SUMMITT BLUE UNIFORMS

- In conjunction with the 50th anniversary of Title IX, Tennessee Athletics' updated brand standards renamed the blue accent color historically associated with the Lady Vols "Summitt Blue."
- Four teams debuted the Summitt Blue uniforms during the 2022-23 academic year - a collection dubbed the "Summitt Legacy" series.
- During fall 2022, the Tennessee soccer and volleyball teams were the first to compete in the new Summitt Blue jerseys.
- The Lady Vol basketball team followed suit with a full Summitt Blue uniform vs Georgia, and the softball squad's jersey rotation also featured a Summitt Blue option in spring 2023.
- Summitt Blue stands alongside "Smokey Grey" and "Dark Mode" (formerly Anthracite) as the three accent colors on Tennessee Athletics' official color palette.
- "Tennessee's history as a worldwide leader in women's athletics, along with the Lady Vols' unique legacy of excellence are traditions we are proud to celebrate," Tennessee Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White said. "As some of our teams saw their new Summitt Blue uniforms for the first time, they reacted with a joy and enthusiasm that extended to our fans and proud alumni."
- The first version of the Lady Vols' blue accent color appeared in 1968 when then-coach Joan Cronan set out to obtain jerseys for the women's basketball team. At the time, no company offered an orange uniform, so Cronan opted for Columbia blue uniforms with orange lettering when the Lady Vols played at home.
- Later, when orange uniforms became available, UT switched to the traditional orange jerseys but a touch of Summitt Blue has remained.
- Blue also has appeared on Tennessee men's uniforms in the past, as the men's basketball program used a shade of blue as an accent color on its jerseys during the head coaching tenure of Ray Mears in the 1960s.
- Tennessee Football wore blue accessories in 2022 vs. UT Martin, 2023 vs. UConn and 2024 vs. Mississippi State.
- In addition to commemorating the anniversary of Title IX vs. UT Martin, the Summitt Blue color honored the late, legendary Lady Vols head coach Pat Summitt, who was a graduate of UTM and played basketball there.
- UT is 8-5 all-time wearing its "Summitt Blue" uniforms, including 1-1 in 2022-23, 3-1 in 2023-24, 2-2 in 2024-25 and 2-1 in 2025-26.
- All-time, the Lady Vols are 4-2 at home, 3-2 on the road and 1-1 at neutral sites through 12/3/25.

HEAD COACH KIM CALDWELL

Kim Caldwell is in her second season as the women's basketball head coach at the University of Tennessee. She was announced on April 7, 2024, as the fourth leader of the Lady Volunteers during the NCAA era.

A rising star in the profession, Caldwell has quickly forged a reputation as an elite head coach at three different stops now after making her debut at the game's highest level as the skipper of the all-time winningest program in women's hoops at UT. She previously led NCAA Division II Glensville State and DI Marshall to championship seasons with a high-octane approach on both ends of the floor.

Simply put, Caldwell is a winner. Entering her 10th season as a head coach, she has compiled an impressive 241-41 (.855) career record. Those numbers include an astounding 157-21 (.882) mark in conference games. Along the way, her teams have earned berths in nine NCAA Tournaments, and she directed those squads to one national championship, two NCAA DII Final Fours, seven conference championships and five conference tournament titles.

Statistically, her teams have excelled in scoring, three-point shooting, offensive rebounding and steals. As a head coach, her squads have led the nation five times in scoring, finishing second twice and never placing below fourth in points per game. Her squads have been the top team on four occasions in three-pointers made per game, never placing lower than fifth. In steals per game, Caldwell's units have finished below fourth only once (2024-25).

Her first year on Rocky Top saw Caldwell guide her club to a 24-10 overall record and an 8-8 mark in SEC play, carding notable wins over Florida State, Iowa, Ohio State and eventual NCAA champ UConn, the first by UT over the Huskies since 2007 in the interrupted series. The Big Orange advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 and finished the season ranked 15th and 16th, respectively, in the AP and USA TODAY/WBCA Coaches Polls. Those accomplishments came while Caldwell carried her first child and gave birth during the season, missing only the Texas game and returning vs. South Carolina.

Caldwell carded her eighth 20-win season in nine years (exception was COVID year) and recorded the best opening ever by a Lady Vol head coach in her first year of leading the program (8-0) and extended it to 13-0. That marked her second-best opening to a campaign behind a 29-0 start at Glensville State in 2021-22.

Caldwell's initial team at Tennessee set school and SEC records for points (139), three-pointers made (30) and threes attempted (63) vs. N.C. Central on Dec. 14. The treys made also eclipsed NCAA (M/W), NBA and WNBA bests, while the point total ranked fifth in NCAA women's history.

SECOND SEASON AT TENNESSEE / 10TH SEASON AS A HEAD COACH

BORN: Nov. 24, 1988

EDUCATION:

Parkersburg South High School (Parkersburg, W.Va.), '07
B.S. (Sport Mgmt./Psychology Minor), Glensville State, '11
M.S. (Education), Ohio Valley Univ., '12

SPOUSE: Justin Caldwell SON: Conor Caldwell

PLAYING CAREER:

Glensville State (2007-11): Led Pioneers to 2010-11 West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title, earned a bid to the 2011 NCAA Division II Tournament, 2010-11 WVIAC Student-Athlete of the Year, 2010 & 2011 WVIAC Commissioner's Honor Roll

Additionally, UT tallied the most treys made (343) and attempted (1,054) in a season at UT, also setting SEC bests in those areas. UT's 86.6 points per game in Caldwell's first campaign stood fourth in school annals and eighth in the SEC record book.

Caldwell's first edition produced an All-SEC Second Team and SEC All-Defensive Team performer in Talaysia Cooper. It also featured Sara Puckett and Jewel Spear earning CSC Academic All-District accolades and 11 of her 15 players receiving SEC Academic Honor Roll distinction.

After the season, Zee Spearman was chosen for the USA's 2025 FIBA 3x3 Nations League Americas squad (Chile) and the 2025 FIBA 3x3 U23 World Cup Team (China). Spearman is Caldwell's first player to compete with USA Basketball.

On the recruiting front, Caldwell and her staff have seen the benefits of their hard work pay off early during her tenure. Her first portal class featured Zee Spearman and Ruby Whitehorn playing lead roles for the 2024-25 squad. UT then signed a 2025 high school class ranked No. 1 or 2 (Mia Pauldo, Deniya Prawl, Jaida Civil, Lauren Hurst, Mya Pauldo) and added the top portal class of 2025 (Janiah Barker, Nya Robertson, Jersey Wolfenbarger), according to ESPN.

Prior to coming to Tennessee, Caldwell guided Marshall to a 26-7 overall record and 17-1 league mark in her only season there in 2023-24. She was named the WBCA's Spalding Maggie Dixon NCAA Division I Rookie Coach of the Year and the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year after piloting the Thundering Herd to both the league's regular season and tournament titles as well as the school's second NCAA Tournament berth ever and first since 1997.

After being picked ninth in the Sun Belt Conference preseason poll, Marshall proceeded to generate 85.3 points per game (4th in NCAA) and force 24.2 turnovers per contest in notching a program best for wins. Caldwell's victory total stands as the most by a first-year coach in MU women's hoops history and marked the first 20-win regular-season campaign by the school since 1990-91.

Caldwell got her start as a head coach at her alma mater under her maiden name of Kim Stephens. She led Glensville State to the 2021-22 NCAA Division II National Championship in her sixth year at the school and helped the Pioneers earn seven overall NCAA Tournament berths.

For the 2021-22 season's accomplishment, she was presented the Pat Summitt Trophy, which goes to the WBCA's NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year. Caldwell also earned the 2022 Furfari Award, which is presented to West Virginia's College Coach of the Year in all sports by the West Virginia Sports Writers Association. She also won that award in 2019 and 2024 (while at Marshall) as well.

In seven seasons with the Pioneers, from 2016-23, the 2011 GSU graduate compiled a 191-24 mark, including a 132-12 slate in the Mountain East Conference (MEC). Her final two editions forged a 68-4 combined record, including the 35-1 national championship season (22-0 in league play) in 2021-22, and a 33-3 outcome after advancing to the national semifinals in 2022-23. Her final unit there led NCAA Division II in points per game (91.2) and turnovers forced (27.3).

She guided Glensville State to six MEC regular season titles (2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2022, 2023) and four MEC Tournament trophies (2018, 2019, 2020, 2023), earning MEC Coach of the Year honors four times in 2018, 2019, 2022 and 2023. Her first four league titles came with her father, Scott Stephens, serving as her assistant coach before he passed away on Nov. 21, 2020.

Prior to her stint at GSU, she worked as an assistant at Sacramento State for three seasons from 2013-16 under Bunky Harkleroad, for the 2012-13 season at Glensville State as an assistant to Harkleroad and began her college coaching career at Ohio Valley University, filling a role as an assistant there from 2011-12.

A native of Parkersburg, W.Va., Caldwell played high school basketball for her dad at Parkersburg South High School, where he led that program to three state titles during a 13-year career. Her sisters Anne and Jill also played at PSHS before going on to collegiate careers at the University of Cincinnati from 2002-06 and 2005-09, respectively.

As a collegiate player, Caldwell (then Stephens) helped lead Glensville State to the 2010-11 West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship as a player and earn an NCAA Division

II Tournament berth. She was named the WVIAC Student-Athlete of the Year that season and academically made the WVIAC Commissioner's Honor Roll as a junior and senior.

Caldwell is married to Justin Caldwell, who was head coach of the men's basketball program at Glenville State from 2018-23 and served as a men's hoops assistant at Marshall in 2023-24. He joined Rick Barnes' men's basketball staff at Tennessee on Sept. 20, 2024, when he was named player development coordinator for the Volunteers.

The Caldwelles are the parents of a son, Conor Scott, who was born on Jan. 20, 2025.
