REGULAR SEASON WRAP UP

- The Maroon & White closed the regular season with a 22-3 record, marking the programs best start since 1984. The group also captured five ranked wins throughout the year, including the highest ranked home win in program history in a five-set thriller versus then No. 2 Texas. Texas A&M also concluded the season on a 10-game win streak which marks the longest undefeated run since 2015 and is one of only 12 10-match winning streaks in program history.
- The Aggies logged their best conference finish since 2015, finishing second with a 14-1 ledger. The programs record correlated to a .933 winning percentage which is the highest in school history, including the year they won the conference in 2015. Texas A&M made sure to put away opponents early and often in the conference slate, securing a SEC-high nine sweeps.
- A&M's success was reflected across the league's postseason awards, as the Maroon & White landed a conference-high four athletes on the All-SEC First Team. Logan Lednický, Ifenna Cos-Okpalla, Maddie Waak and Kyndal Stowers each earned recognition.

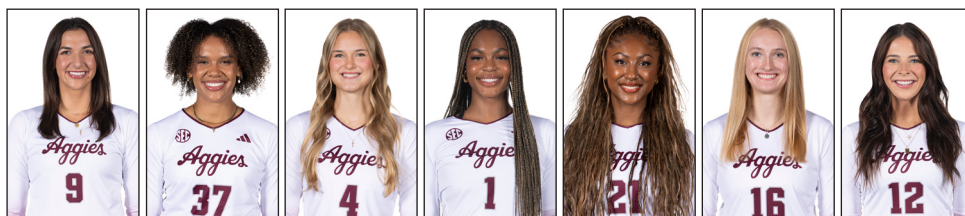

THE MATCHUP

- Texas A&M faces off versus Vanderbilt for only the second time in the program's history. The first meeting came in both programs second conference game of the season, where the Aggies put on a dominant performance at Reed Arena, capturing a 3-0 sweep.
- Vanderbilt opened its tournament campaign Friday, securing a win over Mississippi State (3-0) and followed that up Saturday downing Georgia (3-1) to ensure their spot in the next round. The Commodores now hold a 9-17 ledger this season and finished conference play at 3-12.
- On the stat sheet at the conclusion of the regular season, the Maroon & White lead the Commodores in hitting percentage, opponent hitting percentage, kills per set, assists per set, digs per set and blocks per set, while Vanderbilt has a slight upper hand in aces per set.

TRACKS & TRENDS

- Ifenna Cos-Okpalla is four blocks from reaching 150 on the season, if she reaches the milestone, it will mark her third-straight season eclipsing the number which would make her the first Aggie to do so since 1985.
- Logan Lednický recorded double digit kills in all 15 conference matches this season.
- The Aggies have recorded three-straight games hitting over .300 percent.

HISTORIC REGULAR SEASON

- Texas A&M's regular-season campaign was one for the history books, as the Aggies capped the slate with a 22-3 record. The ledger was the best in program history since 1984 where they had the exact record through 25 games.
- The Maroon & White won five ranked matchups through their first 25 fixtures of the season, headlined by their highest ranked home win in program history in a five-set thriller versus then-No. 2 Texas.
- Ending the year on a hot streak, the Aggies ripped off 10-straight wins to ensure their best start in 41 years. The streak marks the longest undefeated run since 2015 and is one of only 12 10-match winning streaks in program history.

STANDING OUT IN THE SEC

- The Maroon & White had a conference slate to remember, finishing the year second in the conference standings, their best finish since 2015, with a 14-1 record.
- Texas A&M's 14-1 ledger correlates to a .933 winning percentage which is the highest in program history, including the year the won the regular season in 2015. The Aggies also are the first team since 2003 with one conference loss to not at least split the regular-season title.
- Consistency has been key in the Aggies' success, as they took early leads and held them to record a conference high nine sweeps on the year.

ALL-SEC AGGIES

- The Aggies captured a league-leading four spots on the All-SEC First Team in the annual postseason awards.
- Logan Lednicky captured her fourth-straight all-conference honor, leading the Maroon & White in kills (333) and points (381.0) during the regular season. The senior hit at .312 percent on the year while logging seven games at over a .400 clip including a career high .606 percent versus Arkansas in a 3-0 sweep. She added 67 blocks on the defensive side of the net, as well as turning in 236 digs which propelled her to 10 double-doubles this season.
- Ifenna Cos-Okpalla ensured back-to-back All-SEC recognition, standing out as the premier middle blocker in the league. She led the conference in blocks for the third-straight year with 146 and added 184 kills at a staggering .441 clip. She added a new wrinkle to her game from the service line resulting in a team-high 31 aces, with all this equating to 295.5 points.
- Maddie Waak secured her first postseason SEC honor, orchestrating the Aggie offense with a national-leading 11.48 assists per set. Under her guidance, the team is hitting at a .297 clip on the season and logged a program record efficiency in a three-set SEC match in the regular-season finale versus Georgia of .525 percent.
- Also making a debut appearance on the All-SEC First Team is Kyndal Stowers. She finished second in kills during the regular season, putting away 264 balls at a .266 clip. She also contributed to the programs 22 wins with 48 blocks and 13 aces to contribute 303.5 points on the year. Stowers finished the year with a 2.38 passing grade which topped the conference.

WEEKLY AWARD WARRIORS

- The Aggies were all over the SEC weekly awards this season, capturing 13 total honors, split across four overall, five defensive, three setter and one offensive accolades.
- Ifenna Cos-Okpalla paced the Maroon & White with a staggering eight total honors on the year, including three overall player awards and five defensive players nods. She now has won 14 career weekly awards and the five defensive player accolades from this year is a SEC record for the most in a single season.
- Logan Lednicky's standout offensive showing this season earned her both SEC Player and Offensive Player of the Week, as she tied her own program record for kills in a three-set match versus Arkansas. The Sugar Land, Texas, native logged 22 kills and set her career high in hitting percentage at .606 for the match.
- Maddie Waak tacked on the final three honors for the Aggies, all in the form of Setter of the Week. The senior's distribution equated to one of the league's most efficient offenses, as the group hit .297 percent as a unit on the year.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

- Maddie Waak jumps off the stat sheet for the Aggies, as the setter ranks first nationally in assists per set averaging 11.48, while Texas A&M is sixth in the country as a unit with 13.56 per set.
- The balanced offense from the Maroon & White is displayed in the national ranks, as they average 14.43 kills per set which is good for seventh. The teams efficiency is also note worthy ranking 10th in hitting percentage (.297).
- Ifenna Cos-Okpalla is the Maroon & White's Swiss army knife, as she is blocking 1.66 swings per set which is also good for No. 3 in the country, while on offense she is hitting at an efficiency of .441 on which ranks 5th nationally.
- The defense as a unit impresses, as it holds opponents to a .170 hitting percentage which ranks 21st.

CONFERENCE RANKINGS

- Texas A&M's standout setter, Maddie Waak, is second the conference during league play in assists per set with 11.42.
- Offensive efficiency during SEC play has been led by Morgan Perkins, as the middle blocker is hitting at .474 through league play while racking up 82 kills with only nine errors on 154 swings.
- Ifenna Cos-Okpalla's blocking has continued to standout throughout the 2025 campaign, as she tops the SEC in stuffs per set averaging 1.79. She also impresses from the service line, once again ranking first averaging 0.50 per set, while holding third in hitting percentage at .410.
- Logan Lednicky continues to be one of the most productive weapons in the league, ranking ninth in points per set at 4.81, while standing at No. 19 in kills per frame 4.19. The senior also is hitting at .321 in SEC play.
- Kyndal Stowers' performance in the serve receive game doesn't get shown on the box score, however the redshirt-sophomore led the conference with a 2.38 passing grade.

RECORD SETTING IN REED ARENA

- Texas A&M set a new program record in its highest-ranked home win over No. 2 Texas (10/31). The 12thMan stood 9,801 members strong, pushing the program to a five-set win.
- The Aggies impressive attendances haven't stopped there, as they have set another five of the top-12 crowds in program history. The list of attendances include No. 4 vs. Georgia (5,751) No. 5 vs. Vanderbilt (4,666), No. 7 vs. Kentucky (4,469), No. 8 vs. Oklahoma (4,077) and No. 11 vs. Arkansas (3,752).
- Last season Texas A&M set a program-record for attendance in its conference opener versus Texas, simultaneously breaking the state attendance record for an NCAA women's volleyball regular season match with 9,236 people in attendance.
- During Morrison's time at the helm of the program, attendance has seen a sharp increase, leading to a program-record average attendance of 3,216 during the 2024 season.

BALANCED ATTACK

- The Aggie offense has proven tough to stop, courtesy of a five headed attack in the form of one opposite, two outsides and two middle blockers.
- Texas A&M's productive pins lead the line, as the starting group have all recorded over 240 kills on the year. Opposite Logan Lednicky leads the group with 333 kills, while outside's Kyndal Stowers and Emily Hellmuth account for 264 and 243, respectively.
- The final piece of the puzzle comes from the middle, as Ifenna Cos-Okpalla and Morgan Perkins ranks as two of the most efficient weapons in the league. Cos-Okpalla was the fourth member of the Maroon & White to reach 100 kills (184) and is hitting .441 percent, while Perkins reached triple digits fifth with 129 kills hitting at a .436 clip.

AVCA FIRST SERVE

- The Aggies kick started their 2025 campaign on the front foot, securing their first win of the season in a strong 3-1 decision over No. 11 Minnesota.
- Texas A&M's offense was firing on all cylinders behind the setting of Maddie Waak who had 51 assists on the night. Behind her charge the Maroon & White logged 64 kills in the match, led by Lednicky's 22 which earned her match MVP and All-First Serve Team honors.

A&M RECORDS IN REED ARENA

ALL TIME: 145-76

ON TARAFLEX COURT (added in 2019):

58-31

SEC COACHES' POLL

- During the conference's preseason voting, the Aggies were tabbed for a third-place finish with 195 points, while also receiving one first-place vote.
- The third-place prediction is a four-place jump from the 2024 season, marking the second-straight year under Morrison's leadership where the Aggies have climbed the preseason rankings.

PRESEASON PRAISE

- The Texas A&M volleyball team earned its highest preseason ranking in program history Wednesday, landing at No. 9 in the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Poll.
- The program's previous best was set in 1997 where it landed at No. 13. It marks the Aggies' first appearance in the preseason poll since 2016 when the group was tabbed at No. 16.

LEDNICKY ON THE WORLD STAGE

- Logan Lednický received her first senior-national team call up for the United States, as she was named to the Volleyball Nation's League roster for the opening two weeks in Brazil and Serbia.
- She competed in seven of the eight matches over the two weeks, tallying 43 points on 38 kills and five blocks, while adding 26 digs.
- Lednický's senior-team call up marked the first for an Aggies since Stacy Sykora's in 2011.

U23 MVP

- Texas A&M's Ifenna Cos-Okpalla shined on her international debut, as she and the United States National Team won the U23 Pan American Cup.
- Cos-Okpalla was the Red, White and Blue's standout player, as she was named tournament MVP and Blocker of the Tournament after the gold-medal match.
- Throughout the championships she racked up 51 points on 31 kills, 17 blocks and three aces. The senior's breakout match came against Mexico in the pool play stage, as she recorded her first international double-double with 12 blocks and 11 kills.

MORRISON MAGIC

- Head coach Jamie Morrison continued his international dominance, as he led the women's U19 United States national team to its fourth-straight international title after winning the Pan American Cup.
- Morrison's squad hit the ground running in the pool play of the championships, going a perfect 3-0 and dropping only one frame. They carried their momentum into the penultimate round to capture their third sweep of the tournament to advance to the gold-medal match.
- The group closed the championships with a competitive three-set victory over Mexico for the second time at the tournament. Morrison's squad played with a lead for the majority of the match, trailing in just nine of the 139 total points played in the fixture.

RETURNING CAST

- Morrison returns 11 members of his 2024 roster, including nine seniors, one junior and one redshirt-freshman.
- Experience is the theme of the Aggies' group, with them playing a cumulative 749 games collectively in their collegiate careers.
- Production was also retained in the decorated senior class, as the Maroon & White return 96.8% of their kills from last season, while holding on to 94.9% of their blocking.
- The positional breakdown includes four outside hitters, two middle blockers, two liberos and one opposite hitter.

FRESH FACES

- The Aggies added six new faces to the 2025 roster, including the No. 7 ranked recruiting class in the country made up of five freshmen and a standout transfer.
- The freshmen class features setter Kirra Musgrove, middle blocker Djurdja Stanojevic, libero/defensive specialist Addi Applegate and pins Taryn Morris and Megan Fitch. Musgrove, Applegate, Morris and Fitch played high school and club volleyball at the highest levels and made their mark on the international stage with the USA NTDP, while Stanojevic has been a member of the Serbian national team since 2021. Kyndal Stowers rounds out the group, joining the Aggies from Baylor.

JAMIE MORRISON

3RD YEAR AT TEXAS A&M | 19 YEARS COACHING

INSTANT IMPACT

- Jamie Morrison enters his third season leading the Texas A&M volleyball program, already guiding the team to two NCAA Tournament appearances and one trip to the Sweet 16.
- He boasts a 37-21 record at Texas A&M, including an 18-16 ledger in league play. His leadership booked A&M's spots in back-to-back NCAA Tournaments, marking the first repeat berths since the 2016 season. During his time with the Aggies, he has produced a pair of AVCA All-Americans, as well as four AVCA All-District and four All-SEC selections.
- Morrison led the Aggies to a 21-8 record in the 2024 season, marking the program's highest win total since 2019. He also recorded a 10-6 finish in SEC play to rank fifth in the league, which was also the best team result since the 2019 season. Morrison and the Aggies defended home court throughout the year, boasting a 10-3 ledger at Reed Arena. His team got off to a historic start during the campaign, winning their first eight matches which tied for the third-best start to a season in program history.

ON THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

- Winning at the highest level is something Morrison is accustomed to, as he served as a coach on three separate Olympic-medal winning staffs for the USA men's and women's volleyball teams. He claimed his first medal at the 2008 Games in Beijing, China, with the men's national team, brining home the gold medal. He then switched over to the women's national team, securing silver in London (2012), followed by bronze in Rio (2016).
- Morrison was selected to lead the women's junior national team for the fourth-consecutive year. He took over the reigns in 2021, where he led the U18 women's team to a bronze-medal showing at the FIVB U18 World Championships in Durango, Mexico. He went a step further as he and the U19 women's team claimed gold at the U19 Pan American Cup in 2022 and U19 2023 FIVB World Championships.
- Most recently, he added a fourth-consecutive title at the U19 NORCECA Pan American Cup. The team won all three of its matches in pool play and held that momentum, as it won its semifinal matchup versus the Dominican Republic and ensured the tournament title with a sweep in the final versus Mexico.
