Current Streak: N/A

AWAY STREAK: L1

Current Streak: Cal won last 5

Current Streak: Cal won last 5

Cal won its first two sets against Wright State but dropped the next three, leading to its first loss of the season. Peyton DeJardin and Mikayla Hayden paced the team with 13 kills apiece, while Sawyer Thomsen collected a career-high 10 kills with zero errors, hitting .475 on the match. Natalie Lau posted the Bears' first double-double of the year, earning 43 assists and 15 digs.

For the second straight year, Cal challenged a No. 1 team on the road and subsequently fell in straight sets to Nebraska. DeJardin led the Bears again with seven kills, while Thomsen posted six. Freshmen Arissa Carbonara (two aces) and Francesca Popescu (nine digs) led the team in a statistical category for the first time this season.

MIDDLES ON TOP

The Bears are fielding four formidable middle blockers in 2025. Senior Mikayla Hayden – one of Cal’s top all-around players – will look to take another step forward this fall after posting the 12th-best hitting percentage in the ACC (.324) as a junior and leading the Bears in blocks in each of her first two seasons. Junior Sawyer Thomsen is coming off a career year in which she started all 31 matches and had the most total blocks (111) by a Cal player since 2013, including an 11-block outing in the season finale against Notre Dame. Redshirt junior Sophie Scott lost the entire 2024 season to injury but has been impressive for the Bears when healthy, including a 100-block season in 2022 for a top-eight Pac-12 ranking. Finally, newcomer Ashleigh Woodruff (a junior transfer from Stony Brook) had a promising start to her sophomore year with the Seawolves before an injury forced her to sit out the season after just one game, in which she posted 10 kills and four blocks.

SISTER, SISTER

Senior setter Natalie Lau, who started the 2024 season on the bench but became Cal’s starting setter after five games due to her teammate’s season-ending injury, is joined by her sister Elise Lau (a freshman defensive specialist) on the court as one of just two pairs of sisters on the same Power 4 team this season. The Brisbane natives, who played high school ball for St. Ignatius and club ball for Vision, grew up as Cal fans, attending as many volleyball, football and basketball games as they could and dreaming of one day representing the Blue & Gold. According to head coach Jen Malcom, the Laus are “two of the most competitive players on our team.” This will be the first year that they have played on any team together, having grown up too far apart in age to be part of the same high school or club squads.

NEW BEARS ON THE BLOCK

Cal brings seven new players to its roster this season in the form of five freshmen and two transfers, making up nearly half of the Bears’ squad. The first-year players are composed of defensive specialists Francesca Popescu (Johns Creek, Georgia) and Elise Lau (Brisbane), outside hitter Arissa Carbonara (Cuero, Texas), opposite Annemarie O’Gara (Phoenix, Arizona) and setter Maria Știrbu (Bucharest, Romania). Between them, they bring national team experience (Știrbu), two All-America honors (Popescu), a national title (O’Gara), three All-State honors (Carbonara, Popescu) and a tournament title (Lau). The transfers, sophomore outside hitter Dominique Phills (Iowa) and junior middle blocker Ashleigh Woodruff (Stony Brook), will each bring valuable experience to the young roster, bolstering positions that will have at least one player graduating at the end of this season.
