BILL ARMSTRONG Head Coach 28-5 (1st year)

2026 JOE B. HALL AWARD FINALIST

Bill Armstrong, a proven winner and former associate head coach with Will Wade at LSU, was named the next leader of the McNeese Basketball program in the spring of 2025.

Armstrong is the 13th head coach in school history and replaces Wade, who was named the head coach at North Carolina State.

A veteran in the coaching ranks at the Division 1 level including 17 seasons in the SEC, Armstrong spent the 2024-25 season at Baylor with head coach Scott Drew and helped lead the Bears to the Round of 32 in the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to his arrival in Waco, Armstrong spent two seasons as the head coach at Link Academy in Branson, Mo., where he coached several notable prospects including BU's Ja'Kobe Walter. In his time leading the Lions, the program was perennially in the top-10 and made it to the Chipotle High School Basketball Nationals, formerly the GEICO Nationals, in 2022-23 and 2023-24.

Led by Armstrong and spurred by Walter, the 2022-23 Lions captured the national championship and finished the season as the No. 1 ranked team in the country. This past season Link made it to the semi-finals of the eight-team national finals, before being upended by Paul VI High School in the semi-nals.

Prior to his tenure at Link, Armstrong served as the associate head coach at LSU from 2020-22 after spending three years in Baton Rouge as an assistant coach from 2017-20. During his time with the Bayou Bengals, LSU made four postseason appearances, including three NCAA tournaments, highlighted by a run to the Sweet 16 in 2019.

The Tigers also had back-to-back first round picks in 2021 and 2022 as Cam Thomas and Tari Eason were taken with the 27th and 17th picks, respectively. Over his five seasons in South Louisiana, the Tigers amassed 108 wins and a 2019 SEC regular-season title.

Besides opponent scouting and on-floor coaching duties, Armstrong was heavily involved in LSU's recruiting efforts and helped LSU come up with a No. 4 ranked national recruiting class for the 2018-19 season that included Javonte Smart, Marlon Taylor, Emmitt Williams and Darius Days. The 2020 class included freshman All-America Thomas, Mwani Wilkinson and Eric Gaines.

Armstrong was also involved in the recruiting of another stellar class for the 2021-22 season in five-star center Efton Reid and four-star guard Brandon Murry, along with Jerrell Colbert and Alex Fudge. The Tigers also used the transfer portal to bring in proven players like Eason, Xavier Pinson and Adam Miller.

Prior to his time at LSU, Armstrong spent 11 years on staff at Ole Miss, the first five as the director of operations and the final six as an assistant coach. In that time, the Rebels won 20 games nine times, earned eight postseason berths and won a pair of SEC West titles. He helped tutor All-SEC players like Stefan Moody, Marshall Henderson and Sebastian Saiz. During 2012-13, Armstrong aided in the Rebels tying a school record with 27 wins, and snapped an 11-year NCAA Tournament drought, while Henderson earned SEC Player of the Year Honors.

Before his arrival in Oxford, Armstrong spent three years as an assistant coach at Birmingham-Southern. In his first season with the Panthers in 2003-04 – BSC's first season of full NCAA eligibility – Armstrong helped the team to a 20-7 record and a 12-4 mark in conference play, earning a share of the Big South regular-season championship. Birmingham-Southern posted a 19-9 finish in his final year.

A Birmingham native, Armstrong joined the BSC staff after serving as an assistant at Chipola Junior College in Marianna, Fla., where he helped lead the Indians to a 23-9 record and a second-place finish in the Panhandle Conference in 2002-03.

Prior to his stint at Chipola, Armstrong was a graduate assistant for UAB during the 2001-02 campaign under Murry Bartow. Armstrong graduated from UAB in 2001 with a degree in justice sciences. He was also the recipient of the Barbara Hallerman Scholarship for Leadership.

A four-year letterman at UAB from 1998-2001, Armstrong played under Andy Kennedy, who was then an assistant coach with the Blazers who later hired Armstrong at Ole Miss. He served as team captain as a senior and helped the Blazers reach the NCAA Tournament in 1999 and the NIT in 1998.

Armstrong was a three-year letter winner for his father, Jimmy, at Oneonta (Alabama) High School where he was Academic All-State, Class 2A All-State, averaging 19.7 points and 7.8 assists per game as a senior. His team won the Area 11 championship for two consecutive seasons (1995-96) and reached the Alabama Class 2A Sweet 16 both years.

Born November 18, 1977, Armstrong and his wife, Kenna, are the parents of five children: daughters Ella Michele, Sara McKay and Amelia Grace — and sons, James Walton (Bo), and Ford.
