SCOUTING VANDERBILT

The Commodores revived its volleyball program after a 45-year hiatus and while they enter the match at 5-11 and 1-6 in SEC play, they have been a pesky opponent for many in the SEC. Lead by first year head coach Anders Nelson, Vanderbilt took LSU to five sets on Friday and has delivered some standout performances in conference play, taking sets at Florida, Auburn and against Oklahoma, while earning a comfortable sweep of Arkansas. Princeton transfer Kamryn Chaney is the biggest offensive threat, averaging 3.52 kills per set, while Jackie Moore is another name to watch at 2.98 kills per set and a sterling .370 hitting percentage.

SERIES HISTORY

Ole Miss and Vanderbilt are set to face off on the volleyball court for the first time since 1979. The two have only played once before ever, in that 1979 season, with Ole Miss claiming a 2-1 victory.

Vanderbilt’s volleyball program has been reinstated after a 45-year hiatus. The program was re-established in 2022 with its first official season taking place in 2025. This is the first match between the programs as SEC foes.

LAST TIME OUT

Despite 17 kills from Gabi Placide to lead all players, the Rebels were unable to break through against Missouri, falling 3-0 on Friday evening in Columbia. Placide recorded one of her best matches in SEC play, hitting .286, but the Rebels fell into an early hole that they could not recover from. The Rebels mounted a comeback attempt, hitting .261 as a unit in the third set, but the Tigers held off the charge in the end.

AT EASE WITH PLACIDE

Gabi Placide has become the SEC’s breakout star since arriving in Oxford this season and will be a critical part of the Rebels lineup as SEC play continues.

Placide has surged to the forefront of the national rankings, ranking second in the SEC with 345.0 points and 303 kills, ranking 17th and 21st nationally, respectively. The Centennial, Colo., native also ranks 14th nationally in points per set and 17th nationally in kills per set.

Her efforts earned her a mid-season addition to the AVCA’s Player of the Year Watch List. Placide also recently took home SEC Co-Offensive Player of the Week honors following back-to-back career-highs in wins over Texas Tech and UAlbany and hit over .300 for the weekend. Placide also showed off her athleticism with 22 digs and 11.0 blocks to go alongside 71 kills.

CAN YOU DIG IT?

Senior libero Cammy Niesen made history on Sunday, smashing the program’s all-eras dig record that stood for 14 years (by Morgan Springer). The 2024 SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year has been a model of consistency her entire career and is now poised to add to her all-time lead as SEC play continues.

Niesen has quietly emerged as one of the best liberos in the SEC over her dynamic career as she closes in on the all-time SEC top-10. Niesen is 77 away from entering the top-10 in conference history.

Last season, Niesen led the SEC in total digs with 537, which also ranked 33rd in the nation. This season, Niesen continues to impact the game, ranking second in the SEC in digs per set (4.22).

In fact, Niesen ranks sixth in the NCAA on the active digs leaderboard with 1,678.

TRANSFER TO THE SIP

Head coach Bre Henry and her staff were active in the transfer portal this offseason, landing several big names in an effort to reload following the graduation of several program legends (Sasha Ratliff & Payton Brgoch).

The most notable addition was All-Big Sky hitter and former Big Sky Freshman of the Year Gabi Placide, who joins the program with two seasons of eligibility remaining after opening her career at Northern Colorado. Over two seasons at UNC, Placide recorded 739 kills, 248 digs, 150 blocks, 40 aces and 15 assists.

Joining Placide is middle blocker Jordyn Towns, who makes the move over from Alabama to join the Rebels for her final two collegiate seasons. The 6'6" Towns becomes the tallest Rebel in program history. Over two seasons at Alabama, Towns tallied 195 kills and 82.0 total blocks to lead the Crimson Tide block.

Former Cal State Bakersfield setter Vivianna Samaniego and Kankakee Community College standout hitter Aniya Lewis round out the transfer class, with both having three seasons of eligibility remaining.

MOKI MAGIC

Setter Mokihana Tufono was named to the All-SEC Preseason Team after a dynamic junior season and has only elevated her game in year two as a Rebel. Despite some recent struggles by the Rebels, Tufono continues to be a bright spot, leading the SEC in total assists at 690 and ranking 15th nationally.

Tufono has been the catalyst for Gabi Placide's breakout campaign as a pin and has recorded two, 50-assist matches this season. Additionally, Tufono has taken strides on the defensive end, recording the first 40-assist, 20-dig match of her career at Mississippi State, exploding for 47 assists and a career-high 22 digs. Tufono's huge two seasons at Ole Miss have landed her in the top-10 all-time as a Rebel.

LONG BEACH CONNECTION

Head coach Bre Henry and associate head coach Taylor Gregory have a special connection. The two have been friends since they met at Long Beach State, where they both played volleyball collegiately. Henry, a four year starter, was a member of the 2013 NCAA National Championship team in beach volleyball and earned All-American honors in 2014. Gregory was a two-time All-American and three-time All-Conference honoree who finished his career as one of the most decorated middle blockers in program history with 500 total blocks.

Henry and Gregory both met their spouses, John and Delainey, who also played volleyball. Now, over 10 years later, their paths have crossed again in Oxford as Henry and Gregory are coaching together and raising their children.

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS

Throughout the entirety of the 2025 season, Ole Miss athletics and the volleyball program will honor and recognize many who have contributed to the success and legacy of the program over 50 years of volleyball.

The program has tallied over 800 wins, reached five NCAA Tournaments and won the 2017 NIVC championship. Nineteen student-athletes have earned All-SEC honors, 16 have earned AVCA All-Region and three have been named All-Americans as the program has blossomed over generations of standout student-athletes.

CLIMBING THE LADDER

Several Rebels are poised to etch their names in the all-time record books in 2025 across multiple different metrics.

In addition to clinching the all-eras digs record at Ole Miss, Cammy Niesen is also poised to enter the top-10 all-time in service aces, with 67 in her career. That stands just two outside the rally scoring era’s top-10. Shayla Meyer recorded a career-high four service aces at Missouri to move into the rally scoring era top-10 with 69 in her career. Meyer needs just one more ace to move into sole possession of 10th and needs just two to move into a tie for ninth.

Mokihana Tufono continues her rapid ascent of the assists charts in her short time at Ole Miss. Tufono currently sits fifth all-time in the rally scoring era with 1,863 and 10th across all eras, despite only playing just 46 matches as a Rebel.

BRE HENRY

THE SCOOP

With national championship pedigree as both an athlete and coach, Bre Henry leads the Ole Miss Rebels volleyball program in her third full season as head coach in 2025.

Over the course of her eight seasons as a graduate assistant, assistant coach and head coach, Henry helped produce five All-Americans, 16 All-Region honorees and won the 2017 NCAA crown with Nebraska. Throughout her entire career, she has either been mentored by or worked alongside some of the top coaches in the nation, such as John Cook (Nebraska), Matt Ulmer (Oregon) and Erin Lindsey (Santa Clara), among others.

In her first full season as head coach and second with the Rebels, Henry changed the culture of the program. She created an environment where student-athletes and staff became a family and fell in love with the game of volleyball while still competing at a high level in the SEC.

Henry was the architect of a historic 2024 season, in which the Rebels went 18-12 with a 7-9 mark in SEC play and won the program's first ever NCAA Tournament match. The Rebels achieved countless success stories, culminating in the first round victory over No. 21 Florida State in Omaha, Nebraska. Henry helped guide Nia Washington to new heights in 2024, as Washington was named an AVCA All-American Honorable Mention, AVCA All-South Region and All-SEC honoree. It marked another transfer success story under Henry, alongside the development of first year Rebel setter Mokihana Tufono, who also earned AVCA All-South Region honors and recorded a sensational 1,173 assists in her first season in Oxford. Defensively, Henry oversaw another huge year from the blocking duo of Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch. Ratliff finished her career as the program's all-time leading blocker, while Brgoch took home AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention honors as she set a new single-season total block record in the rally scoring era with 134.0. Cammy Niesen also shined under Henry, leading the SEC with 537 digs, while moving into third all-time in program history in just three seasons.

The Rebels made waves in the SEC, earning several big wins. Henry and the Rebels erased losing streaks against traditional powers Arkansas and Tennessee that predated her arrival, while extending the program's longest winning streak against LSU since 1997-98. The Rebels rode a balanced lineup that led the SEC in total digs (1,732), ranked second in blocks (238.0), ranked third in kills (1,578) and ranked third in assists (1,482) into the NCAA Tournament, where Henry's team etched their names into the record books.

In 2023, the Rebels finished with an 11-18 record, including a 5-13 mark in conference play. Under Henry, the Ole Miss offense saw seven Rebels finish the season with over 100 kills, including four with over 200. Among those with offensive success were Anna Bair, who wrapped her Ole Miss career with the fifth most kills by any player in school history, and Julia Dyess, who led the Rebels in kills in SEC play and finished with a breakout junior season. She helped Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch rank inside the top five in hitting percentage in the SEC while recording 100 blocks. The two middle blockers also entered the top five in program history in total blocks with a chance to be the two best to ever wear a Rebel uniform at their position.

Ole Miss saw vast improvements defensively after ranking last in the SEC and 302nd nationally in opponent hitting percentage and 10th in digs per set a season ago. In 2023, Henry and defensive coach Taylor Gregory guided a defense that averaged 13.95 digs per set, the third-best mark in the SEC. Cammy Niesen ranked third in the conference with her 4.04 digs per set to lead the way. In total, the Rebels featured one of the stingiest defenses in the SEC, holding their opponents to a .210 hitting percentage (fifth-best in the SEC).

Henry joined the Ole Miss staff as assistant coach prior to the 2022 season and was named acting head coach for the final 11 matches. After a national search in the offseason, she was the clear choice to guide the Rebel volleyball team into the future and was named permanent head coach on Friday, Dec. 9, 2022, by Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics Keith Carter.

Working primarily as the defensive coordinator until her promotion, Henry helped middle blocker Sasha Ratliff earn her second All-SEC and AVCA South All-Region nod and guided Payton Brgoch to the fourth-most blocks in a single season in program history. She was also instrumental in the growth of a young Rebel team that saw three freshmen see significant playing time at setter, libero and outside hitter. Under her guidance, they garnered multiple SEC weekly honors, and Aly Borellis was named to the All-SEC Freshman Team.

Prior to arriving at Ole Miss, Henry spent three seasons as an assistant at Santa Clara. During her time with the Broncos, Santa Clara produced three AVCA All-Region selections, 12 All-WCC accolades and 10 WCC all-academic nods. A proven defensive mind, Santa Clara led the WCC and ranked 10th nationally with 326.5 total blocks.

Henry began her coaching career as a graduate assistant with one of the nation's elite programs at Nebraska. In two seasons, the Huskers went 62-11, winning the 2017 NCAA title and finishing as runner-up in 2018 while producing four All-Americans and six all-conference selections.

A former standout student-athlete at Long Beach State, Henry played both indoor and beach volleyball, earning ACVA All-American Honors for the 2014 indoor season and winning the 2013 beach National Championship. She helped lead the 49ers to a 27-5 record and a perfect 16-0 mark in the Big West Conference during her senior campaign. After graduating, Henry continued her playing career professionally in the Philippines and Switzerland in 2015 and 2016.

A Redding, California, native, Henry studied kinesiology as an undergraduate student at Long Beach State before earning a master's in sports and exercise psychology from Argosy University in 2016 and a master's in education administration from Nebraska in 2017.

Henry and her husband John reside in Oxford with their children, Quinn and Jones.
