QUICK KICKS

Semifinal Bound

No. 19 Georgia (No. 3 seed) faces No. 8 Vanderbilt (No. 2 seed) in the SEC Tournament semifinals Thursday, the fourth postseason meeting between the programs and first since the 2015 first round. Georgia is making its third semifinals appearance in four seasons under Keidane McAlpine, with both previous matchups going to double overtime - a PK loss to South Carolina in 2022 and a last-second winner over Texas A&M in 2023.

Both teams enter the match with long unbeaten streaks: Georgia at six straight results and Vanderbilt with seven consecutive wins. The Bulldogs and Commodores previously met in the semifinals in 2000, when Georgia prevailed, 2-1, at home in Athens. Thursday's match marks Georgia's first ranked-on-ranked SEC Tournament fixture since the No. 25 Bulldogs fell to No. 14 South Carolina, 3-2, in the 2009 first round.

Georgia and Vanderbilt did not face off in the regular season, but have met in each of the previous three regular seasons. Following a 1-1 tie in McAlpine's first season, the Bulldogs have won two straight. Last season, Summer Denigan scored in the 18th minute for the match's lone score. Jordan Brown tallied nine saves to ensure the shutout victory for the Bulldogs.

Fighting Like Cats and Dogs

Georgia and Kentucky laid everything on the line in the SEC Tournament quarterfinals, with the Bulldogs advancing, 5-4, on penalties following a 1-1 draw in extra time. The Bulldogs converted on their first four attempts, while Kentucky's first attempt missed wide right. After a make by Maddy Herniter, Hannah Folliard saved the sixth Wildcat shot to advance the Bulldogs to Thursday's semifinals. Folliard finished the match with five saves, the second-most of her Georgia career. Following a Kentucky goal early in the second half, Summer Denigan went top shelf in the 75th minute to equalize with her 11th goal of the season and help send the match into extra time.

All-League Performers

Georgia collected five SEC postseason honors, led by Summer Denigan becoming the Bulldogs' first First Team honoree since Abby Boyan in 2022. Denigan was previously named SEC Co-Freshman of the Year and to the Second Team in 2023. Cate Hardin and Kiera Staude were both named to the Second Team, with Staude adding to the All-Freshman Team honor she received in 2023. Rookies Hannah Folliard and Mya Townes rounded out the accolades with All-Freshman Team designations.

BK Beats the Bulldogs

Graduate BK Harris found the perfect time for her first Georgia goal, scoring in the 75th minute to help the Bulldogs top No. 25 Mississippi State, 1-0, in the SEC regular season finale Oct. 26 in Starkville. Harris' initial shot was blocked, but she regrouped to send in the goal, earning a spot on TopDrawerSoccer's National Team of the Week. With the win, Georgia clinched a third-place finish, tied with the 2001 team for the second-highest overall finish in program history. The win was Georgia's first road win over a ranked opponent since 2021, while the Bulldogs' 24 fouls were the most in a match since 1998.

Keep It 100 on the Land

Georgia's talented roster has been awarded with numerous individual honors, including five placements on TopDrawerSoccer's Top 100 Midseason Player and Freshmen list. Summer Denigan was ranked No. 19 on the top 100 player list, followed by teammate Assa Kante at No. 79. Denigan has scored 10 goals to lead the team, while Kante has posted 10 90-minute efforts for a backline that has only surrendered 13 goals. On the freshman list, Maddy Herniter came in at No. 13, with Hannah Folliard (No. 42) and Ayda Pannell (No. 75) joining in. Herniter has started in 14 matches at center back, while Folliard has tallied four shutouts and Pannell notched an assist.

Keidane McAlpine (kuh-DAWN-ee mik-AL-pine), who has led his teams to 13 consecutive NCAA tournament appearances, including a national championship for USC in 2016, became the sixth head coach of the Georgia soccer program in December 2021.

The Huntsville, Alabama native immediately changed the Bulldogs' fortunes, leading the team to a 13-6-3 record and a trip to the NCAA Second Round in his first season. Under McAlpine's leadership, Georgia received its first NCAA Tournament bid since 2014 and hosted a home postseason match for the first time since 2007. The Bulldogs also upset Tennessee in the SEC Tournament, reaching the semifinals for the first time since 2010 before falling in penalties to eventual champion South Carolina.

During the season, Georgia went unbeaten on the road in conference play and finished the regular season with six straight results against league opponents, including the first three-game SEC shutout streak since 2010. The Bulldogs tied two program records with 16 different goal scorers and 12 shutouts during the year, all while tallying the second-lowest goals against average rate in program history. Graduate Abby Boyan became the program's fourth All-American, with Madison Haugen, Dani Murguia, and Cecily Stoute joining her on the United Soccer Coaches All-America Third Team.

McAlpine followed 2022 up with the most successful season in Georgia soccer history. Facing one of the nation's toughest schedules, the Bulldogs finished 13-4-6 and with a No. 13 final national ranking, the highest among the SEC schools and highest in program history. He also won his 200th career game with a 2-1 victory at Missouri. During the season, Georgia won its first SEC East Division title, followed by the first SEC Tournament championship in school history, overcoming deficits against Kentucky and Texas A&M to advance. The run in Pensacola included playing with 10 players for 88 minutes against the Wildcats and a last-second winner from Croix Bethune to take down the Aggies. The Bulldogs clinched the title with a 1-0 win over No. 10 Arkansas in the final, led by seven saves from Jordan Brown.

In the NCAA Tournament, a late winner from Kiera Staude took down Liberty, 2-1, before a sold-out crowd in Athens before a 3-2 win against Iowa sent Georgia to the Sweet 16 for only the second time in program history. Despite a go-ahead goal from Bethune in the 85th minute, the Bulldogs surrendered a late equalizer and fell in overtime. Nonetheless, the Bulldogs earned a program-best five postseason victories and were the final SEC team remaining in the field.

Bethune became the fifth All-American in program history, earning a place on the United Soccer Coaches Second Team. She was also named to the All-Southeast Region Team, SEC All-Tournament Team, and was named SEC Tournament MVP. She was later drafted third overall by Washington Spirit in the 2024 NWSL Draft, the highest-picked player in school history and highest-drafted SEC player since 2016. In her rookie season, Bethune was named Midfielder of the Year and Rookie of the Year, along with earning a gold medal at the Paris Olympics with the U.S. Women's National Team. Redshirt freshman Summer Denigan was named SEC Co-Freshman of the Year and was the only freshman named to the All-Southeast Region Team. All the while, Georgia soccer attracted 14,571 spectators to the Turner Soccer Complex during the season, the largest season-long crowd in a decade.

In his third season, McAlpine continued the winning with an 8-7-6 record and third-consecutive NCAA Tournament home match. The Bulldogs again faced one of the nation's toughest schedules, headlined by a trip to eventual national champion North Carolina and a 1-1 tie at No. 1 Florida State, the program's first result against a top-ranked opponent. Brown posted one of the greatest seasons in program history, tallying 120 saves, the second-most of any keeper in program history and the most in the SEC. Brown and graduate midfielder Nicole Vernis were both named to the Second Team All-SEC and the United Soccer Coaches All-Southeast Region Team.

Prior to arriving in Athens, McAlpine guided USC to unprecedented success for eight seasons from 2014-21. His 2016 squad finished with a 19-4-2 record on its way to the program's second national championship, shutting out four consecutive tournament opponents before a 3-1 victory over West Virginia in the College Cup Final. His final 2021 team boasted a 14-3-3 record and finished second in the Pac-12 standings, earning him USC's first Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors since 1998.

Under his guidance, USC never missed the postseason, won at least one NCAA tournament match in six of the last seven years and never finished worse than fourth in the Pac-12. The Trojans averaged nearly 16 wins a season during his tenure and owned a 13-2-7 postseason record under his watch.

McAlpine's teams have produced 12 All-Americans, over 40 All-Conference selections, three Pac-12 Forwards of the Year, one Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, one Pac-12 Midfielder of the Year, one Pac-12 Freshman of the Year and two Pac-12 Goalkeepers of the Year. McAlpine and his staff also picked up United Soccer Coaches West Region Staff of the Year honors in 2018 and 2021.

McAlpine's 19-year head coaching career features stops at Birmingham-Southern, Washington State and USC, where he has compiled a 225-109-56 career record — a 65 percent winning percentage. His career began at his alma mater Birmingham-Southern in 2001 as he guided the program into Division I, eventually winning the Big South championship in 2004 and earning the program's first NCAA Tournament bid. For his efforts, he was named that season's Big South Coach of the Year. Following his tenure at BSC, he spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Auburn.

In addition to his success at USC, McAlpine was named the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year and NSCAA Pacific Region Coach of the Year at Washington State. He led the Cougars to a program-record 14 wins and a school-best second-place finish in the conference standings. Washington State also made back-to-back trips to the NCAA tournament during his tenure.

He has been active in Olympic Development Program for many years and holds a National "A" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation and a National Goalkeeping License. McAlpine was actively involved as a coach with the Alabama Youth Soccer Association Olympic Development Program and several club teams. In the summer of 2004, he was selected as a staff coach for the USYS Region III squad.

McAlpine was a four-year starter at Birmingham-Southern and was named team captain in 1996. During that season, the Panthers finished as runners-up in the NAIA Tournament after advancing to the semifinals the previous season. After graduation, McAlpine spent the 1999 season playing for the Tennessee Rhythm of the A League.

McAlpine earned a bachelor's degree in music business with a minor in computer science from Birmingham-Southern in 1997.

QUICK KICKS

Second Half Surges

Georgia's offense has repeatedly come up clutch late in matches, with 22 of its 38 goals taking place in the second half of matches. BK Harris and Summer Denigan each scored in the 75th minute in the past two matches to give the Bulldogs 12 such goals in SEC matches. Additionally, nine of Georgia's second-half scores have occurred in the final 20 minutes of play, as did Harris and Denigan's goals.

Still Summertime in Athens

Redshirt junior midfielder Summer Denigan posted one of the greatest individual regular seasons in Georgia history. Denigan, who was named to the MAC Hermann Midseason Watch List, has tallied 11 goals (second in the SEC) and an assist. In the Georgia record books, Denigan ranks fifth in winners with 10 in her career, along with 10th place overall in goals (22). Her converted penalty against Florida made her the 12th Bulldog to tally 20 career goals, while her 10th against Texas made her the first player since Mollie Belisle to have double-digit scores in a season.

Dawg Bites

- Georgia has found tremendous success away from home in the Keidane McAlpine era, earning a result in 17 of 20 SEC regular season road matches over four seasons. Prior to a 2-0 loss at Tennessee on Oct. 2, the Bulldogs had compiled a program record-tying nine match unbeaten streak in true road matches dating back to September 2024.
- Freshman forward Ava Stack has helped the Mexican U17 national team reach the semifinals of the FIFA U17 Women's World Cup in Morocco.
- Georgia has posted three unbeaten streaks of five or more matches this season, becoming the first squad to program history to achieve the feat. The Bulldogs are currently on a season-long six match streak.
- Georgia is one of only four P4 programs to feature two 17-year-old players: goalkeeper Hannah Folliard and forward Ava Stack.
- Under Keidane McAlpine, Georgia has continued to raise the program's profile and achieve new heights of success, highlighted by the 2023 SEC Tournament championship and NCAA Sweet 16 appearance. The Bulldogs have won SEC Tournament matches for three straight seasons for the first time in program history and hosted NCAA First Round matches in three straight years for the first time. The Bulldogs have also finished unbeaten on the road in SEC play in both 2022 and 2024.
- The Bulldogs' increased success has expanded the recruiting footprint of the program, resulting in a roster full of geographic diversity in 2025. This season's team features players from 13 different states and three nations, the largest number of states represented in program history. The Dawgs still feature 11 players from Georgia, one of the country's deepest talent pools.
- Graduate defender Laila Booker, who missed a month earlier this season due to injury, turned in a 90-minute effort against Mississippi State on Oct. 26. Including her career at Yale, Booker has played a full match on 42 occasions, including a nine-match streaking stretching from the end of the 2023 season to the start of 2024.

Up Next

If victorious, Georgia will face the winner of the LSU-Mississippi State semifinal in the SEC Tournament final on Sunday, Nov. 9 at 2:30 p.m. EST on SEC Network. The Bulldogs will learn their destination for the NCAA Tournament during the Selection Show on Monday, Nov. 10 at 4 p.m. EST.

Drawing the Tie-gers

No. 19 Georgia completed its regular season home slate with a 1-1 tie against Auburn on Oct. 18, continuing its winless streak against the Tigers to nine in a row. In the eighth minute, the Bulldogs struck first as Millie Filson's set piece header was deflected into the net for an own goal, but they were unable to pad the lead, notably just missing a second goal in the 41st minute. The Tiger amped up the pressure in the second half, eventually outshooting Georgia by a 14-5 margin and netting an equalizer from Clara Casajuana Vert in the 77th minute. For the Bulldogs, it was only the second time this season in which they failed to win a match they led at halftime.

Hooked 'Em

In a back-and-forth affair, Georgia secured a fifth SEC win for the first time since 2022 and its first win over Texas in a 4-2 victory Thursday evening. Making her first start since 2023, Virginia Odom opened the scoring with her first career goal in the 29th minute. Texas earned a pair of goals late in the first half to send the teams tied into the locker room. Freshman Lily Kate Elphick powered the Bulldogs with a brace, scoring a pair of long-distance strikes, while Summer Denigan scored her 10th goal of the season to clinch the win. For the Bulldogs, it was their first win while allowing two or more goals in a match; additionally, Georgia is unbeaten when scoring first and scoring two or more times.

Dawgs > Hawgs

No. 22 Georgia used a relentless attack and strong defensive effort to upset No. 6 Arkansas, 1-0, Friday evening at the Turner Soccer Complex. Friday's win was the first over a top 10 team since beating Arkansas in the 2023 SEC Championship, and the first home win over a top 10 opponent since beating No. 4 Texas A&M in 2015. The Bulldogs tallied a shot on goal in the opening minute, eventually outshooting the Razorbacks, 15-7, and dominating in corner kicks, 10-3. Freshman Mya Townes scored the lone goal of the evening in the 53rd minute, taking a pass from teammate Hailey Gordon and sliding it in the bottom right corner for the winner. Townes was later named SEC Co-Freshman of the Week for her efforts. Goalkeeper Hannah Folliard posted her fourth clean sheet of the season, as well as the seventh overall for Georgia.

Foiled by Florida

Before a historic crowd at the Turner Soccer Complex, Georgia saw its three-match winning streak to SEC play with a 2-2 draw against archrival Florida Sept. 26. The match attracted a crowd of 2,551 spectators, the largest since the complex's current grandstand was built in 2017. Summer Denigan opened the scoring in the 24th minute with a converted penalty, while Mya Townes used a deflected shot to earn her second score of the season in the 52nd minute. Despite a 14-9 shot advantage, the Gators fought back with a PK of their own and a late equalizer to tie the Bulldogs for the third-straight season. It was the first time this season Georgia failed to win a match in which it scored first.

Strong Slate

Throughout his early tenure in Athens, Keidane McAlpine has made it a point to challenge his team with a difficult schedule. This year's schedule proved to be no different, with Georgia facing No. 4 UCLA and No. 12 North Carolina. North Carolina marked the fourth straight season facing the defending national champion in the regular season.

It's a Keeper

With the unfortunate loss of senior goalkeeper Jordan Brown for the season due to injury, Georgia turned to a new netminder for the first time in three seasons. Freshman Hannah Folliard reclassified from the class of 2026 to this season. Folliard recently attended the USYNT U17 training camp and previously served as an alternate for the Concacaf U17 Championship. Redshirt freshman Nicole Bidun made her Georgia debut on Aug. 17 against UAlbany, facing zero shots in the second half.

Delayed Domination

Georgia extended its road unbeaten streak to nine straight with a 4-1 win at Ole Miss Sept. 21, earning its first win in Oxford since 2012. The Bulldogs overcame a 152-minute weather delay to blow past the Rebels, scoring four goals in a conference match for the first time since a 4-3 win against Florida on Oct. 21, 2021. Assa Kante picked up the winner with her first goal as a Bulldog, while Hailey Gordon earned a brace with her first two career goals. Gordon's brace was the first multi-goal effort since Dani Murguia scored twice in the aforementioned Florida match. Summer Denigan also scored her eighth goal of the season, assisted by Cate Hardin, who also set up Gordon's second score.

Cardiac Cats

Georgia opened its home conference slate with a dramatic 1-0 victory over Kentucky Sept. 18 in Athens. With both sides locked in a tight defensive struggle, Ava Stack's 79th minute goal, assisted by Cate Hardin, proved to be the difference. Stack led all players with four shots, while the teams combined for only four shots on frame, the fewest in a Georgia match since a 0-0 result against Auburn on Oct. 26, 2023. The lack of opportunities included Summer Denigan tallying zero shots for the first time this season, following a career-high seven at Texas A&M. The win extended Georgia's unbeaten streak against Kentucky to eight straight, while Hannah Folliard and the Bulldog backline secured its sixth shutout of the season.

O Captain! Our Captains!

Georgia posted an auspicious SEC debut on Sept. 12, besting Texas A&M, 3-0, in Bryan-College Station with goals from all three team captains. It was the largest margin of victory for the Bulldogs in a conference match since a 3-0 win at Kentucky on Oct. 23, 2022, as well as the first SEC match with three goals since 2023. Cate

Hardin opened the scoring in the seventh minute as she headed in a corner from Mya Townes, who earned her first career assist. For Hardin, it was her second career goal, following her previous score that came nearly three years earlier on the same field. For her performance, Hardin was named to TopDrawerSoccer's National Team of the Week Honorable Mention.

A Rainy Night in Georgia

Despite over two hours in weather delays, Georgia produced a historic 2-0 victory over No. 12 North Carolina on Aug. 21, earning its first-ever victory over the nation's winningest program and reigning national champion. In the second half, Summer Denigan put the Dawgs on the board as she knocked in a blocked shot in the 51st minute. Twenty minutes later, Lily Kate Elphick scored her second goal of the season with a rocking laser off her left foot. Freshman goalkeeper Hannah Folliard was outstanding in net, with the Bulldog defense only allowing two shots on net. The win over the Tar Heels was the highest-ranked opponent since No. 10 Arkansas in the 2023 SEC Tournament final and only the 11th win over an ACC school in program history.
