Wednesday, landing at No. 9 in the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Poll.

- The program's previous best was set in 1997 where it landed at No. 13. It marks the Aggies' first appearance in the preseason poll since 2016 when the group was tabbed at No. 16.

DYNAMIC DUO

- Texas A&M senior standouts Logan Lednický and Ifenna Cos-Okpalla both garnered a pair of preseason honors, as they were named to the AVCA Player of the Year Watch List and Preseason All-SEC Team.
- Lednický is coming off a stellar junior campaign where she recorded the second-highest kills per set (4.47) and third-highest kill total (492) in a single season in A&M history during the rally-scoring era. The Sugar Land, Texas, native recorded 20+ kills in eight matches, including three straight in the Maroon & White's three NCAA Tournament matches, a feat only two athletes in the tournament accomplished.
- Cos-Okpalla proved herself as a versatile weapon in her third collegiate season, blocking 161 swings on the year and averaging 1.46 a set, which rank second and third, respectively, in the Maroon & White's history books. On the offensive side of the net, the Flower Mound, Texas, native crushed 228 kills, which is more than her previous two seasons combined. Cos-Okpalla's efficiency also jumped off the page, as she hit at .374 percent across the year which ranks seventh on A&M's all-time list.
- The duo also garnered AVCA All-America honors and were both named to the All-SEC First Team following last year's performances.

LEDNICKY ON THE WORLD STAGE

- Logan Lednický received her first senior-national team call up for the United States, as she was named to the Volleyball Nation's League roster for the opening two weeks in Brazil and Serbia.
- She competed in seven of the eight matches over the two weeks, tallying 43 points on 38 kills and five blocks, while adding 26 digs.
- Lednický's senior-team call up marked the first for an Aggies since Stacy Sykora's in 2011.

U23 MVP

- Texas A&M's Ifenna Cos-Okpalla shined on her international debut, as she and the United States National Team won the U23 Pan American Cup.
- Cos-Okpalla was the Red, White and Blue's standout player, as she was named tournament MVP and Blocker of the Tournament after the gold-medal match.
- Throughout the championships she racked up 51 points on 31 kills, 17 blocks and three aces. The senior's breakout match came against Mexico in the pool play stage, as she recorded her first international double-double with 12 blocks and 11 kills.

- Head coach Jamie Morrison continued his international dominance, as he led the women's U19 United States national team to its fourth-straight international title after winning the Pan American Cup.
- Morrison's squad hit the ground running in the pool play of the championships, going a perfect 3-0 and dropping only one frame. They carried their momentum into the penultimate round to capture their third sweep of the tournament to advance to the gold-medal match.
- The group closed the championships with a competitive three-set victory over Mexico for the second time at the tournament. Morrison's squad played with a lead for the majority of the match, trailing in just nine of the 139 total points played in the fixture.

REGULAR SEASON WRAP UP

- The Maroon & White are coming off a 19-win regular season, including a 10-6 conference ledger. The 10 wins is the highest total in league play since the 2019 season and included a pair of ranked victories over then-No. 7 Texas and then-No. 24 Auburn.

3RD YEAR AT TEXAS A&M | 19 YEARS COACHING

USAVolleyball

INSTANT IMPACT

- Jamie Morrison enters his third season leading the Texas A&M volleyball program, already guiding the team to two NCAA Tournament appearances and one trip to the Sweet 16.
- He boasts a 37-21 record at Texas A&M, including an 18-16 ledger in league play. His leadership booked A&M's spots in back-to-back NCAA Tournaments, marking the first repeat berths since the 2016 season. During his time with the Aggies, he has produced a pair of AVCA All-Americans, as well as four AVCA All-District and four All-SEC selections.
- Morrison led the Aggies to a 21-8 record in the 2024 season, marking the program's highest win total since 2019. He also recorded a 10-6 finish in SEC play to rank fifth in the league, which was also the best team result since the 2019 season. Morrison and the Aggies defended home court throughout the year, boasting a 10-3 ledger at Reed Arena. His team got off to a historic start during the campaign, winning their first eight matches which tied for the third-best start to a season in program history.

ON THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

- Winning at the highest level is something Morrison is accustomed to, as he served as a coach on three separate Olympic-medal winning staffs for the USA men's and women's volleyball teams. He claimed his first medal at the 2008 Games in Beijing, China, with the men's national team, bringing home the gold medal. He then switched over to the women's national team, securing silver in London (2012), followed by bronze in Rio (2016).
- Morrison was selected to lead the women's junior national team for the fourth-consecutive year. He took over the reigns in 2021, where he led the U18 women's team to a bronze-medal showing at the FIVB U18 World Championships in Durango, Mexico. He went a step further as he and the U19 women's team claimed gold at the U19 Pan American Cup in 2022 and U19 2023 FIVB World Championships.
- Most recently, he added a fourth-consecutive title at the U19 NORCECA Pan American Cup. The team won all three of its matches in pool play and held that momentum, as it won its semifinal matchup versus the Dominican Republic and ensured the tournament title with a sweep in the final versus Mexico.
