to play in that conference, because as they say, ‘it just means more.’ I knew that I wasn’t going to get the opportunity to be a part of a new program at a school with such high expectations anywhere else, and that new opportunity to help grow something new also is what made me choose Vanderbilt.”
