KENTUCKY WOMEN'S SOCCER

25
25O, CANADA

Freshman GK Khadijah Cissé has been named to the Canada U-17 WNT for the 2025 FIFA Women's World Cup in Morocco from October 17-November 8. The Montreal native helped her squad qualify at 2025 CONCACAF Qualifiers and won also bronze at the 2024 CONCACAF U-17 Championship. Cissé comes to Kentucky by way of CF Montreal Academy.

THREE-HEADED MONSTER

Kentucky is one of three schools in the country with three players with at least 15 points scored. Alexis Tylenda (6G, 3A), Anna Sikorski (6G, 3A), and Catherine Rapp (5G, 5A) all have scored 15 points this season and rank in the SEC's top ten.

CORNER KICK, KENTUCKY!

Kentucky is currently leading the country in corner kicks per game, averaging 8.92 tries in each match. The Cats have a season high of 18 corner kicks, achieved twice this year, and have earned 116 corners this season.

THE POWERHOUSE

Kentucky is ranked in the NCAA's top ten in multiple offensive categories: goals, shots, points, corner kicks, and goal differential. Kentucky is first in the NCAA in corner kicks/game (8.92), tenth in goal differential (+22), and 11th in total goals (31). The Cats are also 21st in total points (83).

UPSET ALERT

With wins over No. 20 Oklahoma and No. 25 Alabama, Kentucky has defeated multiple top 25 teams in the same season for the first time under Fabiano and the first time since 2014. Kentucky is 2-2 against ranked teams in 2025.

BREAKING BOUNDARIES

With three wins in its first four SEC matches, the Wildcats are off to the program's best league start since 2013. Kentucky has already matched the most SEC wins in a season under Fabiano (3-3-4 in '23 + '24) and is only three points shy of matching the best mark under the current staff, still with six matches to play.

IT JUST MEANS MORE HISTORY

Kentucky's 2-1 win over No. 20 Oklahoma in its SEC opener was a historic step for Fabiano's club, as it marked the program's first SEC-opening win since 2015. Fabiano is now 1-1-2 in league lid-lifters.

LOCKDOWN D

Kentucky has held opponents to five or fewer shots in seven matches this season, including a zero shots allowed performance against UWG. Kentucky has only allowed more than ten shots one time this season. The Cats lead the SEC with only 71 shots conceded this season.

BALL HOGS

Kentucky has won the possession battle in all but one match this season (Georgia). The Cats controlled a season-high 72% of possession against Mercyhurst and have totaled at least 60% in seven matches.

FROM THE SPOT

Kentucky leads the nation with nine penalty kicks drawn this season, scoring seven times in nine tries. No other team has more than six. From the spot, Anna Sikorski and Gani Poretto are both a perfect 3/3 while Cat Rapp is 1/2 and Sophie Harlan is 0/1.

OUT THE GATES

Kentucky has scored in the first ten minutes of the match in six matches this season, including a first minute goal against UWG.

SHARING THE LOVE

Tanner Strickland has notched five assists this year, ranking her fourth in the SEC. Strickland is seventh in the SEC in active career assists, sitting at 10. Strickland has also aided her team in other ways, drawing a penalty kick in six matches this year, including the game winners against Mizzou and No. 25 Alabama.

FAMILIAR FOES

Kentucky will play five opponents this season that have matched up with the Cats in each of Fabiano's previous three seasons: Georgia, Florida, Vanderbilt, South Carolina, and LSU. Entering 2025, Fabiano owns his best record against LSU (1-1-1), while also boasting a win over Vanderbilt (1-2-0). Fabiano is looking for his first career win over Georgia (0-3-1), Florida (0-0-3), and South Carolina (0-2-1).

WHAT IS THIS FEELING?

Kentucky's 2-1 loss to Illinois was an uncharacteristic performance on multiple levels. It was the first home loss for Kentucky since October 2023 vs. Mississippi State, snapping an unbeaten streak of 19 straight home contests. It was also the first time since that MSU match in 2023 that UK conceded multiple times at the Bell. Finally, it was the first regular season non-conference loss at home under Fabiano and just the second defeat in that category in his four seasons.

BREAKOUT THREATS

Four Wildcats have surpassed their career goal total entering 2025 with their goal total during the current season. Alexis Tylenda entered the year with three career goals and has doubled that mark so far this year. Anna Sikorski, Tanner Strickland, and Skye Leach previously had only scored one collegiate goal and have all become multi-goal scorers in the 2025 season alone.

BRACE FOR IMPACT

A Kentucky player has scored a brace four times this season. Alexis Tylenda leads the team with two multi-goal matches, coming in back-to-back outings against UWG and ETSU. Anna Sikorski scored the Cats' first brace of the year against Jackson State and Cat Rapp added her brace against PFW.

RECORD START

The Wildcats scored 21 goals through the first five matches of the season, a new program record. The previous best goal total through five contests was 16 goals in 2005.

PERFECT START

Alexis Tylenda was able to convert each of her first five shots on frame this season into goals, helping her score five times in the first three matches. It was not until the fourth match of the year against Detroit Mercy when a Tylenda SOG was saved.

IN GOAL

Khadijah Cissé and Megan Holland have split time in goal this season. Cissé started the first six matches before Holland started the most recent two. Cissé has played the only five complete games from Kentucky keepers this year, including all four SEC matches.

FULL 90

In the matches where Kentucky has elected to use players for a full 90 minutes, Katherine Truitt and Skye Leach have played the complete game in all eight. In total, seven players have compiled at least one match of 90 minutes.

T-MO GOALS

Senior Thalia Morisi enjoyed a productive opening weekend, scoring once in each match for the first goals in her Wildcat career. A two-year player at Old Dominion before her time in Lexington, Morisi is now third on the team in career goals scored with eight, only trailing Rapp at 13 and Tylenda at 9.

SENIOR DAY STARS

Three different seniors scored the first three goals for Kentucky in its 7-0 Senior Day win over West Georgia. Thalia Morisi, Skye Leach, and Catherine Rapp all found the back of the net, with the latter two scoring their first goal as a Wildcat. Rapp also added two assists in the match.

WELCOME BACK

Graduate student Dana Dahm officially made her return to the pitch on Thursday, playing 19 minutes against Jackson State. Dahm started her first 11 games as a Wildcat in 2022 before suffering a season-ending injury. Dahm would also suffer season-ending injuries that derailed her 2023 and 2024 seasons.

HISTORIC 2024

Last season, Kentucky Women's Soccer experienced the program's most successful season in a decade. Some highlights include:

- First NCAA Tournament Appearance since 2014 (No. 5 Seed)
- Hosted First Round of NCAA Tournament
- Advanced to Second Round of NCAA Tournament by defeating West Virginia in PKs
- Undefeated home season (9-0-4)
- 11 wins (Most since 2014)
- Second straight SEC Tournament appearance
- Def. No. 9 UCLA (second Top-10 win of Fabiano era)

DEFENDING THE BELL

Kentucky concluded the 2024 season undefeated at home with a 9-0-4 record. It was just the second undefeated season at home in program history and first since 2011. The Cats have only lost at home once in the past three seasons and Fabiano has a career record of 31-7-7 (.767) in matches at the Bell.

HEAD BALL COACH

Head Coach Troy Fabiano boasts the fourth best winning percentage amongst active Division I coaches at .736. Fabiano won his 350th career match as a head coach with a 4-0 win over Tennessee to close the 2024 regular season. Additionally, Fabiano's 11 wins from a season ago were his most at Kentucky to date.

LOST PRODUCTION

The Cats have to replace 7 starters from the historic 2024 squad, including SEC Newcomer of the Year with All-SEC First Team forward Makala Woods, All-SEC First Team defender Grace Phillpotts, and All-SEC Third Team Maddie Kemp. Another departed player of note is goalkeeper Marz Josephson, who minded the net for the Cats for the last two seasons. 25 of the 32 goals scored, 14 of 21 assists, and all 1,900+ minutes of goalkeeping by Kentucky players from last year have graduated.

NON-CON CATS

Kentucky has gone undefeated in the regular season non-conference portion of its schedule in each of the past two seasons. In 2024, the Cats completed a perfect 8-0-0 slate before the SEC season to complement a 7-0-1 mark in 2023. Overall, Fabiano's squads at Kentucky are 28-3-1 in regular season non-conference play.

FAST STARTS

Each of the past two seasons, Kentucky has gone deep into the season without sustaining a defeat. In 2024, the Cats were unbeaten through their first nine matches. The Wildcats began the 2023 season unbeaten through their first 13 matches for the first time in program history. The previous record was 11 straight results to start the 2005 season. That same year, Kentucky also went without a loss through its first six SEC matches of the year, tying a 2003 program record for the most matches without a defeat to begin SEC play.

BACK LINE BOOST

Much of Kentucky's success in the past two seasons can be attributed to wonderful defending and goalkeeping. Across 2023 and 2024, the Cats shut out their opponents 18 times and only allowed one goal 17 times. Opponents have only been able to score multiple goals on the Cats just five times since the start of 2023.

THE BELL

Kentucky opens its 11th season at the Bell this year since the facility was constructed in 2014. The Wildcats opened the 2014 season with a 5-0 win over Francis Marion. Kentucky has accumulated a program record of 74-40-15 at the Bell.

GATORADE PLAYER OF THE YEAR X3

The 2025 roster boasts three Wildcats who earned Gatorade Player of the Year honors in their prep careers. Senior Mallory Glass was the Kentucky GPOY in 2020-21, sophomore Anna Sikorski won the 2022-23 and 2023-24 award for Wisconsin, freshman Teagan Myers was named the 2024-25 Colorado POY.

REPRESENTING THE U.S.A.

27 members of Kentucky's roster this season are from the United States with two current members (Glass and Truitt) coming from the state of Kentucky. The squad represents 14 of the 50 states with the most coming from New York (4). The remainder represent Illinois (3), Pennsylvania (3), California (2), Colorado (2), Florida (2), Texas (2), Wisconsin (2), Georgia (1), Ohio (1), Missouri (1), North Carolina (1), and South Carolina (1).

YOUNG CATS

The Wildcats feature a young roster compared to seasons past. 15 of the 29 players (10 freshman, 5 transfers) are new to the program and 19 of the 29 squad members are underclassmen.

ACROSS THE POND

Freshman M Elkie Bowyer comes to the Bluegrass with some serious accolades. Once a member of the England U-16 YNT, Bowyer has senior club experience playing for Watford and Ipswich Town, including winning the FA Women's National League with the latter.

PORTAL POWER

Kentucky has brought in five transfers to the 2025 squad, all bringing coveted experience and accolades to a young roster. MF Skye Leach (Baylor) and MF Sophie Harlan (Kansas State) started every match in 2024 for their respective Big 12 squads, while MF Mimi Dominguez (UC Riverside) and F Kendall Campbell (Washington State) earned All-Conference Freshman Team honors last year. MF Catherine Rapp helped FIU complete the CUSA double in 2024 and was named to the All-CUSA Second Team and the All-CUSA Tournament Team.

PRO CATS

11 former Wildcats are currently playing professionally around the world. In the United States, Arin (Gilliland) Wright ('14) is the captain of NWSL side Racing Louisville, while Sophia Mattice ('24) plays for Angel City FC, Hannah Richardson ('22) is a member of Lexington SC, Julia Grosso ('21) is at FTL United, and Grace Phillpotts ('24) and Maddie Kemp ('24) are with Sporting JAX. In Iceland, Makala Woods ('24) plays for UMF Tindastoll, Jordyn Rhodes ('23) is with Valur Reykjavik, and Ulfa Ulfarsdottir is a member of Stjarnan FC. In the Philippines, Mia Bookhard ('24) recently signed with Stallion Laguna FC.

PK PROWESS

In each of the last two seasons, Kentucky has earned a postseason advancement in penalty shootouts. In 2023, the Cats advanced to the SEC Quarterfinals by knocking out LSU, 4-2. In 2024, Kentucky defended the Bell in the opening match of the NCAA Tournament by toppling West Virginia via the same scoreline.

START 'EM YOUNG

Two members of the Wildcat roster boast SEC All-Freshman Team accolades. MF Tanner Strickland picked up the honor in 2023 and F Alexis Tylenda matched those efforts in 2024.

KENTUCKY'S COACHING STAFF

Now in his fourth year at the helm of Kentucky women's soccer, Troy Fabiano is joined by returning assistant Steve Golas and assistants Maddie Dobyns and Jelena Sever.

Golas spent six seasons alongside Fabiano in Milwaukee serving as Assistant Coach from 2015-18 and then again from 2020-2021. During this time, the Panthers won five conference titles and won three conference tournament championships. In 2019, Golas held the head coaching position at Dixie State, leading the Trailblazers to a 12-4-6 record and their second NCAA DII Tournament appearance in program history. Golas hails originally from Sandwich, Mass. and played collegiately at Coe College.

Dobyns arrived in Lexington after spending two seasons with the Iowa State Cyclones. She previously coached at the University of Cincinnati as well as at her alma mater, the University of Kansas. As a coach in Ames, Dobyns worked with former ISU keeper, Jordan Silkowitz, who was selected by the Kansas City Current with the 18th overall pick in the 2023 NWSL Draft. Dobyns played her collegiate soccer at Kansas from 2013-17, appearing in 60 matches and helping KU reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2016. She left the program ranked second in goals against average (1.06), third in shutouts (14) and fourth in wins (29).

Sever begins her first stint as a coach following her collegiate career playing under Fabiano in Milwaukee. Sever scored 24 goals across her four years of college soccer, winning four Horizon League titles and making four NCAA Tournament appearances. She was a three-time All-Horizon League selection and is known for scoring the fastest goal in NCAA soccer history just 3.2 seconds into Milwaukee's game against Youngstown State in 2018. Post college, Sever played for ZFK Spartak in Serbia for one season, winning the title in the Super Liga, the top Serbian League.

TROY FABIANO FILE

DID YOU KNOW?

- A native of Kenosha, Wisconsin
- Was twice named All-Northeast Conference First Team as a player at Robert Morris
- Earned Northeast Conference Player of the Year as a senior in 1993, leading the conference with 19 goals and 43 points.
- Was inducted into the RMU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001
- Led UW-Parkside to 16 straight winning seasons during his 17 years as head coach of the Rangers, including eight NCAA DII Tournament appearances and five Great Lakes Valley Conference championships
- Coached Milwaukee to six Horizon League regular-season titles during seven-year tenure and four conference tournament championships.
- Fabiano's Panthers posted five undefeated seasons in conference action, going unbeaten for a span of 1,617 days.
- Under Fabiano's guidance, Milwaukee compiled a 16-0-4 mark in 2018, the lone undefeated record in the nation
- During his time at Milwaukee, Fabiano saw 23-student-athletes land on the All-Horizon League First Team, 15 on the Second Team and 11 on the All-Freshman Team. A total of 17 players were also named to United Soccer Coaches All-Region teams, while one earned All-American status.
- Between 2017-21, Fabiano led the Panthers to a ledger of 77-7-7, the best win-loss record of any team across NCAA DI soccer during that five-year span.
- Is the fourth head coach in Kentucky Women's Soccer history following Warren Lipka, Jon Lipsitz and Ian Carry.
