STARTING FIVE

- 1 Due to inclement weather in the region, Ole Miss will face Vanderbilt in a neutral site game in Birmingham, Alabama. The Rebels were originally scheduled to host the Commodores in Oxford on Thursday, January 29.
- 2 In the Rebels' last game, Cotie McMahon powered Ole Miss to an 82-61 victory over Missouri, tying her career-high with 33 points and securing her fourth double-double of the season by adding 12 rebounds.
- 3 After her exceptional performance last week, Cotie McMahon was named a USBWA National Player of the Week. She also earned SEC Co-Player of the Week honors for the second time in three weeks.
- 4 A defensive stalwart for the Rebels all season long, Latasha Lattimore earned a spot on the 2026 Naismith Women's College Defensive Player of the Year Presented by MOLECULE Watch List on Tuesday.
- 5 Head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin, also known as Coach Yo, continues to take the Rebels to new heights after appearing in the Sweet 16 for the second time in three years and four consecutive NCAA Tournaments.

yolett McPhee-McCuin

Head Coach • 8th Season

X @YolettMcCuin @yoweezy15

Head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin has elevated Ole Miss women's basketball back into the national spotlight throughout her seven seasons in Oxford. McPhee-McCuin keeps building upon her success each season at the helm of the Rebels, leading Team 50 to its fourth straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2024-25 for its 21st overall.

McPhee-McCuin is solidifying herself as one of the most highly touted coaches in history, earning 20 overall wins and 10 conference victories for the fourth consecutive season. She is the only coach in program history to achieve this feat. McPhee-McCuin led her team to defeat two top-10 conference opponents, the first time a Rebel team has done this since the 1995-96 season.

Along with a successful conference season, Ole Miss dictated and disrupted throughout all 12 nonconference games, entering SEC play with the best scoring defense in the nation only allowing 46.7 points per game. Additionally, the Rebels set three single-game program records, securing the best field goal percentage, fewest points allowed and widest margin of victory.

Madison Scott went above and beyond in her fifth and final year under McPhee-McCuin, being named All-SEC Second Team and earning WBCA All-America Honorable Mention honors. Sira Thienou proved to be an important key in the Rebels' game, notching the second most steals by any Rebel freshman (79) to help earn her a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Defeating No. 14 Baylor on the Bears' home court, the Rebels secured their fourth ranked win of the season, marking the most in the McPhee-McCuin era. The victory advanced Ole Miss to its 12th Sweet 16 in program history and second appearance in three years.

Along with guiding the Rebels to a program best in conference wins, McPhee-McCuin picked up her 100th win at the helm of Ole Miss during the 2023-24 season to become the second coach in program history to achieve the feat.

Bringing the Rebels back to her home country of the Bahamas, McPhee-McCuin and the Rebels clinched their second tournament victory as the Rebels went on to win three games in three days to claim the 2023 Battle4Atlantis Championship. Two Rebels earned a spot on the all-tournament team in Marquesha Davis and Madison Scott, with Scott taking home Most Valuable Player Honors.

The duo of Davis and Scott continued to excel throughout the conference season, with the pair becoming the first Rebels to both earn First Team All-SEC accolades in the same season since 1989.

McPhee-McCuin's signature defense also led the Rebels to break multiple program records, including Ole Miss shattering a single-season best of 190 blocks. Holding 11 opponents to under 50 points also set a school record in a single season.

In the First Round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament, McPhee-McCuin picked up her third tournament victory as a head coach as the Rebels marched past Marquette.

The 2022-23 campaign generated plenty of noise in leading the Rebels to its 19th NCAA Tournament appearance and shook up the country in advancing to its 11th Sweet 16 in program history.

Cultivating a roster through the use of the transfer portal and with Rebel returners, McPhee-McCuin guided a team with seven newcomers to its second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance for the first time since the 2004 & 2005 seasons. Reaching 20-wins also hit another milestone for Ole Miss, reaching the 20-win mark in back-to-back seasons for the only time since 1993-94 & 1994-95.

After reaching an 11-2 mark through its non-conference slate, Ole Miss hit the ground running at the start of SEC play by rattling off five consecutive victories to begin 5-0. One of these first five wins included the Rebels' first win over Mississippi State in Starkville since 2004. The Rebels kept their momentum rolling against the Bulldogs in Oxford, completing the first regular season sweep over MSU since 2004.

This Rebel squad came together in multiple ways when facing adversity, including engineering the best comeback in program history after facing a 19-point deficit at halftime at Arkansas. Defensively, Ole Miss clamped down on the Razorbacks to erase the Arkansas lead and force overtime. From then on, it was all Ole Miss to complete the comeback and take down Arkansas, 76-73. Not only was it the largest comeback in program history, but the third biggest between two SEC teams and ranks ninth in the NCAA record book.

The wins continued to come, with Ole Miss earning 11 SEC victories to tie a program record and seal its second-straight fourth place finish. The 11 victories were the most for the Rebels since the conference went to the 16-game SEC schedule. Following an appearance in the SEC Tournament Semifinals, the Rebels heard their name called on Selection Sunday as an eight seed to reach the program's 19th NCAA Tournament appearance.

A dominant First-Round, 71-48 victory over No. 8 Gonzaga highlighted by its trademark defense kept the Bulldogs at bay with a program-lowest in points allowed in an NCAA Tournament game. Going up against No. 1 Stanford in the Second-Round, Ole Miss took control of the Cardinal in a game in which they never trailed to knock off the top-seeded host team, 54-49 to reach the Rebels' 11th Sweet 16. The Rebels became the first team since 2009 to halt a No. 1 seed from advancing to the third round.

Development has been a key theme for McPhee-McCuin, by molding transfer Angel Baker into a First Team All-SEC point guard and a WBCA Honorable Mention All-American. In her third year with Madison Scott, the 2021 SEC Freshman of the Year, elevated her game to earn Second Team All-SEC and All Defensive Team honors for 2023.

McPhee-McCuin wrapped up her fourth season in Oxford in 2021-22 with revitalized energy surrounding the Ole Miss women's basketball program, leading the Rebels to their 18th NCAA Tournament appearance and their first in 15 seasons with one of the most tenacious defenses in the country.

The 2021-22 campaign was one to be remembered, as McPhee-McCuin raised the bar with the expectation of the NCAA Tournament or bust from the get-go, Ole Miss rose to the occasion, accomplishing just that. Following a season-opening loss, the Rebels responded by rattling off 13 straight wins for the third-longest winning streak in program history on the way to a 23-win season.

Following its second-ranked win of the season at No. 23 Kentucky and fourth-straight in SEC play, the Rebels saw themselves slotted in the AP Poll on Jan. 24 at No. 24 for the program's first ranking in 15 years. Defensively, Ole Miss shattered program records with a season-high 142 blocks and held a record 10 opponents under 50 points, for the most in a single season.

Once SEC play hit, the Rebels did not cool off, picking up 10 conference wins for the second time in Ole Miss history. A 10-6 conference record pushed the Rebels into a fourth-place SEC finish for its best since 1994. With a double bye secured for the SEC Tournament in Nashville, Ole Miss knocked off No. 23 Florida to advance to its ninth semifinal appearance and first since 1993 before ultimately falling to top-seeded South Carolina. Just a little over a week later, jubilation occurred with Ole Miss seeing its name called on Selection Sunday for the first time since 2007 as a seven seed.

Under her tutelage, Shakira Austin earned First Team All-SEC honors for the second straight season, and garnered national acclaim as one of the best centers throughout Division I hoops. Bringing in transfer guard Angel Baker from Wright State proved to be key, as she went on to be named the SEC's Sixth-Woman of the Year, for the first in Ole Miss history.

McPhee-McCuin made history of her own after the 2021-22 campaign, becoming the first woman in Bahamian history to coach at the men's national level.

She served as an assistant with the Bahamas Men's Senior National Team during World Cup qualifiers.

Ole Miss bounced back from an 0-16 SEC season in 2019-20 to a 15-12 (4-10 SEC) campaign in 2020-21 that saw the Rebels come dangerously close to crashing the Big Dance. The Rebels knocked off three top-25 teams in the span of a month -- including a season-sweep of nationally ranked Kentucky and a momentous upset of No. 13 Arkansas in the First Round of the SEC Tournament to mark the first SEC Quarterfinal appearance for Ole Miss since 2010. The Rebels nearly knocked off No. 14 Tennessee in that quarterfinal, which would have marked the first SEC Semifinal appearance since 1993 and likely would have pushed the Rebels into the NCAA Tournament.

The Rebels were on the outside looking in on the Big Dance despite ending the regular season with a NET of 43, five NET top 100 wins, four NET top-50 wins, and a brutal final stretch that included going 4-4 in their last eight games against an average NET of 16.8. But Coach Yo and Ole Miss took that chip on their shoulder into the WNIT with a fury, advancing all the way to the championship game after playing superb team basketball -- the deepest postseason run in program history regardless of tournament. Ole Miss fell to a dominant Rice squad in that title game, but that could do little to dampen the spirits of a program with its sights set on even higher bars in the years to come.

Much of the success for the Rebels in 2020-21 came in the form of Honorable Mention All-American and First-Team All-SEC member Shakira Austin, who immediately asserted herself as one of the most feared players in the SEC and the nation after transferring to Ole Miss from Maryland in the offseason. Austin was the first First-Team selection for Ole Miss since 2014-15 and ended up on the Lisa Leslie Top-10 list, but she wasn't alone. Ole Miss' highly-touted top-ranked recruiting class from 2019 lived up to the hype in their first season, with Madison Scott earning SEC Freshman of the Year honors and Snudda Collins being named alongside her on the SEC All-Freshman team.

The swift turnaround is even more impressive when taking stock of where the Rebels were when she took over. Coach Yo took the reigns of a Rebel program her first year in 2018-19 that had just four returners and willed it to outperform all the preseason polls that had picked Ole Miss unanimously to finish last. The Rebels improved their SEC win total by two games from the year before, winning three conference contests -- one of which was a thrilling 55-49 win at No. 16 Kentucky on Jan. 13, 2019. The win was the first over a ranked team on the road for Ole Miss since 2011 and the first win in general in Lexington since 2007.

McPhee-McCuin also mentored graduate transfer Crystal Allen, who in her lone season donning a Rebel jersey became one of the most electrifying players in the SEC. Allen finished the season third in the conference at 18.3 PPG and was named second-team All-SEC -- the first Rebel to earn All-SEC honors since 2014-15.

She followed that up by signing the SEC's top-ranked recruiting class in 2019-20, which included two five-star signees and the first McDonald's All-American in Ole Miss women's basketball history in Madison Scott.

Coach Yo was named the Rebels' ninth head coach on April 4, 2018, the first black female head coach in Ole Miss women's basketball history.

McPhee-McCuin spent the previous five seasons transforming Jacksonville into a perennial power in the Atlantic Sun Conference. During her tenure as head coach, McPhee-McCuin led the Dolphins to a 94-63 record (50-24 in ASUN play) and postseason appearances in each of her last three seasons.

McPhee-McCuin, who has also served as the national team head coach for her native Bahamas, took over a program at Jacksonville that had only won 20 or more games in a season twice in its entire history and proceeded to march the Dolphins to three-straight 20-win campaigns in her final three years.

In 2015-16, McPhee-McCuin and the Dolphins made history, capturing the program's first ASUN Tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth with an upset in the conference championship game over two-time defending champion Florida Gulf Coast. The victory snapped FGCU's seven-year, 71-game home streak against ASUN opponents and boosted Jacksonville to a 22-11 record.

McPhee-McCuin's team followed that up with two more 20-win seasons and the first two WNIT appearances in JU history in 2016-17 (23-9, 11-3 ASUN) and 2017-18 (24-9, 12-2) with the final season seeing the Dolphins break the school record for single-season wins. In 2016-17,

Jacksonville was the lone ASUN program to receive votes in the USA Today Coaches Poll and earned the first WNIT at-large ever given to an ASUN team.

Prior to her time at Jacksonville, McPhee-McCuin was an assistant at Clemson from 2011-13, where she was recognized as one of the top assistants in the nation by National Women's Basketball Insider. While with the Tigers, McPhee-McCuin solidified her reputation as one of the best recruiters in the country, spearheading the No. 16 class in the nation in her final year at Clemson, which included five McDonalds All-America nominees.

Before her stint at Clemson, McPhee-McCuin was on staff at Pittsburgh for two seasons in 2009 and 2010. She was part of a pair of postseason appearances with the Panthers, who rose to No. 14 in the national rankings and advanced to a Sweet 16.

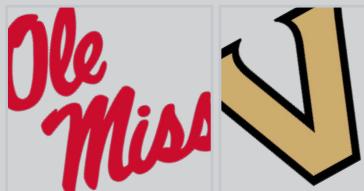

Her coaching career also includes stops at Portland, Frank Phillips College, and Arkansas-Pine Bluff, where she earned her master's degree in physical education with a perfect 4.0 GPA as a student-athlete.

McPhee-McCuin received her bachelor's in business management and administration from Rhode Island in 2004, playing in 56 games over her junior and senior years at URI and helping the Rams advance to the 2003 A-10 title game. She played her first two seasons at Miami-Dade Community College.

McPhee-McCuin was the first Bahamian woman to sign a Division I letter of intent to play basketball, becoming a trailblazer in the process for other aspiring athletes from her home country. She is the first Bahamian woman to coach at a Division I program and was the first black female head coach at Jacksonville.

McPhee-McCuin is also part of two Halls of Fame across both her playing and coaching career. In 2016, she was inducted into the Bahamian Athletic Hall of Fame alongside Buddy Hield (of the NBA's Sacramento Kings) and Jonquel Jones (of the WNBA's Connecticut Sun). In 2013, she was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame and was one of 10 recipients of the Pathfinder Award for their distinguished achievement outside of New England.

Born April 30, 1982, the former Yolett McPhee and her husband, Kelly McCuin, have two daughters: Yasmine and Yuri.

SERIES HISTORY

This game is the 58th matchup between Ole Miss and Vanderbilt. The Commodores lead the series, which dates to 1978, 35-22. The Rebels are on a five-game winning streak in the series, which is the longest run of victories for Ole Miss in the series history.

The two teams faced off twice last season, with Ole Miss emerging victorious in both outings. The first of which saw Ole Miss claiming an 87-59 victory in Oxford. It's the Rebel's most impressive win in series history, with 87 points being the highest they've scored against the Commodores and the 28-point gap being the widest margin of victory.

A Rebel has scored 20-or-more points in each of the past four wins against the Commodores, the last of which saw Kennedy Todd-Williams drop a career-high 25 points. Todd-Williams was responsible for 40 of Ole Miss' points that day as all five Rebel starters scored in double figures. In the second game, Ole Miss relied on its frontcourt duo of Starr Jacobs and Madison Scott, who scored 24 and 16 points, respectively, in the Rebels' 76-61 victory. Jacobs added 10 rebounds for her third of the season with the Rebels. She also shot a staggering 12-for-13 from the field.

Ole Miss' dismantling of Vanderbilt in the 2022-23 season was also noteworthy, when the Rebels romped the Commodores, 74-53. The second straight win for the Rebels in the series marked the first consecutive wins over the Commodores since 1986 and 1987. Ole Miss shot a season-high 8-16 (.500) from 3-point range in that game. Angel Baker paced the team with 22 points, while Scott nearly got a double double with 17 points and nine rebounds.

The Rebels have had some memorable moments against the Commodores in their 51-year history. Most memorably, in 1992, Ole Miss defeated Vanderbilt, 59-57, to win the program's first SEC Championship. Individually, in 1978, Peggy Gillom recorded the second-most rebounds by a Rebel in program history against the Commodores, bringing in 23.

SCOUTING THE COMMODORES

Shea Ralph has transformed Vanderbilt into a national powerhouse just five seasons in Nashville. She's guided the Commodores to back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths, marking the first time Vanderbilt has done so since earning 15-straight bids from 1999-2014. She's 93-60 as head coach of the program.

Much of hers and Vanderbilt's success as of recently has come off the back of standout sophomore Mikayla Blakes. Last season's SEC Freshman of the Year, Blakes has continued to develop and shine under Ralph's tutelage. Blakes is scoring at an unbelievable rate, averaging an SEC-leading 24.8 points per contest, as well as 4.5 assists, 3.6 rebounds and 3.1 steals per game. She ranks first in the SEC in made field goals and free throws, leading to her pacing the conference in overall points.

Vanderbilt isn't a one-woman show, as the Commodores are 20-1 entering Friday's competition. Their only loss, last time out against No. 3/3 South Carolina, is the only blemish on what has been an incredible open to the season.

Behind Blakes, Vanderbilt is top 10 nationally in scoring offense and margin thus far this season. Once again, the Rebels are facing the top 3-point shooting team in the SEC, as Vanderbilt is averaging nearly 10 made shots from long distance this season (9.9, to be exact). That mark is fifth in the nation. The Commodores make those shots at an efficient rate as well, draining 40.6 percent from that distance, which is 13th nationally.

The Commodores are highly effective at protecting and distributing the ball, sitting fifth in the country in assist/turnover ratio at 1.82. In large part, this is due to freshman guard Aubrey Galvan's 2.44 individual mark, which is fourth in the SEC and top 20 in the country. Galvan is Ralph's most recent example of recruiting dominant freshmen, as Galvan also ranks fourth in assists per game and sixth in steals per game among conference competitors. She's also tied for second on the team in points per game (11.7).

Defensively, Vanderbilt is one of the stingiest teams in the conference regarding steals. The Commodores force the fourth most turnovers per game, while stealing the third most.

Other contributing members include Justine Pissot and Sacha Washington. Pissot is the team's top 3-point shooter, holding a 44 percent clip from long distance this season. Washington maintains the boards with 8.0 rebounds per game. She ranks third among all active SEC players in career rebounds with 884, and ninth in career blocks with 124.

LAST TIME OUT

Cotie McMahon's heroics propelled Ole Miss women's basketball to a dominant 82-61 victory over Missouri Thursday evening in Mizzou Arena.

McMahon had by far her most complete performance for the Rebels, scoring a 33-point double-double, which ties her career high in points. She's the first Rebel to score 30 points this season, the first Rebel since Madison Scott to do so, and her point total is the most by a Rebel since Marquesha Davis had the same amount against Florida on March 8, 2024. She tied her season best in rebounds with 12, while also running the point and dropping five dimes. Most of her offensive success came in the second half, scoring 24 of her points in quarters three and four. She went 9-for-13 from the field in the second half.

As a team, Ole Miss held Missouri to 34.4 percent from the floor and allowed only four threes on 20 attempts. The Tigers entered the game averaging nearly 40 percent from long range while making nine per game.

Defensively, Latasha Lattimore and Sira Thienou kept one of the best shooting teams in the country at bay. Lattimore played vigorous defense the entire evening, blocking four shots. She's had eight games this season with at least three blocks. Last time a Rebel had that many games with such a feat was Rita Igobokwe, who accomplished the feat in the 2022-23 season.

Meanwhile, Thienou paced the team with four steals. One of Ole Miss' best thieves, Thienou has had multiple steals in 12 games this season.

Both players scored north of 10 points, with Thienou's 17-point and 10-rebound performance marking her first career double-double.

THE EXPECTATION, NOT THE EXCEPTION

Entering year eight of the Yolett McPhee-McCuin era in Oxford, the standard has been set. Two Sweet 16s in three years, four NCAA Tournaments in a row, four straight 10-win SEC seasons, multiple All-SEC selections and three WNBA Draft picks, the Rebels have re-asserted themselves as a top program in women's college basketball.

TELL A FRIEND TO TELL A FRIEND, WE'RE BACK!

During the 2025-26 season, three key players from last year's squad are poised to provide leadership for the nine newcomers. Returning starters in Christeen Iwuala and Sira Thienou are primed to showcase their development from the off-season, while J'Adore Young is ready to return to the court after medically redshirting last season.

PORTAL POWERHOUSE

Branding herself as the portal queen, when players decide to transfer, Coach Yo loves to prove that a home for them is available in Oxford. Preaching the importance of development, players who decide to come to Ole Miss can see their game taken to a new level. Bringing in eight players from the transfer portal this offseason, the Rebels have been recognized as having the second-best transfer class, according to ESPN.

FRESH FACES

Along with bringing in eight transfers, Coach Yo and her staff secured one of the best young talents in Lauren Jacobs to make up this season's newcomer class.

GIVE ME THE NUMBERS

The 2025-26 Ole Miss basketball roster boasts some serious career statistics. Combined this season's Rebel roster has 555 career DI starts, 15 all-conference selections and eight combined Sweet 16 appearances. Collectively, the team possesses 8,433 career points, 3,105 rebounds, 1,391 assists, 864 steals and 445 blocks.

Individually, Denim DeShields, Cotie McMahon and Kaitlin Peterson have each accrued over 1,000 points thus far in their career. Ole Miss is the only NCAA DI women's basketball program in the country to bring in a trio of players via the transfer portal who've reached the century mark in points.

RANKED REBELS

Garnering national recognition in the polls, the Rebels recently came in at No. 17 in the AP, marking the highest ranking following 12 weeks of play since Feb. 5, 1996 when the Rebels were also at No. 17. Additionally, the Rebels came in at No. 17 in the USA Today Coaches Poll, marking the best week 13 ranking since Feb. 7, 1995 where Ole Miss was picked at No. 14.

IT JUST MEANS MORE

In both the SEC media and coaches' poll, Ole Miss has been selected to finish sixth overall out of the 16 teams in the SEC. This marks the fourth consecutive year that Ole Miss has received top-six preseason recognition after earning a No. 4 selection in 2023, and No. 5 selections in 2024 and 2022. The Rebels have surpassed expectations four times in the last five years, ending the season higher in the standings than voted on in the SEC Preseason Media Poll. Additionally, both polls placed Cotie McMahon on the Preseason All-SEC Second Team.

HOME SWEET HOME

Rebel nation has turned the SJB Pavilion into an intimidating environment for visiting teams, especially in the nonconference slate. Ole Miss has won 39 of its last 42 games at home against nonconference opponents, dating back to the 2020 season. This season, the Rebels went undefeated in nonconference games at the SJB Pavilion with eight wins. It's the fourth time under Coach Yo and marks back-to-back seasons where Ole Miss has recorded the same feat.

STEALIN' SIRA

Last season, Sira Thienou led the Rebels in pickpocketing balls, earning the most steals per game by any freshman in a power four conference, while also sitting fourth in the SEC and 42nd in the nation with 2.4 steals a game. In conference play, Thienou recorded 47 steals for an average of 2.9 per game. The Bamako, Mali, native will look to elevate her defensive presence this season to match Coach Yo's defensive philosophy.

All-Time Steals by a Freshman, Ole Miss History

Season	Name	Steals
1983-84	Alisa Scott	81
2024-25	Sira Thienou	79
2003-04	Armintie Price	76

GIVE

Every season, head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin selects a word for her team to live by, one that embodies their purpose and guides their mindset. This year, that word is "Give." Coach Yo believes true leadership begins with service, and in today's college athletics landscape, where student-athletes receive so much, she emphasizes the importance of giving back. Her goal is to prepare her players not only for success on the court, but also for life beyond basketball, where fulfillment often comes through what you give, not just what you get. Ultimately, Coach Yo challenges her team to give their all not just in competition, but also in the classroom and to one another.

BUILDING BEYOND SCOTT

Madison Scott had an outstanding five-year career at Ole Miss, consistently elevating her game and becoming one of the most exciting players in the SEC. Nationally recognized for her talent, Scott earned a spot on the 2025 All-SEC Second Team, marking her seventh career conference honor, and was recognized as a WBCA Honorable Mention All-American. Additionally, she was awarded the 2025 Gillom Trophy as the best women's basketball player in Mississippi.

Her eye-popping play led her to earn an invite to the WNBA Draft in New York City, where she was ultimately selected with the 14th pick in the second round by the Dallas Wings, but she now currently plays with the Washington Mystics. Coach Yo and the Rebels will have to navigate the season without the steady leadership and veteran presence of Scott, whose impact on and off the court set the tone for Ole Miss the past half-decade.

HISTORY REWRITTEN

Last year, Ole Miss reached the 20-win plateau for a fourth consecutive season and the 22nd time in program history. It marked the first time in the 21st century that Ole Miss has reached at least 20 wins in four straight seasons and first since Van Chancellor led 11 consecutive teams to that mark from 1981-92. Additionally, the Rebels have tallied at least 10 SEC wins in the last four seasons. Coach Yo is the only coach in program history to have at least 20 overall wins and 10 SEC wins in four seasons at the helm.

NONCON SUCCESS

Ole Miss entered SEC play with the most wins in a nonconference slate in the 21st century. No Rebel squad has begun SEC with at least 13 wins since 2000, except for Coach Yo's Team 51. Additionally, Ole Miss played the most nonconference games by any SEC team this season, competing in the maximum 15 games available.

"YO" VEMBER

Starting off the year a perfect 7-0, Ole Miss went undefeated through the full month of November for the first time since the 2008-09 season, averaging an impressive scoring margin of +30.6. The Rebels defeated teams from the SWAC, MEAC, Big 10, and Atlantic 10 conferences, as well as going 2-0 in the Daytona Beach Coast 2 Coast Classic.

NO FLY ZONE

As a team, Ole Miss has rejected 107 shots so far this season for an average of 5.1 blocks per game. The Rebels are on pace for 168 blocks this season at their current pace, which would be the third most in program history. All 12 Rebels have earned at least one block so far this season.

Latasha Lattimore leads the Rebels with 45 total blocks, ranking third in the SEC and 14th in the nation. Tallying a 12 consecutive game streak with at least one block this season from the George Mason game on November 29, 2025 to the Oklahoma game on January 8, 2026, it marked the longest such streak by a Rebel since Dominique Banks had a 17-game streak during the 2019-20 season.

Team Blocks in a Single Season, Ole Miss History

Season	Blocks	Blocks per Game
2023-24	190	5.8
2022-23	174	5.1
2025-26	168*	5.1

C-SQUARED

Christeen Iwuala and Cotie McMahon have become quite the dynamic duo for the Rebels. Combined the two seniors account for 41.5% of the Rebels' points this season and together have been the game leaders in scoring 20 out of the 21 matchups. In rebounding, the pair has accounted for 33.6% of Ole Miss' total rebounds, leading the Rebels' in boards in 17 out of the 21 games so far. Iwuala has earned seven double-doubles this year, and McMahon has notched four, combining for 11 of the 13 double-doubles any Rebel has registered during the 2025-26 season.

THE IWUALA IMPACT

Christeen Iwuala has established herself as one of the top frontcourt players in the SEC throughout the season. She has recorded a double-double in a team-high seven outings this year, after previously never earning the feat in any of her three seasons of collegiate basketball prior.

Additionally, Iwuala has grabbed the most rebounds by a Rebel in 12 games this year, leading Ole Miss in the category, while also leading the Rebels in scoring six times. Iwuala is following the pattern that Rebel transfers under Coach Yo tend to blossom in their second year in Oxford, joining the likes of Marquesha Davis, Angel Baker and Shakira Austin.

SHE'S THE mCMAHON

Cotie McMahon has provided a spark to the Ole Miss offense in her first season in Oxford. She scored at least 10 points in each of Ole Miss' first 19 games this season, tying Bianca Thomas for the longest such streak in recent memory by a Rebel, who started the 2009-10 season with 19 consecutive games of double-digit points.

On the season, McMahon has 11 games north of 20 points. She is looking to surpass former Rebels Arminte Price and Clara Jackson who each earned 12 games of 20+ points during the 2005-06 and 1993-94 seasons, respectively.

McMahon likes to share the love, as the four times that she has earned a double-double in a game, another Rebel has earned the same feat. Alongside McMahon, Christeen Iwuala earned double-doubles against Southern and Memphis, Latasha Lattimore earned one against Wofford and Sira Thienou notched a double-double versus Missouri.

FREE-THROW STREAKIN'

Debreasha Powe has proven to be very reliable at the free throw line, having yet to miss at the spot this season with 18 attempts. Dating back to last year when Powe was at Mississippi State, she has made 23 straight free throws. The last time a Rebel had this many consecutive free throws made was Crystal Allen during the 2018-19 season, who had an astonishing 47 free throws.

DIALED IN FROM DEEP

In the first game of the 2025-26 season, the Rebels put on a clinic from long distance, draining 13 threes on a 43.3 percent shooting clip. It surpasses last season's single game best by three and serves as the most since the Rebels clicked on 14 on Dec. 28, 2018, against North Florida. In the first quarter alone, Ole Miss converted five 3-pointers, matching last season's average in threes made per an entire game.

Cotie McMahon paced the team in made threes with four on six attempts (66.7%), followed by Tianna Thompson who made three on four attempts (75.0%). Alongside the leading pair, Debreasha Powe and Sira Thienou each earned two buckets from behind the arc, while Latasha Lattimore and Denim DeShields rounded out the Rebels' 3-point frenzy with one apiece.

BONUS BASKETBALL

Down 13 points late in the third quarter against Memphis, Ole Miss showed its resilience and fought all the way back to force extra minutes. Once in overtime, it was all Rebels, allowing Ole Miss to win their first overtime game since Feb. 18, 2024, when they beat Mississippi State in Oxford, 75-71. Ole Miss has won the last four of its games that have been forced into overtime, dating back to the 2022-23 season. Additionally, Yolett McPhee-McCuin is now 5-4 in overtime games as the Rebels head coach.

HIT ONE HUNDRED

Scoring 102 points against Longwood, Ole Miss dropped triple-digit scoring for the first time since Dec. 8, 2020, when they scored 104 against Alcorn State at home. It's the second time under head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin that Ole Miss has scored at least 100 points and the 36th time ever in program history.

ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM HONOREES

After her impressive showing at the Coast 2 Coast Classic, Chisteen Iwuala was one of five student-athletes that were named to the All-Tournament First Team. In just this week alone, she led the SEC in rebounds with 26 and in field goals with 22, while also ranking third in most points in the conference at 55. Earning 21 points and 10 rebounds in the second game of the weekend against George Mason, Iwuala earned her third double-double of her career. She narrowly missed having another double-double in the first game against Wisconsin, falling just two rebounds short after earning 20 points and eight rebounds.

Iwuala earned All-Tournament honors again at the Cherokee Invitational, recording 23 points and 10 rebounds against Old Dominion to help secure a first-round victory. She finished the tournament with 31 points and 17 rebounds, placing her among the Top 10 All-Time performers in Cherokee Invitational history in both categories. Cotie McMahon joined her on the list, as she was Ole Miss's only player to score in double figures in both tournament games, finishing with a combined 32 points. She was also the Rebels' lone double-digit scorer in the Championship game versus Michigan State, contributing 13 points.

DON'T COUNT OUT THE REBS

Defeating Notre Dame 69-62, Ole Miss survived a 19-point deficit in the second quarter of the ACC/SEC Challenge, tying its largest comeback in program history. Last time the Rebels came back from 19 points to win was on Jan. 29, 2023, against Arkansas.

Coming out of the lockerroom with the score at 37-29 after chipping away at the 19-point deficit, Cotie McMahon sparked the comeback in the third quarter with her second three of the night, before Denim DeShields and Debreasha Powe hit back-to-back triples to give Ole Miss its first lead. A Sira Thienou block set up a McMahon fastbreak finish, sending the Rebels into the fourth ahead 50-49 after a dominant 21-12 quarter. Ole Miss carried that momentum through the final frame, with Christeen Iwuala and McMahon combining for 13 points, Thienou adding two key steals, and Powe knocking down clutch free throws. Despite Notre Dame's late makes, the Rebels' advantage held firm, sealing the comeback victory.

THREE-HEADED MONSTER

The Rebels were unstoppable off the glass against Wofford, nearly doubling the Terriers rebound total, 53 to 27. This, in large part came from a three-headed monster in Latasha Lattimore (11), Cotie McMahon (11), and Sira Thienou (12), who each reached double-digit rebounds for the day. It's the first time since Nov. 17, 2009, that three Rebels had more than 10 rebounds in a single game.

DICTATE & DISRUPT

Ole Miss' 59-point victory against South Carolina State is tied for the seventh-widest margin of victory in program history, and its largest win this season. Additionally, 32 points by the Bulldogs is tied for the sixth-fewest points allowed in Ole Miss women's basketball history.

Defense and clean play headlined Ole Miss' dominant victory over SC State on Dec. 14, 2025. The Rebels didn't allow more than 10 points from the Bulldogs in three of the four quarters in the game, including a season-low four in the fourth quarter, all while forcing several extended streaks of scoreless action.

MOST DOMINANT WIN IN PROGRAM HISTORY

Ole Miss' 68-point victory over the Mississippi Valley State, with a score of 102-34, sets the program record for widest margin of victory by three points. Most recently set last year against Alabama State, Ole Miss has once again set the standard for major program wins. Head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin now owns five of the top 10 biggest blowouts in Ole Miss program history.

Ole Miss scored 63 points in the second half, which is tied for the most points scored by a Rebel squad in a single half in program history, which it most recently did on Nov. 13, 2015, also against MVSU. By reaching the century mark in scoring for the second time this season, McPhee-McCuin has guided the Rebels to multiple 100-point games in the same season for the first time since 2009-10. It's the third time in McPhee-McCuin's tenure in Oxford that the Rebels have scored at least 100 points.

BLOCK PARTY

Ole Miss had a block party against Mississippi Valley State, earning 12 blocks, which tied for the third most in a game in program history.

Latasha Lattimore was a defensive stalwart for the Rebels, denying MVSU shots from all over the court. She finished the day by tying a career-high six blocks, making her the first Rebel since Rita Igboekwe on Jan. 4, 2024, to deny at least five shots in a game, and the most by a Rebel since Igboekwe had eight against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 21, 2023. Along with Lattimore, Christeen Iwuala, Cotie McMahon, Kaitlin Peterson, Debreasha Powe, Tianna Thompson, and J'Adore Young each added a block to the total.

TOPPLED THE TOP FIVE

With a statement 74-69 win over No. 5 Oklahoma, it marked the fourth time under head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin that the Rebels have bested an AP top 10 team, and the second time doing so against a top five team, the last being a 54-49 victory over No. 5 Stanford on March 19, 2023 during the second round of the NCAA Tournament. All-time, it marked Ole Miss' 14th time defeating a top five team, and the third time this century.

Superstar Cotie McMahon paced the Rebels in scoring for the 11th time this season, dropping 22 points and led the team with four assists. Sira Thienou also had a strong outing behind McMahon, as they became the first Rebel duo with 20-plus points in a single game this season. Thienou had a season-high 20 points to complement McMahon and shot a staggering 75 percent from the floor on 12 attempts.

Bulldogs since Feb. 19, 1997, when Ole Miss won, 76-56. Ole Miss' 93 points is the most against Mississippi State since March 4, 1994, when it scored 100 points, and is tied for the second-most against it in the series history. The Rebels dominate the all-time series against the Bulldogs 70-39, including a 33-20 record in Oxford.

SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

On January 13, 2026, Cotie McMahon was named Co-SEC Player of the Week, marking her eighth weekly conference honor and her first in the SEC. McMahon earned the honor after an exceptional week, leading Ole Miss to wins over No. 5 Oklahoma and in-state rival Mississippi State. With 43 total points through the two games, McMahon ranked third most among the SEC that week, while also ranking third in total field goals (16) and 3-point percentage (44.4%) among the conference.

Two weeks later, McMahon was named Co-SEC Player of the Week again after having her most complete performance for the Rebels against Missouri, scoring a 33-point double-double, which ties her career high in points. She's the first Rebel to score 30 points this season, the first Rebel since Madison Scott to do so, and her point total is the most by a Rebel since Marquesha Davis had the same amount against Florida on March 8, 2024. Adding to her scoring, she tied her season best in rebounds with 12, while also running the point and dropping five dimes. Additionally for her performance, McMahon earned USBWA National Player of the Week honors.
