HEAD COACH STEVE FORBES

Steve Forbes was named Wake Forest basketball's 23rd head coach on April 30, 2020. A 30-year coaching veteran, Coach Forbes is a proven winner and builder of championship cultures with a 390-168 (.698) overall record in his five seasons at Wake Forest, five years at ETSU and at three previous community college head coaching stints.

Over the last four seasons, Wake Forest holds a 61-10 record at home since the start of the 2021-22 season and is one of only six teams nationally with 61 or more home victories over the last four seasons. During that same span, the Demon Deacons have earned 86 victories - fourth-most overall in the ACC - and claimed 47 ACC victories, most over a four-year period in program history.

In 2024-25, Forbes led the Demon Deacons to 21 victories overall and the program's first-ever double bye in the ACC Tournament. With 13 ACC victories - tied for the most in a single season in school history and the second time in four seasons the Deacs have hit that mark - Wake Forest earned its highest regular season finish since the 2008-09 campaign.

Wake Forest matched the school record for road ACC victories with six, as the Demon Deacons defeated Syracuse, Miami, Virginia Tech, Stanford, Cal and SMU on their home courts. In February, the Demon Deacons became the first - and only - ACC program to sweep the West Coast swing with victories over the Cardinal and Golden Bears. In non-conference play, Wake Forest earned eight victories including a 72-70 result over Big Ten Tournament champions Michigan.

The 2023-24 season marked Wake Forest's eighth appearance in the National Invitation Tournament and second in the past three seasons. Additionally, Wake Forest saw a resurgence in season attendance numbers during the year with 164,931 fans packing Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum. This marked the highest total attendance since the 2014-15 season. With the win against Notre Dame in the ACC Tournament, Wake Forest reached the 20-win mark for the second time in the last three years.

2021-22 was one of Wake Forest's best seasons in the past 20 years, finishing the season with 25 wins, the most since 2004-05. With a regular-season conference record of 13-7, Wake Forest tied the single-season program record for ACC wins with 13. With a 19-win differential from Forbes' first year to his second, Wake Forest had one of the largest improvements from year to year in NCAA history. Wake Forest also broke the program for most home wins in a season during the first and second rounds of the NIT for 18 home wins in 2021-22.

At the conclusion of the regular season, Forbes was named the 2022 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year, along with Alondes Williams earning ACC Player of the Year and All-ACC First Team honors and Jake LaRavia being named to the All-ACC Second Team.

Forbes was the fifth Wake Forest coach to earn the honor and the first since Skip Prosser in 2003. That same season, Josh Howard took home Player of the Year honor and was the last Demon Deacon to garner this prestigious honor before Williams. With Williams and LaRavia's selection on the All-ACC First and Second Team, respectively, they were the first Wake Forest tandem to garner that honor since 2005 (Chris Paul First Team, Justin Gray and Eric Williams Second Team).

Forbes won at least 24 games in each of his five seasons as the head coach for the Buccaneers while finishing third or better in the SoCon every year. ETSU won 130 games and two SoCon championships during his tenure, while all 22 of his seniors earned their ETSU degrees. He and his wife, Johnetta, have three children, Elizabeth, Christopher and Johnathon.
